Poems ... Selected and edited by R. A. Willmott ... Illustrated with one hundred designs by Birket Foster, etc James Montgomery,1860 Hello, Grace Toviyah J.,2017-12-13 The transparent story of the author s faith invites you to again taste and see that the Lord is good Hello Grace is the vulnerable and powerful journey of a preacher s daughter who was eager to see the world outside the confines of religion After straying away from sacred beliefs she once held dear an unrestrained freewill leads her to the pursuit of a worldly love that leaves her damaged and unrecognizable Refusing to turn back to a way of God she didn t fully understand or accept she goes through life aimlessly as far as her shaken faith will carry her until she stumbles and falls helplessly into the arms of God s grace Before she can become all that God has called her to be she must first face the brokenness of all that she has been Hello Grace reminds us that the boundless grace that God gives is indeed free unearned and unmerited to those who will humbly receive it This is a story of losses in the naive seasons of youth and how the return to God s love and all knowing wisdom brings healing and restoration to our deepest wounds As the author retells the tales of journeying through feeling abandoned rejected and
