Patrick's Notebook:

Patrick's Notebook Patrick Thornhart, 1996-11-04 From the ABC Daytime folks who made Robin's Diary a hit one of daytime drama's hottest men Patrick Thornhart of One Life to Live offers his favorite love poems photos and secret thoughts in a book that also includes an audio cassette of Patrick reading selections from the book 45 photos Cross promotion with ABC's Super Soap Weekend which will take place at Disney World in October It Came From Outer Space Wearing an RAF Blazer! Martin Mobberley, 2013-07-23 To British television viewers the name Patrick Moore has been synonymous with Astronomy and Space Travel since he first appeared on The Sky at Night in 1957 To amateur astronomers he has been a source of inspiration joy humour and even an eccentric role model since that time Most people know that his 55 years of presenting The Sky at Night is a world record but what was he really like in person What did he do away from the TV cameras in his observatory and within the British Astronomical Association the organisation that inspired him as a youngster Also precisely what did he do during the War Years a subject that has always been shrouded in mystery Martin Mobberley a friend of Patrick Moore's for 30 years and a former President of the British Astronomical Association has spent ten years exhaustively researching Patrick's real life away from the TV cameras His childhood RAF service tireless voluntary work for astronomy and charity and his endless book writing are all examined in detail His astronomical observations are also examined in unprecedented detail along with the battles he fought along the way and his hatred of bureaucracy and political correctness No fan of Sir Patrick Moore can possibly live without this work on their bookshelf Running the Rift Naomi Benaron, 2012-10-16 Running the Rift follows the progress of Jean Patrick Nkuba from the day he knows that running will be his life to the moment he must run to save his life A naturally gifted athlete he sprints over the thousand hills of Rwanda and dreams of becoming his country's first Olympic medal winner in track But Jean Patrick is a Tutsi in a world that has become increasingly restrictive and violent for his people As tensions mount between the Hutu and Tutsi he holds fast to his dream that running might deliver him and his people from the brutality around them Winner of the Bellwether Prize for Socially Engaged Fiction Naomi Benaron has written a stunning and gorgeous novel that through the eyes of one unforgettable boy explores a country's unraveling its tentative new beginning and the love that binds its people together Patrick Bronte Dudley Green, 2010-12-26 But he was a fascinating man in his own right and not nearly such an unsympathetic character as Elizabeth Gaskell's Life of Charlotte Bronte would have us believe Born into poverty in Ireland he won a scholarship to St John's College Cambridge and was ordained into the Church of England He was perpetual curate of Haworth in Yorkshire for forty one years bringing up four children founding a school and campaigning for a proper water supply Although often portrayed as a somewhat fobidding figure he was an opponent of capital punishment and the Poor Law Amendment Act a supporter of limited Catholic emancipation and a writer of poetry This is the first serious biography of Patrick Bronte for more than forty years Patrick's Notebook Patrick Miller Publishing, 2021-02-19 You're Worth It Patrick is a given name

Weekly ,1997 The Bone Woman Clea Koff, 2011-05-18 Published ten years after the genocide in Rwanda The Bone Woman is a riveting deeply personal account by a forensic anthropologist sent on seven missions by the UN War Crimes Tribunal To prosecute charges of genocide and crimes against humanity the UN needs proof that the bodies found are those of non combatants This means answering two questions who the victims were and how they were killed The only people who can answer both these questions are forensic anthropologists Before being sent to Rwanda in 1996 Clea Koff was a twenty three year old graduate student studying prehistoric skeletons in the safe confines of Berkeley California Over the next four years her gruelling investigation into events that shocked the world transformed her from a wide eyed student into a soul weary veteran and a wise and deeply thoughtful woman Her unflinching account of those years what she saw how it affected her who went to trial based on evidence she collected makes for an unforgettable read alternately riveting frightening and miraculously hopeful Readers join Koff as she comes face to face with the human meaning of genocide exhuming almost five hundred bodies from a single grave in Kibuye Rwanda uncovering the wire bound wrists of Srebrenica massacre victims in Bosnia disinterring the body of a young man in southwestern Kosovo as his grandfather looks on in silence As she recounts the fascinating details of her work the hellish working conditions the bureaucracy of the UN and the heartbreak of survivors Koff imbues her story with an immense sense of hope humanity and justice Louis Patrick Gray III United States.
 Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1973 Patrick White Beyond the Grave Ian Henderson, Anouk Lang, 2015-08-15 Patrick White 1912 1990 won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1973 and remains one of Australia s most celebrated writers In 2006 White s literary executor Barbara Mobbs released a highly significant collection of hitherto unpublished papers reviving mainstream and scholarly interest in his work Patrick White Beyond the Grave considers White's writing in light of the new findings acknowledging his homosexuality in relation to the development of his literary style examining the way he engages his readers and contextualizing his life and oeuvre in relation to London and to London life Thought provoking this collection of original essays represents the work of an outstanding list of White scholars from around the globe and will no doubt inspire further work on White from a rising generation of scholars of twentieth century literature beyond Australia

