Baptizing Business Bradley C. Smith,2020-07-27 Baptizing Business sifts through popular perceptions regarding the relationship between business and religion and the agenda of conservative Christian business leaders drawing on personal interviews with the most diverse group of evangelical executives yet studied While stereotypes and previous research both emphasize the perceived incompatibility of religious mandates and business objectives Bradley C Smith argues that evangelical executives experience tension not because business and religion are inherently opposed but because they are made to feel like second class citizens by members of their own faith communities Indeed in cases of apparent conflict between faith and business evangelical executives insist that it is faith not business that must be reconceived Smith reveals that evangelical business leaders are as inclined to export business concepts into other domains as to import religious objectives into business contexts prompting us to reconsider the direction of influence between religious and economic life Baptizing Business is filled with compelling stories that paint a nuanced unbiased picture of the increasing influence of intensely religious business leaders The spirit of capitalism defined by Max Weber as a positive attitude toward work and wealth finds ongoing embrace and new expression in evangelical executives and their accounts with implications for our understanding of the faith at work movement evangelicalism and the role of religion among elites

Steven Gamelin,2007-12-01 In Observations of a Results Oriented Conservative Steve Gamelin isn t afraid to apply moral values to politics and other aspects of life He provides Conservatives with an understanding of the validity of their instincts by objectively looking at Liberals and their behavior Just as he did in order to create this bold moral analysis of the flaws of Liberals Gamelin advises readers to adopt the following guidelines in their observations of the behavior of those around them Use the eyes of truth to see through the deception and spin of Liberalism

Apply good judgment to come to sound conclusions See the simplicity of what a lie is and evaluate those individuals who promote the lie Know why spin is nothing more than another word for lie Evaluate the sound bite and determine its intent Ignore conventional wisdom and evaluate for yourself Replace political correctness with moral correctness And most importantly understand the Nixon Factor and how much it tells us about the Liberal It is not a political statement to want a moral government says Gamelin and it is not dirty politics to point out corruption within government      The Saturday Evening Post ,1919
