To the Jew First or to the Jew at Last Antoine XJ Fritz,2014-09-25 Many missions to the Jewish people such as Jews for Jesus use Romans 1 16 as a proof text to encourage the evangelisation of the Jewish people as a priority to the Jew first and then to the Greek Jewish Missional Priority Is this interpretation of the text legitimate After considering when this priority first appeared the author exposes and evaluates the arguments commonly used to promote it His thorough exegesis of Romans 1 16 17 ultimately resolves the question He takes the opportunity to explore some possible eschatological implications developed from Romans 9 11 and the parables of Jesus Will the first also be the last

Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks, Volume 11, Part 2 Søren Kierkegaard,2020-05-05 For over a century the Danish thinker S ren Kierkegaard 1813 55 has been at the center of a number of important discussions concerning not only philosophy and theology but also more recently fields such as social thought psychology and contemporary aesthetics especially literary theory Despite his relatively short life Kierkegaard was an extraordinarily prolific writer as attested to by the 26 volume Princeton University Press edition of all of his published writings But Kierkegaard left behind nearly as much unpublished writing most of which consists of what are called his journals and notebooks Kierkegaard has long been recognized as one of history's great journal keepers but only rather small portions of his journals and notebooks are what we usually understand by the term diaries By far the greater part of Kierkegaard's journals and notebooks consists of reflections on a myriad of subjects philosophical religious political personal Studying his journals and notebooks takes us into his workshop where we can see his entire universe of thought We can witness the genesis of his published works to be sure but we can also see whole galaxies of concepts new insights and fragments large and small of partially or almost entirely completed but unpublished works Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks enables us to see the thinker in dialogue with his times and with himself Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced Volume 11 Parts 1 and 2 present an exciting enlightening and enormously varied treasure trove of papers that were found carefully sorted and stored by Kierkegaard himself in his apartment after his death These papers many of which have never before been published in English provide a window into many different aspects of Kierkegaard's life and creativity Volume 11 Part 2 includes writings from the period between 1843 the year in which he published his breakthrough Either Or and late September 1855 a few weeks before his death when he recorded his final reflections on Christendom Among the highlights are Kierkegaard's famous description of the Great Earthquake that shaped his life his early reflections on becoming an author his important though never delivered lectures on The Dialectic of Ethical and Ethical Religious Communication and his final incandescent assault on the tendency new in his time to harness Christianity in support of a specific social and political order

Being 'in Christ' in the Letters of Paul Teresa Morgan, 2020-11-05 In this study Teresa Morgan offers a radically new interpretation of in Christ and related expressions in the undisputed letters of Paul Starting from a reassessment of Deissmann's Die neutestamentliche Formel in Christo Jesu she argues that Deissmann's philology is flawed the Schweitzerian concept of participation in Christ which is indebted to it is problematic and many contemporary accounts of participation are better understood in other terms Through close readings of each letter Teresa Morgan shows how Paul uses en Christo language instrumentally to speak of what God has done through Christ by Christ's death and encheiristically to speak of the life the faithful now live in Christ's hands in Christ's power under his authority under his protection and in his care This creative use of en Christo language forms part of and connects Paul's soteriology eschatology and Christology shaping his narrative of God's intervention in the world the relationship between God Christ and the faithful the lordship and work of Christ between the resurrection and the parousia and God's ultimate triumph This narrative is closely connected with Paul's ecclesiology and ethics where life in Christ's hands is envisaged as the this worldly dimension of the new creation an aspect of eternal life already active in the present time In Christ's hands the faithful not least Paul himself live a new life in communities with a distinctive structure and dynamic In Christ's hands they hope to remain in right standing with God and serve God until Christ's return

