Patricia Roberts' Second Knitting Book Patricia Roberts,1983 Outstanding Women in Public Administration Claire L. Felbinger,Wendy A Haynes,2016-12-05 This first of its kind project documents the contributions of women in public administration It contains eight research based case studies on women who have contributed to the field academics government managers and activists The women profiled are not from a random sample they were selected based on their contributions to the theory and practice of public service Each chapter relates the life and work of each subject to the broad issues faced by today s public servants The result is a book that is both instructive and inspirational and that should be read by every aspiring public service practitioner "Those who Labor for My Happiness" Lucia C. Stanton,2012 Our perception of life at Monticello has changed dramatically over the past quarter century The image of an estate presided over by a benevolent Thomas Jefferson has given way to a more complex view of Monticello as a working plantation the success of which was made possible by the work of slaves At the center of this transition has been the work of Lucia Cinder Stanton recognized as the leading interpreter of Jefferson s life as a planter and master and of the lives of his slaves and their descendants This volume represents the first attempt to pull together Stanton s most important writings on slavery at Monticello and beyond Stanton s pioneering work deepened our understanding of Jefferson without demonizing him But perhaps even more important is the light her writings have shed on the lives of the slaves at Monticello Her detailed reconstruction for modern readers of slaves lives vividly reveals their active roles in the creation of Monticello and a dynamic community previously unimagined The essays collected here address a rich variety of topics from family histories including the Hemingses to the temporary slave community at Jefferson's White House to stories of former slaves' lives after Monticello. Each piece is characterized by Stanton's deep knowledge of her subject and by her determination to do justice to both Jefferson and his slaves. Published in association with the Thomas Jefferson Foundation. The Library of Congress Jane Aikin, 2025. This is the first comprehensive history of the Library of Congress that is not merely about one aspect or another, e.g., buildings, ornamentation, collections, timeline. Highlights Jane Aikin's engagement deeply with a wealth of primary and secondary sources to weave a narrative of the individuals, events, and controversies that have shaped this venerable institution. Drawing millions of visitors a year, the Library serves as the research arm of Congress, the home of the U.S. Copyright Office, and as a public forum for artistic and literary culture. Never designated by law as the national library of the United States, it nonetheless occupies that place in the national imagination. This history of 13 male librarians culminates in 2016 with the swearing in of Carla Hayden, the first woman and first African American Librarian of Congress. The narrative is punctuated by stories of key donors and pivotal performances by poets, authors, and celebrities. Celebrating Our Equality Carolyn Quick Tillery, 2003. In this enticing sequel to her bestselling book A Taste of Freedom, Carolyn Quick Tillery celebrates the most mouthwatering African American recipes ever invented while also paying homage to Howard University, the nation's historic first black university. Where A Taste of Freedom explored the heroic black struggle for freedom and education, Celebrating Our Equality chronicles a newly freed people's continuing battle for equality and justice. Established in 1867 to educate African Americans freed by the Civil War, Howard University is credited with being at the forefront of the civil rights struggle. Nine of the ten attorneys who argued Brown v. Board of Education, which ended public school segregation, were either Howard University professors or Law School graduates. Most noted among the latter group was Thurgood Marshall, the first African American to sit on the United States Supreme Court. Howard University's list of notable graduates includes Ralph Bunche, Andrew Young, Vernon Jordan, Stokely Carmichael, James Farmer, and Anna Pauli Murray, along with Zora Neale Hurston, Debbie Allen, and Nobel Laureate Toni Morrison. Among its faculty members are blood bank founder Dr. Charles Drew and Alaine Locke, the first African American Rhodes Scholar. Howard University has always provided a forum for black Americans to celebrate their culture, including the unique cooking traditions they have preserved for countless generations. The tantalizing recipes in this book illustrate those proud traditions; dishes such as Black Olive Jalapeno and Tomato Mojo, Black Eyed Pea Salad, Spicy Fried Chicken, Rosemary and Thyme Scented Green Beans, and Buttermilk Pie, to name just a few. Filled with intriguing anecdotes and accompanied by over fifty vintage photographs and illustrations, Celebrating Our Equality is at once a powerful tribute to a venerable American institution and a salute to the accomplishments made by a people who turned their hardwon freedom into a chance to change the course of history. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
