Enno Gelder, 2012-12-06 This book deals with the religious aspects and consequences of the Renaissance and Humanism It is therefore advisable that these terms should first be defined to some extent By Renaissance is meant here the new element in Western European culture which became more and more evident in Italy during the 15th century and in about 1500 completely dominated the great minds in that country In the 16th century this new ele ment was carried to the countries on the other side of the Alps where it developed vigorously during that century The new element in that culture is found in the plastic arts literature philosophy and also and this is the subject of the present study in a modified religious attitude The following chapters will show the content of this last change Problems such as what in general characterizes the Renaissance by what was it caused when did it begin and in particular whether the Renaissance forms a sharp contrast to the Middle Ages or whether it is a direct continuation of it will not be discussed here It will be clear from the above definition that I have placed first and foremost those things in the Renaissance which distinguish it from the Middle Ages

Domestic Georgic Katie Kadue,2021-09-19 Inspired by Virgil s Georgics this study conceptualizes Renaissance poetry as a domestic labor When is literary production more menial than inspired more like housework than heroics of the mind In this revisionist study Katie Kadue shows that some of the authors we credit with groundbreaking literary feats including Michel de Montaigne and John Milton conceived of their writing in surprisingly modest and domestic terms In contrast to the monumental ambitions associated with the literature of the age and picking up an undercurrent of Virgil s Georgics poetic labor of the Renaissance emerges here as often aligned with so called women s work Kadue reveals how male authors engagements with a feminized georgic mode became central to their conceptions of what literature is and could be This other georgic strain in literature shared the same primary concern as housekeeping the necessity of constant almost invisible labor to keep the things of the world intact Domestic Georgic brings into focus a conception of literary as well as scholarly and critical labor not as a striving for originality and fame but as a form of maintenance work that aims at preserving individual and collective life