Be Careful What You Pray For Nicole S. Rouse, 2010-11-01 Be careful what you pray for is an old adage but third grade teacher Maya Richards comes to discover that it's more than just a cliché Maya has been with her soul mate Kenneth Green for more than ten years She never doubted that he would one day ask for her hand in marriage but on the eve of their anniversary their relationship ends abruptly and she finds herself alone for the first time in thirteen years Maya turns to her family and best friend to help deal with her heartbreak but is left to heal on her own Her parents have discovered a love for traveling her sister is preparing to move across the country and her best friend is busy tending to her husband and children Instead of seeing this time as an opportunity to get closer to God Maya begs God to send her a new mate Impatient and desperate she begins a relationship with gym teacher Lloyd Bradford despite many warning signs As she struggles to escape a dangerous situation Maya learns that the relationship that matters most in life is the one that she has with Christ As Maya finds the strength to break away from Lloyd's tight reigns will she trust God and allow Him to restore peace in her life

Patrick Kavanagh, A Biography Antoinette Quinn, 2003-09-25 Antoinette Quinn's acclaimed biography of Patrick Kavanagh the most important Irish poet between the death of W B Yeats and the rise of Seamus Heaney tells the triumphant story of his journey from homespun balladry through early journal and poetry publications to his eventual coronation as one of the most influential figures in Irish poetry Kavanagh 1904-1967 was born in County Monaghan the son of a cobbler cum small farmer He left school at thirteen to work the land but continued to educate himself reading and writing poetry in his spare time In 1929 he began contributing verses to the Irish Statesman and was soon publishing in Irish and English journals His first collection Ploughman and Other Poems appeared in 1936 and was followed by an autobiography The Green Fool in 1938 In 1939 he moved to Dublin where he spent the rest of his life as a freelance writer and as part of the social and literary scene keeping company with a gifted generation of writers among them Flann O'Brien and Brendan Behan He gained recognition as an important literary voice with his long poem The Great Hunger in 1942 Further collections and the novel Tarry Flynn appeared in the following decades to growing critical acclaim Published to widespread praise Patrick Kavanagh A Biography traces Kavanagh's publishing history as well as revealing what he was writing in the long interval between his books This engaging well researched account of his daily professional life as a writer his revisions and redraftings his negotiations with publishers and editors dispels the view that he was an untutored gormless genius visited by an occasional flash of inspiration Patrick Kavanagh A Biography is the definitive account of Patrick of August but even more from the dream itself And yet she was cold she felt the chill of death She realised that she had indeed been dreaming a dream that took her back to exactly one year ago the day those policemen had actually come to the door with their message of doom Erik was no more it was over her great love was gone never again together never never never again Never again that was the steep slide into darkness Silently she slipped out of bed took her clothes to the bathroom where she freshened up and got dressed She crept down the stairs to the kitchen made a mug of coffee and sat down in her rocking chair with it She stared outside where it was already starting to get a little light She had no idea what time it was but she didn't care In fact everything passed her by at the moment She looked but saw nothing in depth She thought only of Erik the great love of her youth In fact he had been that since her early childhood the boy with whom she had a click who understood her who felt her The boy who was there for her and for whom she would give her young life Other children had teased them bullied them but it had hardly touched her because Erik was there They were together and together they were fine She had lost track of him for a few years because he went to high school a few years earlier She felt alone during those years But he was also the young boy who showed her when she was fifteen who made her feel that she was good and especially that she was loved that she was loved by him that she was his everything He had never forgotten her Erik the man she had married because she knew that she loved him with her whole heart and wanted to share her life only with him The man who helped her through her traumas her sadness her pain her fears She had not realised before that there was so much in her that had been lost Erik knew from the depths of his soul what she needed to heal emotionally His inner voice gave him directions that sometimes seemed so contrary but of which she could say afterwards that it was precisely those contrary things that had pulled a lot of shit loose from her wounds so that those wounds could heal It took months for her to finally feel like she was discovering herself for the first time in her life Through Erik and her process she finally came to realise that she was an amazing woman a woman of potential with an enormous love and power within her with a desire to help others in their process of inner healing And she rediscovered what she loved so much cooking and baking and being with people being there for them That was when Erik got plans to start a guesthouse He had previously had all kinds of jobs jobs that he did because he needed to earn a living but in which he could hardly put his heart into He loved working with his hands building things preferably with wood And he especially loved people dealing with people He had a clear goal for as long as she had known him helping people on their way Not like he had done with her guiding her for months and months but helping them on their way so that they themselves could continue in their own process in their search

Representing Irish Religious Histories Jacqueline Hill, Mary Ann Lyons, 2017-01-12 This collection begins on the premise that until recently religion has been particularly influential in Ireland in forming a sense of identity and in creating certain versions of reality History has also been a key component in that process and the historical evolution of Christianity has been appropriated by the main religious denominations Catholic Church of Ireland and Presbyterian with a view to reinforcing their own identities This book explores the ways in which this occurred the writing of religious history and some of the manifestations of that process forms key parts of the collection Also included are chapters discussing current and recent attempts to examine the legacy of collective religious memory notably in Northern Ireland based on projects designed to encourage reflection about the religious past among both adults and school children Readers will find this collection particularly timely in view of the current decade of commemorations
