Patience Compassion Hope And The Christian Art Of Dying Well:

Patience, Compassion, Hope, and the Christian Art of Dying Well Christopher P. Vogt, 2004 By mining the rich tradition of virtue ethics Christopher Vogt uses the virtues of patience compassion and hope as a framework for specifying the shape of a good death and for naming the practices Christians should develop to live well and die well Bringing together historical biblical and contemporary sources in Christian ethics Vogt provides a long overdue theological analysis of the ars moriendi or art of dying literature of four centuries ago Through a careful analysis of Luke's passion narrative Vogt uses Jesus as the primary model for being patient in the face of death and for dying well Dying Well John Wyatt, 2018-06-21 We cannot choreograph our own death but we can die well This is a book for those who are facing death It is also for their relatives friends and carers John Wyatt looks at recent trends in dying He examines the art of dying a Christian tradition from the past We see opportunities for dying well and faithfully real world examples of personal growth and instances of reconciliation and personal healing in relationships On the other hand there are also challenges to face the fears and temptations that dying can bring We learn from Jesus example as we focus on his words from the cross The wonderful news is that we can look forward to a sure and steadfast hope the amazing hope of resurrection and its implications for our lives today On Moral

Medicine M. Therese Lysaught, Joseph Kotva, Stephen E. Lammers, Allen Verhey, 2012-07-20 In print for more than two decades On Moral Medicine remains the definitive anthology for Christian theological reflection on medical ethics This third edition updates and expands the earlier awardwinning volumes providing classrooms and individuals alike with one of the finest available resources for ethics engaged modern medicine The Evening of Life Joseph E. Davis, Paul Scherz, 2020-09-30 Although philosophy religion and civic cultures used to help people prepare for aging and dying well this is no longer the case Today aging is frequently seen as a problem to be solved and death as a harsh reality to be masked In part our cultural confusion is rooted in an inadequate conception of the human person which is based on a notion of absolute individual autonomy that cannot but fail in the face of the dependency that comes with aging and decline at the end of life To help correct the ethical impoverishment at the root of our contemporary social confusion The Evening of Life provides an interdisciplinary examination of the challenges of aging and dying well It calls for a re envisioning of cultural concepts practices and virtues that embraces decline dependency and finitude rather than stigmatizes them Bringing together the work of sociologists anthropologists philosophers theologians and medical practitioners this collection of essays develops an interrelated set of conceptual tools to discuss the current challenges posed to aging and dying well such as flourishing temporality narrative and friendship Above all it proposes a positive understanding of thriving in old age that is rooted in our shared vulnerability as human beings It also suggests how some of these tools and concepts can be deployed to create a medical system that better responds to our contemporary needs The Evening of Life will interest bioethicists medical practitioners clinicians and others involved in the care of the aging and dying Contributors Joseph E Davis Sharon R Kaufman

Paul Scherz Wilfred M McClay Kevin Aho Charles Guignon Bryan S Turner Janelle S Taylor Sarah L Szanton Janiece Taylor and Justin Mutter Patience—A Theological Exploration Paul Dafydd Jones, 2022-11-17 What does it mean to exercise patience What does it mean to endure to wait and to persevere and on other occasions to reject patience in favor of resistance haste and disruptive action And what might it mean to describe God as patient Might patience play a leading role in a Christian account of God s creative work God s relationship to ancient Israel God s governance of history and God s saving activity The first instalment of Patience A Theological Exploration engages these questions in searching imaginative and sometimes surprising ways Following reflections on the biblical witness and the nature of constructive theological inquiry its interpretative chapters engage landmark works by a number of ancient medieval modern and contemporary authors disclosing both the promise and peril of talk about patience Patience stands at the center of this innovative account of God s creative work God s relationship with ancient Israel creaturely sin scripture and God s broader providential and salvific purposes Using the Power of Hope to Cope with Dying Cathleen Fanslow, 2012-06-01 Introducing Cathleen Fanslow s Hope System which incorporates the four stages of hope hope for cure for treatment for prolongation of life and for peaceful death this book shows both the living and the dying how to use the power of hope to cope with the inevitable This powerful and simple system enables families friends and professional caregivers to understand and assist the dying on their journey regardless of their beliefs by addressing all levels of the experience physical emotional psychological and spiritual Concentrating on solutions for the day to day emotional needs of the dying this practical guide also features examples and stories from families that have experienced loss as well as helpful passages that provide hope throughout the ordeal Bioethics and the Christian Life David VanDrunen, 2009-10-07 Just about everyone will face a difficult bioethics decision at some point In this book a theologian ethicist and lawyer equips Christians to make such decisions based on biblical truth wisdom and virtue Though a relatively new discipline bioethics has generated extraordinary interest due to a number of socially pressing issues Bioethics