Making the Personal Political Jane Fenoulhet, 2017-12-02 Making the Personal Political is an interdisciplinary account of a now forgotten success story in the history of the society and culture of the Netherlands While Dutch women had apparently retreated into domesticity after gaining the vote in 1919 women writers were out there in the market place selling the inside story of women s lives Eight case studies of women writers between 1919 and 1970 trace the unconscious politics of the personal in narratives of women s identity and experience through close readings of texts located in the culture of the time Jane Fenoulhet whose knowledge of Dutch literature and culture in the twentieth century is unparalleled in the English speaking world tracks the public representation of women's private project of self development to the moment when the personal is finally accepted as politically important in Dutch society

The Ashgate Research Companion to Cosmopolitanism Maria

Rovisco, Magdalena Nowicka, 2016-04-01 The study of Cosmopolitanism has been transformed in the last 20 years and the subject itself has become highly discussed across the social sciences and the humanities The Ashgate Research Companion to Cosmopolitanism pursues distinct theoretical orientations and empirical analyses bringing together mainstream discussions with the newest thinking and developments on the main themes debates and controversies surrounding the subject The contributions are grouped into three parts each reflecting a different analytical focus within a variety of intellectual disciplines and methodological approaches Part I Cultural Cosmopolitanism is primarily concerned with the empirically grounded aspects of cosmopolitanism which are apparent in mundane practices and lifestyle options on the micro scale of daily interactions It focuses on the outlooks and lived experience of ordinary individuals and groups in concrete situational contexts and social structures Part II Political Cosmopolitanism sets out the main topics and issues dealt with by scholars writing within the tradition of political cosmopolitanism Addressing timely issues such as human rights global justice and global democracy it focuses on Cosmopolitanism as an ethico political ideal and a political project to devise new forms of supranational and transnational governance Part III Debates reflects the major debates and controversies on the subject and deliberately eschews any bland consensus to instead foreground the key arguments and lively intellectual discussions in play across disciplinary divisions Featuring contributions from key thinkers in the field including Ulrich Beck David Held and Martha Nussbaum this comprehensive volume will be a valuable resource for all academics and students working within this area of study

Women in Western and Eastern Manichaeism, 2022-07-18 The exceptional place women held in

Manichaeism in everyday life or myth is the object of this book Relying on firsthand Manichaean texts in several languages and on polemical sources as well as on iconography the various papers analyze aspects of women's social engagement by spreading Mani's doctrine working to support the community or corresponding with other Manichaean groups Topics such as women's relation to the body and elect or hearer status are also investigated The major role played by female entities in the myth is enlightened through occidental and oriental texts and paintings discovered in Central Asia and China
