American Educational History Journal Paul J. Ramsey, 2012-10-01 The American Educational History Journal is a peer reviewed national research journal devoted to the examination of educational topics using perspectives from a variety of disciplines The editors of AEHJ encourage communication between scholars from numerous disciplines nationalities institutions and backgrounds Authors come from a variety of disciplines including political science curriculum history philosophy teacher education and educational leadership Acceptance for publication in AEHJ requires that each author present a well articulated argument that deals substantively with questions of educational history Hating Empire

Properly Sunil M. Agnani, 2013-05-14 Discusses arguments made against empire and colonialism in the eighteenth century through works by Denis Diderot and Edmund Burke Explores the limits and failures of their arguments by emphasizing what they wrote on the two Indies especially India and Haiti Meaning in Action Hendrik Wagenaar, 2014-12-18 This accessible book gives academics graduate students and researchers a comprehensive overview of the vast varied and often confusing landscape of interpretive policy analysis It is both theoretically informed and clear and jargon free as it discusses the specific strengths and weaknesses of different interpretive approaches all with a practical orientation towards doing policy analysis The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2008 Ghostly Past, Capitalist Presence Tithi

Bhattacharya, 2024-07-19 In Ghostly Past Capitalist Presence Tithi Bhattacharya maps the role that Bengali ghosts and ghost stories played in constituting the modern Indian nation and the religious ideas seeded therein as it emerged in dialogue with European science Bhattacharya introduces readers to the multifarious habits and personalities of Bengal's traditional ghosts and investigates and mourns their eventual extermination For Bhattacharya British colonization marked a transition from the older multifarious folk world of traditional ghosts to newer and more frightening specters These modern Bengali ghosts borne out of a new rationality were homogeneous specters amenable to scientific speculation and invoked at séance sessions in elite drawing rooms Reading literature alongside the colonial archive Bhattacharya uncovers a new reordering of science and faith from the middle of the nineteenth century She argues that these shifts cemented the authority of a rising upper caste colonial elite who expelled the older ghosts in order to recast Hinduism as the conscience of the Indian nation In so doing Bhattacharya reveals how capitalism necessarily reshaped Bengal as part of the global colonial project The History of

Christ Church Cathedral School, Oxford Richard Lane, Michael Lee, 2017-12-28 In 1546 when Henry VIII founded Christ Church and its Cathedral he made provision for a number of boy Choristers and a Schoolmaster From this royal beginning has grown the present Christ Church Cathedral School which took its current shape with the building of 3 Brewer Street under Dean Liddell father of the Alice immortalised by Lewis Carroll This is a definitive history of the school and its place in the heart of Oxford history Uncertain Empire Joel Isaac, Duncan Bell, 2012-09-06 Historians have long understood that the notion of the cold war is richly metaphorical if not paradoxical The conflict between the United States and the Soviet Union was a war that fell ambiguously short of war an armed truce that produced considerable bloodshed Yet scholars in the rapidly expanding field of Cold War studies have seldom paused to consider the conceptual and chronological foundations of the idea of the Cold War itself In Uncertain Empire a group of leading scholars takes up the challenge of making sense of the idea of the Cold War and its application to the writing of American history They interrogate the concept from a wide range of disciplinary vantage points diplomatic history the history of science literary criticism cultural history and the history of religion highlighting the diversity of methods and approaches in contemporary Cold War studies Animating the volume as a whole is a question about the extent to which the Cold War was an American invention Uncertain Empire brings debates over national global and transnational history into focus and offers students of the Cold War a new framework for considering recent developments in the field

A History of Corporate Finance Jonathan Barron Baskin, Paul J. Miranti, 1999-12-28 An overview of the role of institutions and organisations in the development of corporate finance

Expanding Frontiers of African History Monday B. Abasiattai, 1988

Theory and Reality Peter Godfrey-Smith, 2021-07-16 How does science work Does it tell us what the world is really like What makes it different from other ways of understanding the universe In Theory and Reality Peter Godfrey Smith addresses these questions by taking the reader on a grand tour of more than a hundred years of debate about science The result is a completely accessible introduction to the main themes of the philosophy of science Examples and asides engage the beginning student a glossary of terms explains key concepts and suggestions for further reading are included at the end of each chapter Like no other text in this field Theory and Reality combines a survey of recent history of the philosophy of science with current key debates that any beginning scholar or critical reader can follow The second edition is thoroughly updated and expanded by the author with a new chapter on truth simplicity and models in science

Crime Wars Paul Battersby, Joseph M. Siracusa, Sasho Ripiloski, 2011-01-19 This expert analysis addresses the many interconnections between political violence and crime including the transnational crimes of non state actors and the international crimes of states How crime is defined goes to the heart of the boundaries drawn between legitimate and illegitimate use of force between violence and non violence between legality and criminality Crime Wars The Global Intersection of Crime Political Violence and International Law presents a well balanced introductory analysis of this critically important subject addressing the many points of intersection between political legitimacy law political violence and criminal activity This thought provoking work examines the criminalization of the developing world opening up debate about the nature and cause of acts that transgress laws rules and social norms Acknowledging the subjective nature of crime it nevertheless urges readers to ask difficult questions about why law abiding persons and states sanction rule infringement law breaking and amoral policy Perhaps most importantly the authors assess structures of global and regional governance including legal regimes and major international non governmental agencies to offer unique historically grounded insights into security challenges and the ways in which global crimes and wars can be addressed in the 21st century
