Europe in Japan Olof G. Lidin,2003-12-16 The year 1543 marked the beginning of a new global consciousness in Japan with the arrival of shipwrecked Portuguese merchants on Tanegashima Island in southern Japan Other Portuguese soon followed and Japan became aware of a world beyond India After the merchants came the first missionary Francis Xavier in 1549 beginning the Christian century in Japan This is not a new story but it is the first time that Japanese Portuguese and other European accounts have been brought together and presented in English Their arrival was recorded by the Japanese in Tanegashima kofu the Teppoki and the Kunitomo Teppoki here translated and presented together with European reports

Gunn, 2003-06-05 First Globalization presents an original and sweeping conceptualization of the grand cultural civilizational encounter between Asia and Europe. Now largely taken for granted, the exchange resonates in multiple ways even today. Offering a metageography of the vast Eurasian zone, Geoffrey C. Gunn shows how between 1500 and 1800 a lively two-way flow in ideas, philosophies, and cultural products brought competing civilizations into serious dialogue and mostly peaceful exchange. In Europe, the interaction was reflected in missionary reporting, cartographic representations, literary productions, and intellectual fashions alongside the business of commerce and plunder when it reached the Americas and peripheries. In Asia, notably China, India, and particularly Japan, European ideas and their bearers received a remarkably positive hearing when they did not challenge reigning orthodoxies. Ranging from discussions of the natural world, livelihoods, and religious and intellectual encounters to language, play, crime, and punishment, gender, and governance, this book replays the themes of enduring hybridity and creolization of cultures dating from the first great encounter between Europe and Asia.
