Rabbits & Boa Constrictors Фазиль Искандер, 1989      Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, Nicole Christian, 1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Russian Experimental Fiction Edith W. Clowes, 2014-07-14 In the three decades following Stalin's death major underground Russian writers have subverted Soviet ideology by using parody to draw attention to its basis in utopian thought Referring to utopian writing as diverse as Defoe's Robinson Crusoe Dostoevsky's Notes from Underground and Orwell's Animal Farm they have tested notions of truth reality and representation They have gone beyond their precursors by experimenting with the tensions between ludic and didactic art Edith Clowes explores these meta utopian narratives which address a wide range of attitudes toward utopia to expose the challenge that literary play poses to dogmatism and to elucidate the sense of renewal it can bring to social imagination Using both structural analysis and reception theory she introduces readers outside Russia to a fascinating body of literature that includes Aleksandr Zinoviev's The Yawning Heights Abram Terts's Liubimov Vladimir Voinovich's Moscow 2042 and Liudmila Petrushevskaya's The New Robinsons Not advocating its own utopian alternative to current social realities meta utopian fiction investigates the function of a deep human impulse to imagine project and enforce alternative social orders Clowes examines the technical innovations meta utopian writers have made in style image and narrative structure that inform fresh modes of social imagination Her analysis leads to an inquiry into the intended and real audiences of this fiction and into the ways its authors try to move them toward more sophisticated social discourse Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Unvarnishing Reality Derek C. Maus, 2012-10-15 Unvarnishing Reality draws original insight to the literature politics history and culture of the cold war by closely examining the themes and goals of American and Russian satirical fiction As Derek C Maus illustrates the paranoia of nuclear standoff provided a subversive storytelling mode for authors from both nations including Thomas Pynchon Robert Coover John Barth Walker Percy Don DeLillo Kurt Vonnegut Jr Vasily Aksyonov Yuz Aleshkovsky Alexander Zinoviev Vladimir Voinovich Fazil Iskander and Sasha Sokolov Maus surveys the background of each nation's culture language sociology politics and philosophy to map the foundation on which cold war satire was built By highlighting common themes of utopianism technology and propaganda Maus effectively shows the ultimate motive of satirists on both sides was to question the various forces contributing to the cold war and to expose the absurdity of the continuous tension that pulsed between the United States and the Soviet Union for nearly half a century Although cold war literature has been studied extensively few critics have focused so keenly on comparisons of satirical fictions by Russian and American writers that condemn and subvert the polarizing ideologies inherent in superpower rivalry. Such a comparison reveals thematic and structural similarities that transcend specific national and cultural origins. In considering these works together, Maus locates a thoroughgoing humanistic refutation of the cold war and its operative doctrines as well as a range of proposed alternatives. Just as the cold war combatants ultimately reconciled in 1991 with the fall of the Soviet Union, Maus seeks to bring these two literary canons together now. Their thematic scope transcends cultural differences and as Maus demonstrates, these writers saw that there was not only the atomic bomb to fear but also the dangers of complete national militarization and the constant polarizing threat of emergency. Thus their cold war critiques still resonate today and invite further comparative studies such as this one. Boa

Constrictor Manual Philippe De Vosjoli, Roger Klingenberg, Jeff Ronne, 2004-10. Still the most popular large snake in the pet world, the boa constrictor of South America is a hardy beautiful snake that is fairly docile and considered safe when handled properly. In The Boa Constrictor Manual, world renowned herp expert Philippe de Vosjoli has written a concise and useful guide, well illustrated with color photographs that offers all of the information a boa keeper needs to maintain a pet snake safely and in the best of health. This Advanced Vivarium Systems title includes information about selecting and purchasing a healthy boa constrictor, proper housing and maintenance, needs, feeding, and safe handling. Dr. Roger Klingenberg, a herp veterinary specialist, has written a special health chapter on diseases and disorders with particular emphasis on the dreaded boa AIDS inclusion body disease or IBD, as well as parasitism, respiratory disease, and more. The chapter concludes with a six page chart on troubleshooting health concerns which all boa constrictor keepers will find useful for general upkeep and recognizing and dealing with serious issues. Beyond the husbandry and health of boa constrictors, this book offers an excellent chapter by Jeff Ronne on breeding Colombia boa constrictors, beginning with the size and health of breeding animals and the female's cycling to the birth and care of newborns. In countries worldwide, the Cold War dominated politics, society, and culture during the second half of the twentieth century. Global Cold War Literature offers a unique look at the multiple ways in which writers from Asia, Africa, Europe, and North and South America addressed the military conflicts, revolutions, propaganda wars, and ideological debates of the era. While including essays on western European and North American literature, the volume views First World writing not as central to the period but as part of an international discussion of Cold War realities in which the most interesting contributions often came from marginal or subordinate cultures To this end there is an emphasis on the literatures of the Second and Third Worlds including essays on Latin American poetry Soviet travel writing Chinese autobiography African theatre North Korean literature Cuban and eastern European fiction and Middle Eastern fiction and poetry With the post Cold War era still in a condition of emergence it is essential that we look back to the 1945 89 period to understand the political and cultural forces that shaped the modern world The volume s analysis of those forces and its focus on many of the hot spots Afghanistan Iran North Korea that define the contemporary war on terror make this an essential resources for those working in Postcolonial American and English Literatures as well as in History Comparative Literature European Studies and Cultural Studies Global Cold War Literatures is a suitable companion volume to Hammond s Cold War Literature Writing the Global Conflict also available from Routledge