Romans Andrew B. Spurgeon, 2020-05-31 In a world torn by racial social economic political and gender tensions the message of Romans is deeply relevant and needed It is a message both powerful and simple Christ loved us while we were enemies of God Can we then not follow his example and love those who are different than us Romans will prepare us to do so The Asia Bible Commentary Series empowers Christian believers in Asia to read the Bible from within their respective contexts Holistic in its approach to the text each exposition of the biblical books combines exegesis and application The ultimate goal is to strengthen the Body of Christ in Asia by providing pastoral and contextual exposition of every book of the Bible making the message of redemption found in all of Scripture clear and available to all Contributors to this volume include James M Hamilton Jr Brian Vickers Farewell, Fair Child, Part 2 J.J. Amirikhas,2020-12-27 The book is about a young man s coming of age while going through four years of high school It is autobiographical but not an autobiography It also has allusions to the story of Cyrano de Bergerac and some references to Catcher in the Rye It is in three parts with a prologue and an epilogue Part one covers freshman year part two sophomore and junior years and part three senior year As mentioned it involves the social and sexual awakening of a young man and it covers the years of childhood to adolescence There is also a brief section about the young man s native country of Iran Planet Alverst Part 2 Doreen Bell,2022-08-22 After Spaceship 4 suddenly took flight leaving behind a mortally wounded president of the United States and millions of citizens on a fast dying earth NASA and the space center scrambled to find another spaceship They found an old spaceship that had been retired after many missions In the meantime the gangsters were still trying to find a way off earth They kidnap a person they thought was a NASA guy and tried to beat instructions out of him on how to get on the ship He decides to double cross them with a hope to get on the ship himself which is an adventure no one would want to have Yes Shanto the alien is back doing his best to sabotage their mission 170 Participation and Covenant Dick Moes,2024-03-13 In Participation and Covenant Contours of a Theodramatic Theology Moes develops a theological framework that has participation in the life of God in Christ through the Spirit as its integrative center In doing so he enters into conversation with covenant or federal theology particularly as it has been presented by Michael Horton in which the integrative center is the concept of the covenant He argues that God s fundamental relationship with humanity does not entail a covenant ontology a fundamentally legal and ethical relationship to God as we find in Horton s presentation but rather an ontology of participating in God s loving presence in Christ through the Holy Spirit For this relationship we were created and this participation is therefore natural to us Accordingly a theodramatic framework that incorporates a reframed understanding of divine human covenants and that has participation in the life of God in Christ by the Spirit as its integrative center is better able to give direction for clearly communicating the gospel in our secular culture and for properly shaping our Christian identity and practice in the face of the secularism that affects the church too than Horton s framework of covenant theology A Theology of Paul the Apostle, Part One G. Roger Greene,2023-07-21 The legacy of Paul looms large in all Christian theology While the study of Paul is not a simple task proper interpretation should be sustainable on the basis of a thorough examination of Paul s letters within their historical matrix The work Theology of Paul the Apostle is presented in two parts Part One Paul s Eschatological Gospel addresses matters relevant for Paul s appreciation of the gospel of God in the establishment of the eschatological community in Christ Paul s Judaism informs his apocalyptic description as he expresses his thought with consistent convictions within the varied contingent contexts of his communities within a Greco Roman world Part Two Cross and Atonement examines a perennial storm center within Paul s theology from both an exegetical and developmentally historical perspective Paul was embraced by the gospel of God in Christ the resurrection being the turning point of the ages While Paul's theology and the understandings of Paul must be established point by point Paul's theology has continuing relevance within the very different matrix of a postmodern world

Warlike Christians in an Age of Violence Nick Megoran, 2017-10-03 How should Christians respond to war This age old question has become more pressing given Western governments recent overseas military interventions and the rise of extremist Islamist jihadism Grounded in conservative evangelical theology this book argues the historic church position that it is inadmissible for Christians to use violence or take part in war It shows how the church s propensity to support the just wars crusades rebellions or humanitarian interventions of its host nations over time has been disastrous for the reputation of the gospel Instead the church s response to war is simply to be the church by preaching the gospel and making peace in the love and power of God The book considers challenges to this argument for gospel peace What about warfare in the Old Testament and military metaphors in the New What of church history And how do we deal with tyrants like Hitler and terrorists like Islamic State Charting a path between just war theory and liberal pacifism numerous inspiring examples from the worldwide church are used to demonstrate effective and authentically Christian responses to violence The author argues that as Christians increasingly drop their unbiblical addiction to war we may be entering one of the most exciting periods of church history
