Voice of a Voyage Doann Houghton-Alico, 2014-06-16 In 2001 sixty year old author Doann Houghton Alico and her husband embarked on a ten year sailing circumnavigation visiting forty one countries and sailing over 43 000 nautical miles As an award winning author of both technical books and poetry she brings her love of research into the tangents of the stories she encountered and her lyrical voice to create a picture of the world few of us know The author an adept observer and an enthusiastic participant in what life has to offer writes of her love of the sea at night far away from land but she also describes such exotic places as remote islands of the South Pacific where black magic and wives bought for three boar tusks are the norm She evokes the spirit of people and places by revisiting their cultural and natural history and exploring beneath the surface Her portrayals are riveting drawing the reader quickly into an intimate chronicle of tragedy and beauty Doann's poetry and photographs add additional dimensions to her evocative writing Doann relishes places like the sandy forbidding uninterrupted views of the Sudanese desert from the marsas inlets of the Red Sea where flamingoes and camels abound but also addresses the more serious issues she witnessed such as survival in areas of exploding populations decreasing food supplies climate change and the impact of war She describes both in a visceral yet insightful way Her inquisitiveness the allure of exploration and a strong curiosity about the world inspire her writing Whether floating in the sea eye to eye with a humpback whale escaping pirates or drinking tea in a bombed out Eritrean alley with refugees Doann takes you there Visit her website at www.doannhoughton.com

Calvinism and the Emergence of the Modern World M. Brett Callaway, 2024-06-27 The Western world is in a downward spiral Symptoms include worsening economies increasing crime and general crumbling of society's moral and civil framework Hope is decreasing while anxiety is increasing Throughout the ages mankind's lot has ebbed and flowed in concert with its understanding of and obedience to God's will The ascendancy of Western civilization and our modern world coincided with the spread of Calvinism It is the worldview from which today's material and experiential blessings were birthed and gave rise to ideas of democratic representative government and equality of every person before God This book after establishing some distinguishing characteristics of Calvinism traces its advance throughout Europe and subsequently to America through personalities and events giving rise to our modern world and all its prosperity By doing so it provides an encouraging reminder of how God turns the fortunes of faithful men and nations for the better even ours even today

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1975 The Crisis William Edward Burghardt Du Bois, 1927 Shakespeare and the Mismeasure of Renaissance Man Paula Blank, 2018-07-05 Shakespeare's poems and plays are rich in reference to measure number and weight which were the key terms of an early modern empirical and quantitative imagination Shakespeare's investigation of Renaissance measures of reality centers on the consequences of applying principles of measurement to the appraisal of human value This is especially true of efforts to judge people as better or worse than or equal to one another With special attention to the Sonnets Measure for Measure Merchant of Venice Othello King Lear and Hamlet Paula Blank argues that Shakespeare in his experiments with measurement demonstrates the incommensurability of the aims and operations of quantification with human experience From scales and spans to squares and levels to ratings and rules Shakespeare's rhetoric of measurement reveals the extent to which language in the Renaissance was itself understood as a set of alternative measures for figuring human worth In chapters that explore attempts to measure human feeling weigh human equalities and inequalities regulate race relations and deduce social and economic merit Blank shows why Shakespeare's measures are so often exposed as mismeasures equivocal provisional and as unreliable as the men and women they are designed to assess

My Comic Book Mind Series Gabriel Zeldis, 2014-02-10 I remember the things I felt at that bar in the mountains The music was over Some songs played on the jukebox The tears welled within me The dusty road outside I had my whole life ahead of me a vision of the indescribable future Tears fell within Mountain life was different but it fit me A ship set sail on a lonely river What was love anyway Complicated There was no one that could hurt me again I imagined Just scars Scars and a desire to make something out of my life My cabin was just a shadow in the night And I was supposed to believe I didn't know Jesus I poured shots and beers that night to the locals Some who had hearts and some whose hearts had escaped them I'll never forget the songs that played on the jukebox The moon cast weary shadows and eyes met eyes in the smoky bar Smoke rising All I could think of was having a fire for myself in my shell of a cabin outside by the river A river that always ran The Modern World Dictionary of the English Language ... ,1896 Books in Print Supplement ,1988 Abortion in International Popular Culture Kelli Maloy,Brenda Boudreau,2025-01-15 In the wake of the reversal of Roe v Wade in 2022 Abortion in International Popular Culture The Decision Heard Round the World examines representations of abortion and reproductive justice across a wide range of popular culture artifacts literary texts and activist movements across the world Contributors analyze examples from Chile Italy Malta Sweden Canada France the U K Argentina Ireland and Poland to consider the relationships between art and public policy the impact of American policy on global policy and pro choice movements and the transnational influence of cultural representations of abortion Good Words ,1871
