Amélie Isabelle Vanderschelden,2007-01-26 Le Fabuleux destin d Amélie Poulain was the surprise boxoffice success of 2001 with nine million spectators in France and more than 30 million worldwide The film turned Audrey Tautou into an international star in her iconic role as Amélie a naive French Parisian who devotes herself to mending the lives of the people around her Shot on location in Paris the film combines poetic and magical realism with stylish cinematography original use of colour state of the art special effects and an evocative soundtrack together these have produced a popular film of universal appeal Isabelle Vanderschelden examines the film's production within the French film industry She analyzes the issues of genre and narrative that it presents so well She looks in depth at the film's key scenes as well as at Jeunet's distinctive visual style and cinematography and his use of digital technology The national and international receptions of Amelie are explored to establish why the film has caught the public imagination and whether it marks a renewal in the cultural diversity and distinctive identity of the French film industry This book will be essential reading for cinema lovers and students alike

The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinematographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinematographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike

Jacques Rivette Douglas Morrey, Alison Smith, 2019-01-31 Jacques Rivette is perhaps the best kept secret of French cinema A founding figure in the New Wave and at the centre of the Cahiers du cinéma team he developed into one of the most unusual and adventurous French directors of the last sixty years yet his work remains little known in comparison with his contemporaries and this study is the first in English to look at the full span of his career Starting with his decisively influential film criticism of the 1950s it moves from the New Wave through the complex experimental films of the 1970s to the challenging playful dramas which ensured his visibility during the following two decades and ends in the present including Rivette's most recent films Histoire de Marie et Julien 2003 and Ne touchez pas la hache 2007 The book takes a thematic approach offering detailed discussion of key elements of Rivette's film world including games conspiracy and jealousy as well as a study of what Rivette's cinema adds to our understanding of key theoretical concepts in Film Studies such as narrative space and adaptation There are many close analyses of sequences from Rivette's films including Paris nous appartient 1961 C line et Julie vont en bateau 1974 and La Belle Noiseuse 1991 François Ozon Andrew

Asibong,2021-06-15 Available in paperback for the first time this is a full length study of the films of François Ozon director of such diverse films as 8 femmes Swimming Pool 5x2 and Les amants criminels Andrew Asibong's passionate and critical analysis focuses on the extent to which Ozon's seemingly light touch never ceases to engage with the fundamentally weighty issue of existential transformation a transformation that affects both his protagonists and his audiences A central question emerges what is at stake cinematically ethically and politically in Ozon's alternatively utopian and cynical flirtation with the construction and deconstruction of contemporary social relations Revealing Ozon as a highly adept fan of a whole range of thought literature and cinema Asibong places the precocious French auteur in an intellectual yet highly accessible critical framework allowing Ozon's importance for a thoroughly postmodern filmmaking generation to be given the attention it deserves Marcel Pagnol Brett Bowles,2021-06-15 Though long ignored or dismissed by film critics and scholars Marcel

Pagnol 1895 1974 was among the most influential auteurs of his era This comprehensive overview of Pagnol's career now available in paperback highlights his unique place in French cinema as a self sufficient writer producer director and his contribution to the long term evolution of filmmaking in a broader European context In addition to reassessing the converted playwright's controversial prioritisation of speech over image the book juxtaposes Pagnol's sunny rural melodramas with the dark urban variety of poetic realism practised by influential peers such as Jean Renoir and Marcel Carné In his penchant for outdoor location shooting and ethnographic authenticity as well as his stubborn attachment to independent artisanal production values Pagnol served as a precursor to the French New Wave and Italian Neo Realism inspiring the likes of Jean Luc Godard François Truffaut Vittorio De Sica and Roberto Rossellini Chris Marker Sarah Cooper,2021-06-15 Since the early 1950s Chris Marker has embraced different filmmaking styles as readily as he has new technologies and has broadened conceptions of the documentary in distinctly personal ways He has travelled around the world tracking political upheavals and historic events as well as unearthing the stories buried under official reporting This globetrotting filmmaker testifies to his six decades on the move through a passionate devotion to the moving image Yet from the outset his filmic images reveal a fascination with stillness It is at this juncture of mobility and immobility that Sarah Cooper situates her comprehensive study of Marker's films She pays attention to the central place that photographs occupy in his work as well as to the emergence in his filming of statuary painting and other static images including the film still and his interest in fixed frame shooting She engages with key debates in photographic and film theory in order to argue that a different conception of time emerges from his filmic explorations of stasis In detailed readings of each of his films including Le souvenir d'un avenir and La Jetée Sans soleil and Level 5 Cooper charts Marker's concern with mortality in varied historical and geographical contexts which embraces the fragility of the human race along with that of the planet Negotiating the auteur Julia Dobson,2019-01-25

