Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World Religion and Racial Progress in Twentieth-Century Britain Patrick T. Merricks,2017-07-05 This book is the first in depth analysis of Ernest William Barnes Christian eugenic philosophy bio spiritual determinism As a testament to the popularity of the movement mid twentieth century British eugenics is contextualized within a remarkably diverse selection of discourses including secular and Anglican interpretations of modernism poverty population gender equality pacifism and racism This begins to address the scholastic gap on Christian eugenics while highlighting the perseverance of eugenic racism after World War Two Race to the Bottom Azfar Shafi,Ilyas Nagdee,2022-06-20 Antiracist movements are more mainstream than ever before Liberal democracies boast of their policies designed to stamp out racism in all walks of life Why then is racism still ever present in our society This is not an accident but by design Capitalism is structured by racism and has relentlessly attacked powerful movements Race to the Bottom traces our current crisis back decades to the fragmentation of Britain s Black Power movements and their absorption into NGOs and the Labour Party The authors call for recovering radical histories of antiracist struggle championing modern activism and infusing them with the urgency of our times replacing anxieties over unconscious bias and rival claims for representation with the struggle for a new socialist multi racial organising from below

The Complexion of Race Roxann Wheeler,2000 In the 1723 Journal of a Voyage up the Gambia an English narrator describes the native translators vital to the expedition s success as being Black as Coal Such a description of dark skin color was not unusual for eighteenth century Britons but neither was the statement that followed here thro Custom being Christians they account themselves White Men The Complexion of Race asks how such categories would have been possible when and how such statements came to seem illogical and how our understanding of the eighteenth century has been distorted by the imposition of nineteenth and twentieth century notions of race on an earlier period Wheeler traces the emergence of skin color as a predominant marker of identity in British thought and juxtaposes the Enlightenment s scientific speculation on the biology of race with accounts in travel literature fiction and other documents that remain grounded in different models of human variety As a consequence of a burgeoning empire in the second half of the eighteenth century English writers were increasingly preoccupied with differentiating the British nation from its imperial outposts by naming traits that set off the rulers from the ruled although race was one of these traits it was by no means the distinguishing one In the fiction of the time non European characters could still be redeemed by baptism or conversion and the British nation could embrace its mixed race progeny In Wheeler s eighteenth century we see the coexistence of two systems of racialization and to detect a moment when an older order based on the division between Christian and heathen gives way to a new one based on the assertion of difference between black and white Critical Race Theory in England Namita Chakrabarty,Lorna Roberts,John Preston,2016-03-16 Critical Race Theory CRT explains and challenges the persistence of racial discrimination throughout the world today addressing issues such as racism post colonialism and systems of apartheid Despite claims we live in a post racial era equality laws are under threat in the UK and evidence of racism persists in life and work This collection is the result of ongoing work in this area by a group of UK based academics the CRT in the UK discussion group convened by Namita Chakrabarty John Preston and Lorna Roberts The aim of this book is to examine the practical application of CRT within a specifically English context Encompassing a range of fields from education to civil defense it considers the tools and techniques of CRT including CRT feminist thought from counter narrative to the role of political positioning but above all it analyzes the workings of on going racism within English institutions and structures Key aspects of post 9 11 culture are also critiqued and explored including an analysis of Islamophobia and antiracism how counter terror measures may reinforce racist beliefs the role of race and the BME academic and the manipulation of race in debates surrounding education and class These new perspectives offer greater insight into the crucial area of race without which any understanding of 21st century England is incomplete This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education Race, Racism and the Geography Curriculum John Morgan, David Lambert, 2023-03-23 Changes in the nature of knowledge production plus rapid social and cultural change have meant that the curriculum question what is to be taught and by extension whose knowledge has been hotly contested The question of what to teach has become more and more controversial This book asks what is an appropriate curriculum response to the acute renewed interest in issues of race and racism How does a school subject like geography respond The struggle over the school curriculum has frequently been portrayed as being between educational traditionalists and progressives This book suggests a way out of this impasse Drawing upon and extending insights from social realism it explores what a Future 3 geography curriculum might look like one that recognizes the importance of the academic discipline as a source of curriculum making but at the same time avoids geographical knowledge becoming set in stone The book focuses very sharply on issues of race and racism enabling teachers to engage in curriculum making in geography that is racially literate The Foreword is written by Julian Agyeman a former geography teacher in the UK and now Professor of Urban and Environmental Policy and Planning at Tufts University USA

