

Paul & I Discover America

I could have known that this sweet-natured, intelligent boy who had been such a continuous joy to live with, would confront my unspoken, deeply felt patriotism with his own generation's discontent and disgust. But I had chosen not to read the signs he had left for me. Now, as I watched him spread the flag across his buttocks, I felt irrationally fragmented, broken and scattered by love of child and country, terrible anger, rising despair. Would the sight have been more bearable had I not recognized the tattered rectangle as a remnant from a Fourth of July parade during his early childhood? Then he had sat upon my shoulders and waved his small flag exuberantly, perhaps even proudly, at fairs and marching bands as they paraded on the street.
