Race and Society: The Essentials Kathleen J. Fitzgerald, 2020-11-29 Race and Society The Essentials explains the basic theories and concepts related to the sociology of race and ethnicity covering topics such as prejudice and discrimination immigration and assimilation structural and institutional racism privilege intersectionality color blind racism interracial relationships multiracial families biracial multiracial identities and indigeneity It is designed to provide a foundation for students so they can have productive and necessary discussions about race racism and privilege and understand how to move towards a more racially just society Unlike many texts for this course it does not contain chapters on individual racial and ethnic minorities or on race within the context of social institutions Perfect for instructors who assign other kinds of materials for their race ethnicity courses research monographs journals articles published anthologies scholarly and trade books or for shorter courses this text will provide students with a solid theoretical and conceptual grounding in the field

Race-Ethnicity and Society Benjamin B Ringer, Elinor R. Lawless, 2025-06-30 First published in 1989 Race Ethnicity and Society comes as a usable and comprehensive text on race and ethnicity in the United States Ringer and Lawless set out to fill the gap in the literature by incorporating the positive lessons of the racially turbulent 1960 s and 70s Proposing a challenge to three conventional premises of many texts they argue that the treatment of racial minorities in America was qualitatively different from that experienced by the white immigrants that racism was not a mere aberration in American Society but was built into the very foundations of the society and that America s experience with minorities was not unique but can instead be located within the mainstream of European expansion and conquest Race Ethnicity and Society will be a standard source for students in the fields of sociology history and political science