Race in Post-racial Europe Stefanie C. Boulila, 2019-08-06 How can we make sense of race in Europe In public discourse race is understood as an outdated concept and as a reminiscence of a past that has been overcome Drawing on intersectional feminist theory and a rich selection of examples from political and cultural discourse Race in Post Racial Europe provides a unique insight into how gender and racial inequalities are maintained through the claim of being beyond them

Race and Education Kalwant Bhopal, 2024-03-21 Why is our education system unequal How does race play a part Is Britain still institutionally racist Education remains the greatest indicator of life chances in Britain What we study where we study and how long for shape all aspects of our lives Our careers our long term health our wealth and security are all moulded in the classroom But who we are ultimately matters the most In Race and Education Professor Kalwant Bhopal shows how race still determines who gains the best education in Britain and who falls by the wayside Through case studies original research and interviews with students teachers and academics alike she reveals how the construction of privilege starts at a young age with Whiteness taking some students on a gilded path from cradle to career while many still struggle to build the futures they deserve This book highlights how classrooms and lecture halls are at the centre of perpetuating White privilege and how racism continues to exist in Britain A timely and excellent book that makes clear the role racism continues to play in shaping education A must read for teachers school leaders parents and politicians We need more honest crucial refreshing and rigorous work like this Kehinde Andrews

Roads to Decolonisation Amy Duvenage, 2024-04-16 Roads to Decolonisation An Introduction to Thought from the Global South is an accessible new textbook that provides undergraduate students with a vital introduction to theory from the Global South and key issues of social justice arming them with the tools to theorise and explain the social world away from dominant Global North perspectives Arranged in four parts it examines key thinkers activists and theory work from the Global South theoretical concepts and socio historical conditions associated with race and racism gender and sexuality identity and un belonging in a globalised world and decolonisation and education challenges to dominant Euro American perspectives on key social justice issues linking decolonial discourses to contemporary case studies Each chapter offers an overview of key thinkers and activists whose work engages with social justice issues many of whom are under represented or left out of undergraduate humanities and social sciences textbooks in the North This is essential reading for students of the humanities and social sciences worldwide as well as scholars keen to embed Southern thought in their curricula and pedagogical practice

The Retreat of Scientific Racism Elazar Barkan, 1992 This fascinating study in the sociology of knowledge documents the refutation of scientific foundations for racism in Britain and the United States between the two World Wars when racial differences were no longer attributed to cultural factors Professor Barkan considers the social significance of this transformation particularly its effect on race relations in the modern world Discussing the work of the leading biologists and anthropologists who wrote between the wars he argues that the impetus for the shift in ideologies came from the inclusion of outsiders women Jews and leftists who infused greater egalitarianism into scientific discourse But even though the emerging view of race was constrained by a scientific language he shows that modern theorists were as much influenced by social and political events as were their predecessors

Education, Equality and Human Rights Mike Cole, 2002-11 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Racial Nationalisms Sivamohan Valluvan, Virinder S. Kalra, 2020-12-17 This book addresses the centrality of race and racism in consolidating the nationalisms currently prominent in Brexit Britain Particular attention is given to the issues of refugees borders and bordering and the wider forms of nativist and anti Muslim sentiments that anchor today s increasingly populist forms of nationalist politics It is argued that the forms of scapegoating and alarmism integral to the revival of nationalism in British politics are fundamentally tied to racialised processes Equally however it is argued that such a political climate is not simply discursive but also yields acute forms of governance wherein an increasingly violent attention is given by the state to the border. The chapters in the book do however also attempt to think through the possibilities of a constructive response to this moment. Emphasis is given here to the everyday cultural textures that might help shape a popular opposition to racial nationalism. Similarly, the book attempts to unpack the appeal of today's distinctive populism in ways that might be more responsive to anti-racist and anti-nationalist sentiments. Racial Nationalisms will be of interest to academics and researchers studying postcolonialism, nationalism, ethnic and racial studies, and to advanced students of sociology, political science, and public policy. This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Ethnic and Racial Studies.
