Race To The Bottom:

Race to the Bottom Azfar Shafi,Ilyas Nagdee,2022-06-20 Antiracist movements are more mainstream than ever before Liberal democracies boast of their policies designed to stamp out racism in all walks of life Why then is racism still ever present in our society This is not an accident but by design Capitalism is structured by racism and has relentlessly attacked powerful movements Race to the Bottom traces our current crisis back decades to the fragmentation of Britain s Black Power movements and their absorption into NGOs and the Labour Party The authors call for recovering radical histories of antiracist struggle championing modern activism and infusing them with the urgency of our times replacing anxieties over unconscious bias and rival claims for representation with the struggle for a new socialist multi racial organising from below

Race to the Bottom LaFleur Stephens-Dougan,2020-07-31 African American voters are a key demographic to the modern Democratic base and conventional wisdom has it that there is political cost to racialized dog whistles especially for Democratic candidates However politicians from both parties and from all racial backgrounds continually appeal to negative racial attitudes for political gain Challenging what we think we know about race and politics LaFleur Stephens Dougan argues that candidates across the racial and political spectrum engage in racial distancing or using negative racial appeals to communicate to racially moderate and conservative whites the overwhelming majority of whites that they will not disrupt the racial status quo Race to the Bottom closely examines empirical data on racialized partisan stereotypes to show that engaging in racial distancing through political platforms that do not address the needs of nonwhite communities and charged rhetoric that targets African Americans immigrants and others can be politically advantageous Racialized communication persists as a well worn campaign strategy because it has real electoral value for both white and black politicians seeking to broaden their coalitions Stephens Dougan reveals that claims of racial progress have been overstated as our politicians are incentivized to employ racial prejudices at the expense of the most marginalized in our society
