Paul Winstanley Paintings:

Paul Winstanley, 2016 59 Paintings Paul Winstanley, 2018-03-29 An exquisite and singular book that presents an award winning international artist's personal view about how paintings are conceived, made and interpreted. With a career stretching four decades, award winning British artist Paul Winstanley has established an international reputation for his highly atmospheric photorealistic paintings of empty, non-descript places and anonymous figures. According to the chief art critic of the Los Angeles Times, his carefully balanced minimalist compositions conjure a lovely contemplative expressiveness while Time Out New York wrote that with considered and considerable nuance and deftness he makes a case for the continuing relevance of painting and its capacity for translating seeing into feeling. Now Winstanley turns to the medium of writing to translate his experience of painting into words. Taking fifty-nine of his own works as a starting point, he presents a series of episodes that together reveal what it means to conceive, make and think about paintings as an artist. Among the varied subjects that he considers are how a painter seeks out and finds inspiration in life and the world, the relationship between observed and depicted realities, what constitutes truth in a painting, how to approach conceptual and technical challenges, the role of the viewer in the transaction at the heart of painting and the belief systems that lie behind the business of creating and looking at paintings. The result is an exquisite personal account of the art and craft of making painted images today.

Paul Winstanley Paul Winstanley, 1992 Paul Winstanley Paul Winstanley, 2000 Paul Winstanley, Paul Winstanley Brian D. Butler, 2008 You would not know where to begin to read the image. It looks simple enough. There are so many routes into the image, so many points of recognition within the composition, and yet you do not know where to begin and for that matter where to close off or frame your reading. In Paul Winstanley's work, the image is defined according to a frame of perception where the image exists both to represent a scene witnessed and to convey a position for the viewer within that. This much is given. Where the witness once was, so now you stand in a reconstruction of the scene. This much you think you know.

Andrew Renton Deferred landscapes: A view from the threshold in the paintings of Paul Winstanley Threshold is the first extensive survey of British artist Paul Winstanley's career to date, with over a 100 colour images and texts by Andrew Renton, Director of Curating at Goldsmiths University of London, and Christel Fricke, Professor of Philosophy, University of Oslo. The substantial 144-page full-colour catalogue was published by Artspace and Clouds on the occasion of the exhibition Paul Winstanley Paintings 1989-2007, currently showing at Artspace Auckland, New Zealand, 26 April-31 May 2008.
