Monopoly On Salvation A Feminist Approach To Religious Pluralism:

Monopoly on Salvation? Jeannine Hill Fletcher, 2005 In a world where religion often fuels ethnic and racial conflicts and where passionate allegiance to rival creeds engenders violent antagonism among members of the same family dwellers in the same neighborhood citizens of the same country no one can doubt the need to rethink the universalist claims of temple church and mosque For the past few decades Christian theology tended to regard religious difference as a problem to be overcome More recently there has been an effort however tentative to view the different religious traditions as rich legacies to be shared by the entire human c Understanding Religious Pluralism Peter C. Phan, Jonathan Ray, 2014-08-01 Our contemporary world is fast becoming religiously diverse in a variety of ways Thanks to globalization and migration to mention only two current worldwide trends people of diverse and sometimes mutually hostile faiths are now sharing neighborhoods and encountering one another's religious traditions on a daily basis For scholars in religious studies and theology the issue to be examined is whether religious diversity is merely the result of historical development and social interaction or whether it is inherent in the object of belief part of the very structure of faith and our attempts to understand and express it The essays in this volume range from explorations of the impact of religious diversity on religious studies to examples of interfaith encounter and dialogue and current debates on Christian theology of religion These essays examine not only the theoretical issues posed by religious pluralism to the study of religion and Christian theology but also concrete cases in which religious pluralism has been a bone of contention Together they open up new vistas for further conversation on the nature and development of religious pluralism Christian Approaches to Other Faiths Paul Hedges, Alan Race, 2009

A reader designed to work on courses concerned with World Religions Interfaith Dialogue and Interfaith Encounter SCM
Core Text: Christian Approaches to Other Faiths Paul Hedges, 2013-02-11 The textbook begins with a chapter on exclusivism inclusivism particularity and pluralism and one on interfaith Each chapter explains the history rationale and workings of the various approaches Moreover each is divided into sub sections dealing with various forms of each approach so that each may be appreciated in its individuality i e the chapter on Inclusivism will include sections on fulfilment theology anonymous Christians etc The second part of this textbook deals with attitudes towards different faiths considering the problems and relations that exist with Christian approaches to each It will deal with the world's major faiths as well as primal religions and new religious movements The introduction and conclusion will deal with some central themes that run throughout in particular the questions of the Trinity and concepts of salvation In each section reference will be made to the key texts discussed in the Reader which accompanies this 9780334041155 however the work may be read as a stand alone text Alternative Salvations Hannah Bacon, Wendy Dossett, Steve Knowles, 2015-12-17 By considering transformative ideas and experiences which are explicitly articulated or implicitly structured in languages of religion and spirituality Alternative Salvations probes concepts including religious secular spiritual post Christian and post secular providing a series of studies which question the functionality of these broad categories Part one draws on contemporary salvation narratives showing how current cultural forms social practices and secular discourses are influenced by or are interpreted through the lens of religious and theological accounts of salvation Examples include twelve step recovery programs drug culture and public policy surrounding HIV AIDs in Kenya Although outside traditional religious contexts the contributors show ways in which they are not free from religious symbolism Part two explores alternative accounts of salvation rooted in religious traditions Established orthodoxies are confronted by contemporary critical questions for example about gender the status of animals and the political dimensions of salvation By contributing new perspectives and unique case studies Alternative Salvations provides a deliberate challenge to easy binaries which often underpin contemporary and traditional discourses of salvation