and the Christian Life places bioethics within the holistic context of the Christian life both developing a general Christian approach to making bioethics decisions and addressing a number of specific controversial areas of bioethics Clear concise and well organized the book is divided into three sections The first lays the theological foundation for bioethics decision making and discusses the importance of wisdom and virtue in working through these issues The second section addresses beginning of life issues such as abortion stem cell research and infertility treatments The third section covers end of life issues such as living wills accepting and refusing medical treatment and treatment of patients in permanent vegetative states Dying and the Virtues Matthew Levering, 2018-01-23 In this rich book Matthew Levering explores nine key virtues that we need to die and live well love hope faith penitence gratitude solidarity humility surrender and courage Retrieving and engaging a variety of biblical theological historical and medical resources Levering journeys through the various stages and challenges of the dying process beginning with the fear of annihilation and continuing through repentance and gratitude suffering and hope before arriving finally at the courage needed to say goodbye to one's familiar world Grounded in careful readings of Scripture the theological tradition and contemporary culture Dying and the Virtues comprehensively and beautifully shows how these nine virtues effectively unite us with God the One who alone can conquer death Peace Be with You, Rest in Peace Sue Witty, 2020-12-09 Hospital and hospice chaplains are expected to assist individuals and families face the reality of their mortality via a gentle calming presence To the greatest extent possible chaplains help people die with an awareness of being loved of loving and forgiving and of gratitude for the life they have lived But terminal agitation and spiritual distress are common components of the final stage of life How do professional chaplains honor and attend to each individual's spiritual religious needs to the best of their abilities in the days preceding death This book explores that critical question Life, Death, and Christian Hope Daneen Georgy Warner, 2009 This book challenges Christians to reframe dying and death in three ways First Christians should acknowledge the truth about the human condition Having done so Christians are then free to accept lament as an important Christian practice for moving from a dependency on human hope to hope in God or divine hope Second with lament Christians are better able to accept death and dying in response to the Good News of Holy Scripture Baptism and Eucharist The Good News is Christ has died Christ is risen Christ will come again the mystery of faith and source of Christian hope This hope through God's grace moves Christians to love others within an eschatological community that transcends both time and place Third Christians transform faith communities in light of the Good News so that love flourishes in daily dying to self through beatitudinal living for others As a result the preparation of daily dying forms Christians to accept mortality not as the worst evil to resist in every way but rather as the final stage of a life long journey with Christ into eternal life The book challenges Christians both clergy and laypersons to consider this perspective This challenge is supported with both scriptural and theological explanations as well as practical observations for reflection from unscholarly discussions with twenty Christians both clergy and church member from five different Christian traditions T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Ethics Tobias Winright, 2020-12-10 The T T Clark Handbook of Christian Ethics provides an ecumenical introduction to Christian ethics its sources methods and applications With contributions by theological ethicists known for their excellence in scholarship and teaching the essays in this volume offer fresh purchase on and an agenda for the discipline of Christian ethics in the 21st century The essays are organized in three sections following an introduction that presents the four font approach and elucidates why it is critically employed through these subsequent sections The first section explores the sources of Christian ethics including each of the four fonts scripture tradition experience and reason The second section examines fundamental or basic elements of Christian ethics and covers different methods approaches and voices in doing Christian ethics such as natural law virtue ethics conscience responsibility narrative worship and engagement with other religions The third section addresses current moral issues in politics medicine economics ecology criminal justice and other

Hope: Promise, Possibility, and Fulfillment Edited by Richard Lennan and Nancy Pineda-Madrid, 2013 Crafting a theology of hope this book addresses both the possibility that hope offers and the capacity of hope to respond to the challenges that life presents to us all Science and Christian Ethics Paul Scherz, 2019-05-09 The scientific reproducibility crisis is a crisis of character Stoic and Christian spiritual exercises build virtues that address these problems Encyclopedia of Love in World Religions Yudit Kornberg Greenberg, 2007-11-15 This is the first comprehensive resource on the subject of love in the teachings of the world's major religions cultures and philosophies Encyclopedia of Love in World Religions is the first reference work to offer a comprehensive portrait of love in the context of the classic and contemporary literature of Judaism Christianity Islam Buddhism and Hinduism as well as other cultures and philosophies Like no volume published to date it reveals the full richness of religious teachings on love in all its many forms exploring an extensive range of topics that offer philosophical psychological and religious perspectives to guide the quest for the meaning of love