New Zealand Bookworld ,1977 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress,1979 Architecture Series: Bibliography ,1985 Library, 1983 The New Zealand Official Year-book New Zealand. Department of Statistics, 1963 Subject Catalog Library of Architecture and Urbanism in the British Empire G. A. Bremner, 2016-10-13 Throughout today s postcolonial world buildings monuments parks streets avenues entire cities even remain as witness to Britain s once impressive if troubled imperial past These structures are a conspicuous and near inescapable reminder of that past and therefore the built heritage of Britain's former colonial empire is a fundamental part of how we negotiate our postcolonial identities often lying at the heart of social tension and debate over how that identity is best represented This volume provides an overview of the architectural and urban transformations that took place across the British Empire between the seventeenth and mid twentieth centuries Although much research has been carried out on architecture and urban planning in Britain's empire in recent decades no single comprehensive reference source exists. The essays compiled here remedy this deficiency With its extensive chronological and regional coverage by leading scholars in the field this volume will quickly become a seminal text for those who study teach and research the relationship between empire and the built environment in the British context It provides an up to date account of past and current historiographical approaches toward the study of British imperial and colonial architecture and urbanism and will prove equally useful to those who study architecture and urbanism in other European imperial and transnational contexts The volume is divided in two main sections The first section deals with overarching thematic issues including building typologies major genres and periods of activity networks of expertise and the transmission of ideas the intersection between planning and politics as well as the architectural impact of empire on Britain itself The second section builds on the first by discussing these themes in relation to specific geographical regions teasing out the variations and continuities observable in context both practical and theoretical Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Architectural Conservation in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands John Stubbs, William Chapman, Julia Gatley, Ross King, 2023-12-22 The fourth in a series that documents architectural conservation in different parts of the world Architectural Conservation in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands National Experiences and Practice addresses cultural heritage protection in a region which comprises one third of the Earth s surface In response to local needs Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands have developed some of the most important and influential techniques legislation doctrine and theories in cultural heritage management in the world The evolution of the heritage protection ethos and contemporary architectural conservation practices in Australia and Oceania are discussed on a national and regional basis using ample illustrations and examples Accomplishments in architectural conservation are discussed in their national and international contexts with an emphasis on original developments solutions and contributions made to the overall field Enriched with essays contributed from fifty nine specialists and thought leaders in the field this book contains an extraordinary breadth and depth of research and synthesis on the why s and how s of cultural heritage conservation Its holistic approach provides an essential resource and reference for students academics researchers policy makers practitioners and all who are interested in conserving the built environment Māori Archaeology and History of Heretaunga, New Zealand Mark W. Allen, Ngahiwi Tomoana, Stella August, Wikitoria Moore, 2024-11-12 This book uses M ori Kaupapa a M ori approach practice to provide unique insights toward the anthropological understanding of power and place in Heretaunga New Zealand It examines the power of M ori leaders and ancient and modern archaeological and historical landscapes over the past six centuries It highlights M ori warfare characterized by impressive fortifications known as p Severe impacts of the colonial period are also discussed including demographic calamity changes in settlement pattern and the innovative ways that M ori leaders sought to navigate the last half of the nineteenth century Recent history and modern issues are examined as well particularly the rise of tribal self government Importantly the roles of female leaders are examined for each period This book will be of interest across many disciplines for those interested in conflict and warfare complex pre state level societies colonialism power and women and indigenous adaptions to globalization of the Psychiatric Asylum Graham Moon, Robin Kearns, 2016-03-03 The last 40 years has seen a significant shift from state commitment to asylum based mental health care to a mixed economy of care in a variety of locations In the wake of this deinstitutionalisation attention to date has focussed on users and providers of care The consequences for the idea and fabric of the psychiatric asylum have remained stones unturned This book address an enduring yet under examined question what has become of the asylum Focussing on the recycling of both the idea of the psychiatric asylum and its sites buildings and landscapes this book makes theoretical connections to current trends in mental health care and to ideas in cultural urban geography The process of closing asylums and how asylums have survived in specific contexts and markets is assessed and consideration given to the enduring attraction of asylum and its repackaging as well as to retained mental health uses on former asylum sites new uses on former sites and interpretations of the derelict psychiatric asylum. The key questions examined are the challenges posed in seeking new uses for former asylums the extent to which re use can transcend stigma yet sustain memory and how location is critical in shaping the future of asylum and asylum sites Appendix to the Journals of the House of Representatives of New Zealand New Zealand.
