Paul Nougé Écriture Et Caractère À L'école De La Ruse:

From Art Nouveau to Surrealism Nathalie Aubert, 2017-07-05 This volume of edited essays is the first one in English to offer a critical overview of the specific features of Belgian modernity from 1880 to 1940 in a multiplicity of disciplines literature and poetry politics music photography and drama The first half of the book investigates the roots of twentieth century modernity in Belgian fin de siècle across a variety of genres novel poetry and drama not only within but also beyond the boundaries of Symbolism The contributors go on to examine the explosion of Belgian culture on the international scene with the rise of the avant gardes notably Surrealism and the contribution made in minor genres such as the popular novels of Simenon and Jean Ray and the Tintin comics of Hergé Historical Dictionary of Surrealism Keith Aspley, 2010-10-16 Surrealism was a broad movement which attracted many adherents It was organized and quite strictly disciplined at least until the death of its leader André Breton in 1966 As a consequence its membership was in a constant state of flux persons were constantly being admitted and excluded and often the latter continued to regard themselves as Surrealists The wide ranging nature of the Surrealist movement was spread over many countries and many different art forms including painting sculpture cinema photography music theater and literature most notably poetry The Historical Dictionary of Surrealism relates the history of this movement through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 600 cross referenced dictionary entries on persons circles and groups who participated in the movement a global entry on some of the journals and reviews they produced and a sampling of major works of art cinema and literature Dada and beyond Elza Adamowicz, Eric Robertson, 2011 This collection of critical essays celebrates the subversive and challenging creativity of the Dada movement born in pacifist Zurich in 1916 in violent reaction to the First World War It examines the collective and individual activities that took place under the name of Dada in Zurich Cologne Berlin Paris New York and Barcelona and explores the various creative forms employed including text collage photomontage objects dance performance and film The authors suggest new ways of understanding the work of the most famous Dadaists while also casting light on the contribution of hitherto neglected figures Far from attempting to reduce Dada to a homogeneous movement or to define a unifying principle beneath and beyond the multiple directions taken by Dadaists this collection aims to respect the diversity and heterogeneity of the movement's collective activities as well as the specificity of its individual actors Minor Aesthetics Mieke Bleyen, 2014-06-10 New perspectives on Belgian Surrealism and the photographic practices of Marcel Mariën Marcel Mariën 1920-1993 was a key figure of Belgian post war Surrealism He is widely acknowledged for his landmark work on Belgian Surrealism and his collaboration with future Situationists like Guy Ernest Debord in his journal Les Lèvres Nues Nevertheless Mariën's texts collages photographs film and objects have to date remained understudied This is the first volume devoted to Mariën's photographic work Through a series of close readings Mieke Bleyen connects the collage and photographic practices of Mariën with his wider oeuvre particularly with his archival and editorial activities By applying

Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of the minor this book proposes an alternative reading of Marin's anti-aesthetics and focuses on the affective range of his work. The figure of Marin also serves as a case study that offers new perspectives on Belgian Surrealism's relation to mainstream Surrealism and the role of photography within Surrealism. This volume moreover raises a critique on major art history's conception of time as linear progression and argues instead for twisted and extended temporalities in the case of Marcel Marin. With previously unpublished images from Marin's private archive.

A la diff rence des autres mouvements d avant garde historiques le mod le du surr alisme est encore un d fi pour nombre d crivains et d artistes d aujourd hui et ne serait ce qu en tant que mort vivant. Voulant reconduire l art dans la vie donc aussi dans la politique et le politique le surr alisme envisage une transformation de la soci t mais se r v le finalement r sistant contre tous les totalitarismes. Les contributions de ce volume analysent selon quelle politique artistique le surr alisme peut tablir et pratiquer cette position politique unique dans l art et la litt rature du XXe si cle. Ils abordent ce sujet de perspectives th oriques et m diatiques et des points de vue de la litt rature de l art de l histoire et de la communication. Les essais s occupent aussi bien de sujets d oeuvres et d auteurs repr sentatifs du surr alisme historique que du surr alisme d apr s guerre et de sa r ception d aujourd hui. Ils posent ainsi la question de la n cessit et des possibilit s d un nouvel engagement politique de l art et de la litt rature contemporains. André Baillon 1875-1932 n atteignit que progressivement sa vraie stature celle de l crivain qui fit de sa vie un terrain d criture. Il ne cessa d explorer les limites du langage et les fronti res de la folie. Affrontant les mots Baillon se confronte aussi l Autre et en premier lieu au lecteur qu il convie prouver son exp rience dans une ambivalence qui m le empathie et ironie. De cette invention de l Autre surgit un vrai sujet une voix qui a quelque chose dire. Cette tude montre comment l oeuvre de Baillon tout gotiste qu elle soit interroge le fait litt raire dans son essence.