Encyclopedia of Love in World Religions features approximately 300 subject entries as well as insightful biographic sketches of preeminent thinkers all written by a multidisciplinary team of some of the foremost scholars on the subject Entries examine both general and culture specific interpretations of love not just the dichotomy of spiritual and physical love but the full emotional spectrum of love in relationships and practices Collectively they encompass love's integral and sometimes conflicting role in shaping beliefs and behavior in a vastly diverse world Sabbath Rest as Vocation Autumn Alcott Ridenour, 2018-06-14 Autumn Alcott Ridenour offers a Christian theological discussion on the meaning of aging toward death with purpose identity and communal significance Drawing from both explicit claims and constructive interpretations of St Augustine's and Karl Barth's understanding of death and aging this volume describes moral virtue as participation in Christ across generations culminating in preparation for Sabbath rest during the aging stage of life Addressing the inevitability of aging the prospect of mortality the importance of contemplative action and expanding upon the virtues of growing older Ridenour analyzes how locating moral agency as union with Christ results in virtuous practices for aging individuals and their surrounding communities By responding with constructive theology to challenges from transhumanist bioethical and medical arenas the volume highlights implications not only for virtue ethics but also for the goals of medicine Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 Death and dying and death related behavior involve the causes of death and the nature of the actions and emotions surrounding death among the living Interest in the varied dimensions of death and dying has led to the development of death studies that move beyond medical research to include behavioral science disciplines and practitioner oriented fields As a result of this interdisciplinary interest the literature in the field has proliferated This two volume resource addresses the traditional death and dying related topics but also presents a unique focus on the human experience to create a new dimension to the study of death and dying With more than 300 entries the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience includes the complex cultural beliefs and traditions and the institutionalized social rituals that surround dying and death as well as the array of emotional responses relating to bereavement grieving and mourning The Encyclopedia is enriched through important multidisciplinary contributions and perspectives as it arranges organizes defines and clarifies a comprehensive list of death related perspectives concepts and theories Key Features Imparts significant insight into the process of dying and the phenomenon of death Includes contributors from Asia Africa Australia Canada China eastern southern and western Europe Iceland Scandinavia South America and the United States who offer important interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspectives Provides a special focus on the cultural artifacts and social institutions and practices that constitute the human experience Addresses death related terms and concepts such as angel makers equivocal death end of life decision making near death experiences cemeteries ghost photography halo nurses caregiver stress cyberfunerals global religious beliefs and traditions and death denial Presents a selective use of figures tables and images Key Themes Arts Media and Popular Culture Perspectives Causes of Death Conceptualization of Death Dying and the Human Experience Coping With Loss and Grief The Human Experience Cross Cultural Perspectives Cultural Determined Social Oriented and Violent Forms of Death Developmental and Demographic Perspectives Funerals and Death Related Activities Legal Matters Process of Dying Symbolic Rituals Ceremonies and Celebrations of Life Theories and Concepts Unworldly Entities and Events With an array of topics that include traditional subjects and important emerging ideas the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience is the ultimate resource for students researchers academics and others interested in this intriguing area of study Fruits of the Spirit Crosby, Michael H.,2015-11-15 *Addiction, Representation and the Experimental Novel, 1985*2015 Heath A. Diehl,2020-12-15 Since the nineteenth century the Western realistic novel has persistently represented the addict as a morally toxic force bent on destroying the institutions practices and ideologies that historically have connoted reason order civilization Addiction Representation undertakes an investigation into an alternative literary tradition that unsettles this limited portrayal of the addict The book analyzes the practices and politics of reading the experimental addiction novel and outlines both a practice and an ethics of reading that advocates for a more compassionate response to both diegetic and extra diegetic addicts an approach that at its core is focused on understanding The Moral Life James F. Keenan,2024-01-02 A profound inquiry into what prompts human beings to act morally Most foundational texts on theological ethics address either the person or society In The Moral Life James F Keenan SJ posits that these two are inextricably linked He presents eight stages of preparing for the moral life describing vulnerability as the foundation for contemporary ethics He understands vulnerability to be what establishes the human capacity for recognizing and responding to others rather than a compromised state of being. Mutual recognition emerges as the first moral act of the vulnerable human. He shows how conscience guides the activity of one who has first vulnerably recognized others. The Moral Life offers scholars and students of Christian ethics a novel perspective on what we need to know not only to be and live morally but also to teach and share with others what they need to know.