This book provides the first detailed analysis of the work of four important contemporary directors whose work falls between the reductive labels of auteur cinema and popular cinema Their work is contextualised within this timely investigation into the shifting relationship between the privileged status of the auteur and questions of genre gender and cinematic production in France today This important contribution to understanding the shifting landscapes of contemporary French film identifies an essential intermediacy in the films of these directors which works to undo a series of dominant oppositions generic template and contestation public collectivity and personal intimacy to offer a new perspective on the location of the political in contemporary French cinema The four chapters provide detailed critical analysis of films by Dominique Cabrera Laetitia Masson No mie Lvovsky and Marion Vernoux and present common thread including the possible construction of social intimacy the political demystification of romance narratives and the role of nostalgia to argue that their work uses popular genres in order to challenge dominant cultural representation that resonates beyond the immediate parameters of contemporary French cinema This book will be of interest to researchers working in French and European cinema to students of Film Studies and French and Francophone Studies and to film enthusiasts

Marcel Carné Jonathan Driskell, 2019-01-04 This book provides a scholarly yet accessible account of the work of Marcel Carné one of the great directors of classical French cinema and the key figure behind the poetic realist film movement of the 1930s His films a number of which were made in collaboration with the poet turned scriptwriter Jacques Prévert include such well known works as Le Quai des brumes Le Jour se lève and Les Enfants du paradis As the first book to be written on Carné for a number of years it offers a fresh perspective on his cinema particularly through a re-examination of his post-war work although many of these films were very popular and offer a fascinating insight into France at the time they have until now largely been neglected Adopting a carefully crafted aesthetic his films explore a tension between pessimism and entrapment on the one hand and transcendence idealised romantic love and a populist celebration of working class life on the other His career traversed key moments in French cinema including poetic realism the tradition of quality and the French New Wave and spanned important historical moments such as the Popular Front of the 1930s the Second World War and France's post-war modernisation This book will be of interest to scholars students and film lovers alike

Chantal Akerman Marion Schmid, 2019-01-04 Chantal Akerman is widely acclaimed as one of the most original and important directors working in Europe today A towering figure in women's and feminist film making she has produced a diverse and intensely personal body of work ranging from minimalist portraits of the everyday to exuberant romantic comedies and from documentaries and musicals to installation art This book traces the director's career at the crossroads between experimental and mainstream cinema contextualising her work within the American avant-garde of the 1970s European anti-naturalism feminism and the post-modern aesthetics While offering an in-depth analysis of her multi-faceted film style it also stresses the social and ethical dimension of her work especially as regards her representation of marginal groups and her exploration of exilic and diasporic identities Particular attention is given to the inscription of the Holocaust and of Jewish memory in her films

Alain

Robbe-Grillet John Phillips, 2019-02-08 Placing Robbe Grillet's filmic oeuvre in the related contexts of both his novelistic work and the different historical and cultural periods in which his films were made from the early 1960s to the present the book traces lines of influence and continuity throughout his work which is shown to exhibit a consistent preoccupation with an identifiable body of themes motifs and structures Close readings of all the films are skilfully combined with a thematic approach ranging across the entire filmic corpus The book also contains chapters on cinematography and technique Ultimately this lucid comprehensive and fascinating study shows Robbe Grillet's contribution to the evolution of the cinematic art both in France and internationally to have been considerably more important than previously acknowledged
