The Making of Paul Klee's Career, 1914-1920 Otto Karl Werckmeister, 1989-07-10 Paul Klee one of the preeminent artists of the twentieth century was associated with all of the major movements of the first half of the century expressionism cubism surrealism and abstraction In this economic and political history O K Werckmeister traces Klee's career as a professional artist concentrating on the years 1914-20 in which Klee rose from obscurity to recognition in the visual culture of the incipient Weimar Republic Werckmeister reveals the degree to which Klee who has been traditionally portrayed as aloof from politics and the vicissitudes of the art market was subject to and interacted with material conditions Drawing on rich documentary evidence records of Klee's sales reviews of his exhibitions the artist's published writings about his art unpublished correspondence as well as contemporary criticism Werckmeister follows Klee's transformation from an idiosyncratic abstract individualist to a metaphysical storyteller to mystical sage Werckmeister argues that this latter image was promoted by a number of influential art critics and dealers acting in cooperation with the artist himself This posture prompted Klee's success first in the war weary modernist art world of 1916-18 and then in the pseudo revolutionary art world of 1919-20 This work is a critical challenge to the myth of Klee's art and to the hagiography of his artistic personality Werckmeister's historical account is sure to be a controversial yet significant contribution to Klee studies one that will change the nature of Klee scholarship for some time to come Paul Klee Sylvie Delpech, Caroline Leclerc, 2006-06-05 Paul Klee defined himself as a painter poet and his art perfectly reflects that phrase He was interested in colour and formed friendships with other artists also exploring colour such as Kandinsky Picasso and Braque His experimentation with backgrounds shapes colour sign and pictograms as well as with light and colour are all portrayed in his work This book contains six of his most famous paintings and with over 75 large sized stickers it allows both children and adults to experiment themselves placing the re usable stickers on different paintings to see how small and large changes completely change a work of art Sylvie Delpech studied history of art and worked in imaging technology for television before returning to Paris where she works in photography and on children's books Museum Design with, by, and for Children Clare Murray, 2025-06-13 Museum Design with by and for Children makes an important contribution to contemporary museum theory and practice by focusing on the role and rights of children in museums from a new angle design At a time when museum practitioners are challenged to work within their particular buildings and contexts to help the children in their communities feel welcome invited and involved this book presents alternative approaches that are being implemented across the world and pushing the museum field further in its commitment to children starting with design This book provides inspirational insights into large and small scale ways that children can participate in museum design and therefore exercise their human rights gain agency develop their sense of belonging and form part of museum communities Drawing on case studies from Argentina Australia England Italy Mexico and Paraguay and theoretical insights from the Reggio Emilia Approach constructivism designerly learning laboratory style design and the work of Paulo Freire and Francesco Tonucci this book explores the extent to which museums design processes are child centered and how children's material culture can be reflected in the museum design work that will ultimately shape their own early learning experiences This book explores museum design as a process that involves key stakeholders in procedural planning and associated tasks and discussions such as those regarding color light shape form space and building materials Museum Design with by and for Children will be valuable for museum practitioners students and researchers with an interest in children's experiences in museums particularly how children can be empowered as active participants with rights to the museum      Discovering Child Art Jonathan David Fineberg, Jonathan Fineberg, 2001-01-23 This book brings together thirteen distinguished critics and scholars to explore children's art and its profound but rarely documented influence on the evolution of modern art. It shows that children's art and childhood have inspired major works of art, served as central metaphors for artistic spontaneity and honesty, and provided a window into the fundamental human qualities explored by modern artists. The volume complements editor Jonathan Fineberg's groundbreaking new book The Innocent Eye (Princeton, 1997) in which he showed how many of the greatest masters of modern art collected and were directly influenced by children's drawings. Contributors here both expand on Fineberg's themes and take the study of children's art in new directions. They examine, for example, the influence of child art on such artists as Kandinsky, Klee, Larionov, and Mir; the diverse styles of children's art; the influence of Romantic ideas on perceptions of children's art; the conception of giftedness versus education in children's drawings; and the relationship between children's art and primitivism. The book offers unique glimpses into the working processes of great modern artists, presenting, for example, Dora Vallier's personal recollections of Mir and his creative process, and new documentation about the works of the Russian avant-garde. The essays draw on art theory, psychology, and the close study of individual works of art and written texts. Discovering Child Art will appeal to a wide range of readers, including art historians, psychologists, and art educators. Contributors to the book are Troels Andersen, Rudolf Arnheim, John Carlin, Marcel Franciscono, Ernst Gombrich, Christopher Green, Josef Helfenstein, Werner Hofmann, Yuri Molok, G. G. Pospelov, Richard Shiff, Dora Vallier, and Barbara W. Wrag.
