affirms the diversity within the field while advancing unique perspectives that might be the object of continued discussions among theologians. Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology offers an important basis for scholars to position their own work within the broader field of comparative theology and is an essential resource for anyone interested in theology conducted in dialogue with other religious traditions. 2021 PROSE Finalist in the Theology/Religious Studies category For My People James H. Cone, 1984 Looks at the history of Black theology, discusses its relationship to white and liberation theology, and identifies new directions for Black churches to take in the eighties Edinburgh 2010 David A. Kerr, Kenneth R. Ross, 2009 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the 21st century. Several different constituencies within World Christianity are holding significant events around 2010. Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh. This initiative brings together representatives of twenty different global Christian bodies representing all major Christian denominations and confessions and many different strands of mission and church life to prepare for the Centenary. Daryl Balia, International Director, Edinburgh 2010 Twentieth-Century Global Christianity Mary Farrell Bednarowski, 2010-03-01 A specific focus and intent of this final volume of A People's History of Christianity is to delve behind the global phenomenon of Christianity to glimpse some of the very rich and dynamic lifeways within it. Ranging over the whole century and across several continents, the scholars in this volume probe Christians' creative encounters with popular culture, liturgy and spirituality, social change and Marxism, intrareligious and interreligious dialogue and changes in gender expectations and roles. Includes 50 illustrations, maps, bibliographies, and an 8 page color gallery. Contributors include Mary Farrell Bednarowski, Mercy Oduyoye, Ghana; Patrick Henry, St John's University; Bruce Forbes, Morningside College; Valerie Demarinis, Uppsala University; Rosetta E. Jenny Dagg covers recent efforts to disentangle Eurocentrism from the meeting of the religions and investigates new constructive possibilities arising in the postcolonial context. In dialogue with Asian and feminist theologies, she reflects on ways forward for relations between the religions and offers a particularist model for theology of religions standing within a classical Trinitarian framework The

Quest for Biblical Servant Leadership KeumJu Jewel Hyun, Grace Y. May, Philomena Mwaura, Julius Kithinji, 2023-05-26
 Improve your service While many claim to offer models of leadership suitable for contemporary society this book goes a notch higher by doing so through the prism of Jesus's servant leadership As the servant leader par excellence Jesus not only taught but demonstrated service by stooping down and washing his disciples feet This book distills the experience and wisdom of men and women who have practically benefited from Jesus's leadership Reflective of the global church all the authors speak of a servant leadership inspired by love honoring of God humble in approach and seeking the welfare of others without neglecting a healthy self regard Whether you work on site or remotely you will find the grist for robust leadership This book is a must read for theologians businesspeople educators students and Christian practitioners seeking to make a difference in our times

Feminist Biblical Studies in the Twentieth Century Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, 2014-06-26
 Chart the development of feminist approaches and theories of interpretation during the period when women first joined the ranks of biblical scholars This collection of essays on feminist biblical studies in the twentieth century seeks to explore four areas of inquiry demanding further investigation In the first section articles chart the beginnings and developments of feminist biblical studies as a conversation among feminists around the world The second section introduces reviews and discusses the hermeneutic religious spaces created by feminist biblical studies The third segment discusses academic methods of reading and interpretation that dismantle androcentric language and kyriarchal authority The fourth section returns to the first with work that transgresses academic boundaries in order to exemplify the transforming inspiring and institutionalizing feminist work that has been and is being done to change religious mindsets of domination and to enable women to engage in critical readings of the Bible Features Essays examine the rupture or break in the malestream reception history of the Bible Exploration of the term feminism in different social cultural and theoretical religious locations Authors from around the world present research and future directions for research challenging the next generation of feminist interpreters

Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology Pui-lan Kwok, 2005-01-01 The burgeoning field of postcolonial studies argues that most theology has been formed in dominant cultures laden intrinsically with imperializing structures An essential task facing theology is thus to decolonize the mind and free Christianity from colonizing bias and structures Here in this truly groundbreaking study highly respected feminist theologian Kwok Pui lan offers the first full length theological treatment of what it means to do postcolonial feminist theology She explains her methodological basis and explores several specific topics including Christology pluralism and creation