The Task of Theology Anselm Min ,2014-09-11 A rare opportunity to read and reflect upon the thought of some of the most prominent voices in contemporary theology in one volume this collection offers informative indicators of the state of theology today Together these provocative essays offer a resource for teachers and a chance to facilitate conversation among those working in different areas of an increasingly fragmented discipline Publisher The Oxford Handbook of Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer,R. Scott Appleby,David Little,2015 The book provides a comprehensive overview of the literature on religion conflict and peacebuilding With a focus on structural and cultural violence the volume also offers a cutting edge interdisciplinary reframing of the scope of scholarship in the field Religions and Dialogue Wolfram Weiße,Katajun Amirpur,Anna Körs,Dörthe Vieregge,2014 Responding to plurality is a demanding task Nonetheless it is one of the challenges that European countries are facing today Over the past decades the social and religious make up of Central Europe has changed and this has led to resentment and fears of mass immigration social disintegration and the emergence of parallel societies However we also find empirical proof that prejudice is lowest where there is direct contact Therefore there appears to be an increasing need for more dialogue in order to make the stranger less strange the unknown known the other no longer entirely other This is equally true in academic research There is a definite need yet research on questions of interreligious dialogue remains in its infancy throughout the various disciplines engaged in it The project Religion and Dialogue in Modern Societies ReDi that started at the Academy of World Religions at the Hamburg University in 2011 seeks to contribute to remedying this deficit Like the ReDi Project this book looks at dialogue from different perspectives It includes both theoretical and empirical approaches as well as a variety of theological viewpoints on a theology of plurality and dialogue from the perspective of different religions Motherhood as Metaphor Jeannine Hill Fletcher,2013-08-09 Who is my neighbor As our world has increasingly become a single place this question posed in the gospel story is heard as an interreligious inquiry Yet studies of encounter across religious lines have largely been framed as the meeting of male leaders What difference does it make when women s voices and experiences are the primary data for thinking about interfaith engagement Motherhood as Metaphor draws on three historical encounters between women of different faiths first the archives of the Maryknoll Sisters working in China before World War II second the experiences of women in the feminist movement around the globe and third a contemporary interfaith dialogue group in Philadelphia These sites provide fresh ways of thinking about our being human in the relational dynamic messiness of our sacred human lives Each part features a chapter detailing the historical archival and ethnographic evidence of women s experience in interfaith contact through letters diaries speeches and interviews of women in interfaith settings A subsequent chapter considers the theological import of these experiences placing them in conversation with modern theological anthropology feminist theory and theology Women s experience of motherhood provides a guiding thread through the theological reflections recorded here This investigation thus offers not only a comparative theology based on believers experience rather than on texts alone but also new ways of conceptualizing our being human The result is an interreligious theology rooted in the Christian story but also learning across religious lines

Secularization in Contemporary Religious Radicalism Corneliu Simut,2019-05-21 The concept of secularization has grown to become one of the most important features of contemporary religious thought This book introduces and examines the thinking of sixteen key theologians philosophers and historians of religion to explain a why by the late nineteenth century the traditional concept of God as an ontologically real being came to be considered no longer necessary and b how the new perspective on God which accepts him only as an idea turned into the preferred approach of today s religion and philosophy namely religious radicalism

The Garden of Reality Roland Faber,2018-06-20 The Garden of Reality contemplates the relativity of religious truth religious pluralism transreligious discourse postmodern cosmology and multireligious mysticism Its transreligious approach aims at a future multireligious peaceful society in an ecological and cosmic context It proposes that the future of humanity is bound to conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bah religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistence of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality

The Cosmic Spirit Roland Faber,2021-03-04 Are we more than stardust Is the appearance of the fragile Earth in the vast universe more than an accident Are we not children of a Spirit that pervades the dust rejuvenates life and embraces the ever evolving universe Is there a cosmic Spirit that wants us to awaken to a consciousness of universal meaning sacred purpose and mutual friendship with all beings This book answers these questions with a spirituality of the numinous in our relation to the elements of the Earth in the matrix of the multiverse by taking you on a journey through nine paths and nineteen meditations of awakening Not bound by any religion but in deep appreciation of the religious and spiritual heritage of human encounters with the divine depth of existence in our selves and in nature they invite you to become sojourners by engaging the most profound embodiments of the intangible Spirit by which it facilitates its own materialization in the cosmos and our spiritualization of the cosmos Use says this Spirit the stardust that you are to become a spirit faring species in an eternal journey of the cosmos to realize its ultimate motive of existence the attraction of love

Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology Catherine Cornille, 2019-04-29 The first systematic overview of the field of comparative theology Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology offers a synthesis of and a blueprint for the emerging field of comparative theology It discusses various approaches to the field the impact of religious views of other religions on the way in which comparative theology is conducted and the particularities of comparative theological hermeneutics It also provides an overview of the types of learning and of the importance of comparative theology for traditional confessional theology Though drawing mainly from examples of Christian comparative theology the book presents a methodological framework that may be applied to any religious tradition Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology begins with an elaboration on the basic distinction between confessional and meta confessional approaches to comparative theology The book also identifies and examines six possible types of comparative theological learning and addresses various questions regarding the relationship between comparative and confessional theology Provides a unique and objective look at the field of comparative theology for scholars of religion and theologians who want to understand or situate their work within the broader field Contains methodological questions and approaches that apply to comparative theologians from any religious tradition Recognizes and affirms the diversity within the field while advancing unique perspectives that might be the object of continued discussions among theologians Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology offers an important basis for scholars to position their own work within the broader field of comparative theology and is an essential resource for anyone interested in theology conducted in dialogue with other religious traditions 2021 PROSE Finalist in the Theology Religious Studies category

Awake to the Moment Laurel C. Schneider, Stephen G. Jr. Ray, 2004-12-01 Most introductory textbooks in theology see their primary task as explaining Christian doctrines that no one quite understands anymore While this is one of theology s jobs it is by no means the only nor even the most important one Theology has also been called to change the world to help people connect deeply rooted beliefs about the world s source and goal to questions of personal meaning and communal thriving Theology is here to help us make sense of the complex flawed world into which we ve been thrust and to assist us in our attempt to love our neighbors and live toward the common good For more than forty years the Workgroup on Constructive Theology has brought the liberal and liberationist theological traditions into creative encounter with lived human experience. In this introduction to the methods and tasks of theology they invite a new generation of readers many who will have little or no exposure to Christian doctrine to see theology as a partner in the struggle for a better world. They demonstrate how theological ideas have legs playing themselves out not only in religious communities but in the public square as well. Theology the authors tell us is constructive when it joins in God's work of building human lives and human societies. Readers will learn to think about all of life in light of their religious commitments and to see theology as an essential tool for a life well lived.

World Christianity Tan, Jonathan Y., Tran, Anh Q., 2016-04-13 The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014. Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies. Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia. This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission. The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia. They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements. With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia.

Christian and Islamic Theology of Religions Esra Akay Dag, 2017-04-21. Theologians have had to increasingly engage with beliefs and practises outside of their own traditions. The resultant theology of religions is however often formulated in isolation from the religions they are describing. This book provides a comparison of the development of theology of religions in Western Christianity and its application in an Islamic context. It also shows the parallels between some specific forms of theology of religions i.e. exclusivism inclusivism or pluralism in both Islamic and Christian traditions. The arguments of Christian and Muslim theologians including the specific contributions of Rowan Williams and Jerusha Lamptey are examined in order to reveal the interconnections and contradictions of their pluralist exclusivist and inclusivist approaches. This provides a rounded picture of Christian Muslim understanding of religious others and prepares the ground for a stronger and more sophisticated Islamic theology of religions. This is vital reading for those studying theology of religions comparative theology and interfaith relations.

Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, Jillian Maxey, 2013-09-26. Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding. This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women's involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue Edward Schillebeeckx and Contemporary Theology Lieven Boeve, Frederiek Depoortere, Stephan van Erp, 2010-10-07 What are contemporary theology's challenges What are its fruitful approaches Who are its promising contributors The contributions to this collection of essays try to find answers to these questions by making references to the Dutch Dominican scholar Edward Schillebeeckx using his theology as a starting point for an up to date investigation and discussion The theological work of Edward Schillebeeckx marks the transition from a pre modern to a modern approach to Christian faith Church and theology Already more than two generations of theologians have been trained in dialogue with his thought Contemporary theology testifies often implicitly to the enduring relevance of many of Schillebeeckx's insights while in other instances it pushes his thinking to its limits in order to deal with the current challenges for faith and society Catholic Engagement with World Religions Karl Josef Becker, Ilaria Morali, Maurice Borrmans, Gavin D'Costa, 2009 This monumental book outlines clarifies and defends official Roman Catholic teaching on the relationship between Christianity and other religious traditions in the light of Catholic belief that We must hold that the holy spirit offers to all the possibility of being made partners in a way known to God in the paschal mystery Gaudium et Spes 22 Part I studies the history of these issues Part II examines their theological framing Part III deals with Christianity and the religions since Vatican II Part IV deals with Judaism Confucianism Hinduism and Islam as they see themselves in relation to Christianity A final chapter by Michael Fitzgerald is a theological reflection on the foundations of interreligious dialogue
