This engaging history of a university and an era traces the formative years of Simon Fraser University in Burnaby BC SFU was born in a period of ferment and flux when ideas about education were changing so rapidly and the western world was starting to feel the impact of student activism the Civil Rights movement and opposition to the Vietnam War Promoted as an open innovative university SFU attracted more mature students and far younger and more idealistic faculty than other schools The stage was set for educational and political fireworks Radical Campus traces those first exhilarating confusing and profoundly educational years from the search for an architect who could produce an extraordinary design to the hiring of young professors from all over the world to the uproar caused when Chancellor Gordon Shrum declared himself against tenure for faculty All contributed to SFU s reputation as a radical difficult obstreperous place In fact the university rapidly became a lightning rod in an unforgettably creative era in post secondary education in the Western world From the tumult of its first years SFU has emerged to become one of Canada s most respected universities youthful energetic regorous and still growing and learning Measuring the Mosaic Rick Helmes-Hayes,2010-01-28 Measuring the Mosaic is a comprehensive intellectual biography of John Porter 1921 1979 author of The Vertical Mosaic 1965 preeminent Canadian sociologist of his time and one of Canada s most celebrated scholars In the first biography of this important figure Rick Helmes Hayes provides a detailed account of Porter s life and an in depth assessment of his extensive writings on class power educational opportunity social mobility and democracy While assessing Porter s place in the historical development of Canadian social science Helmes Hayes also examines the economic social political and scholarly circumstances including the Depression World War II post war reconstruction the baby boom and the growth of universities that contoured Porter s political and academic views Using extensive archival research correspondence and over fifty original interviews with family colleagues and friends Measuring the Mosaic stresses Porter's remarkable contributions as a scholar academic statesman senior administrator at Carleton University and engaged practical public intellectual Sex, Lies, and Cigarettes Sharon Anne Cook, 2012 A cultural and historical investigation into why women smoke The Satellite Sex Barbara M. Freeman, 2001-05-02 Citing a lack of strong feminist voices in contemporary Canadian media Freeman journalism Carleton U Ottawa was motivated to write this first book length analysis of news media coverage of women's issues in Canada The period 1966-1971 is seen as a critical period in Canadian feminist history during which time the Canadian government appointed a federal inquiry into women's issues the Royal Commission on the Status of Women Freeman examines the relationship between the Commission and the media the reporters' understandings of professional practice and the ways in which they covered issues from the hearings and the Commission's Report She argues that an understanding of media coverage of gender issues in the past may lead to thoughtful and effective coverage now and in the future Accessible to a general audience c Book News Inc Historical Identities E. Lisa Panayotidis, Paul Stortz, 2006-12-15 As intellectual engines of the university professors hold considerable authority and play an important role in society By nature of their occupation they are agents of intellectual culture in Canada Historical Identities is a new collection of essays examining the history of the professoriate in Canada Framing the volume with the question What was it like to be a professor editors Paul Stortz and E. Lisa Panayotidis along with an esteemed group of Canadian historians strive to uncover and analyze variables and contexts such as background education economics politics gender and ethnicity in the lives of academics throughout Canada's history The contributors take an in depth approach to topics such as academic freedom professors and the state faculty development discipline construction and academic cultures religion biography gender and faculty wives images of professors and background and childhood experiences Including the best and most recent critical research in the field of the social history of higher education and professors Historical Identities examines fundamental and challenging topics issues and arguments on the role and nature of intellectualism in Canada Marion Dewar Deborah Gorham, 2016-09-13 Marion Dewar could never ignore a person who was begging in the street Along with money she would offer words of encouragement and friendship Perhaps it was her training as a nurse her devout Catholic upbringing or maybe it was simply because she was a genuinely compassionate woman As mayor of Ottawa from 1978-1985 Marion Dewar worked tirelessly to bring about non profit housing better public transportation support and encouragement for the arts for peace and for women's rights She advocated for visible minorities gays and lesbians and was the driving force behind the initiative to bring 4 000 boat people to Ottawa from Vietnam and Southeast Asia She was a prominent member of the New Democratic Party and sat as a Member of Parliament in 1987-1988 all while raising four children Accompanied by archival and personal photos an intriguing look at a woman who took action when it counted most Dynasties and Interludes, 2010-10-18 A comprehensive and unique overview of elections and voting in Canada from Confederation to the recent spate of minority governments this book examines changes in the composition of the electorate as well as the technology and professionalization of election campaigns Still Counting Linda Trimble, Jane Arscott, 2008-01-01 Still Counting is a state of the art examination of women's involvement in Canadian politics This book belongs on the shelf of anyone with an interest in contemporary Canadian politics Lisa Young University of Calgary Queen of the Hurricanes Crystal Sissons, 2014-10-01 Elsie MacGill achieved many firsts in science and engineering at a time when women were considered to be inferior in the sciences In 1923 at the age of nineteen she became the first woman to attend engineering classes at the University of Toronto She was the first woman in North America to hold a degree in aeronautical engineering and the first woman aircraft designer in the world As chief engineer for the Canadian Car and Foundry Company she oversaw the production of the Hawker Hurricane and designed a series of modifications to equip the plane for cold weather flying Her Maple Leaf trainer may still be the only plane ever to be completely designed by a woman And she did all this while suffering from polio In this biography we learn that she supervised 4500 workers and produced about 1450 Hawker Hurricanes by the end of WWII Elsie was a popular heroine of her time inspiring the comic book Queen of the Hurricanes in the 1940s In later life she became a powerful feminist activist advocating for the rights of women and children Leading the Modern University Lorna R. Marsden, 2016-10-27 Founded in 1959 York University is now the second largest university in Ontario and third largest university in Canada However starting in 1970s the success of the university was far from guaranteed Leading the Modern University documents the challenges and solutions that five successive university presidents H Ian Macdonald Harry Arthurs Susan Mann Lorna Marsden and Mamdouh Shoukri encountered from the very early 1970s up to 2014 This book is the rare occurrence where a series of university presidents describe and analyze the challenges they faced regarding financing morale crises and succession With each president contributing a chapter covering her or his own years in office Leading the Modern University reveals that large public institutions have internal dynamics and external forces that supersede any individual leader's years in office This is a case study for those interested in organizational change as seen by the leadership of a major public institution during a dynamic period in higher education The Equity Myth Frances Henry, Enakshi Dua, Carl E. James, Audrey Kobayashi, Peter Li, Howard Ramos, Malinda S. Smith, 2017-06-22 The university is often regarded as a bastion of liberal democracy where equity and diversity are promoted and racism doesn't exist In reality the university still excludes many people and is a site of racialization that is subtle complex and sophisticated While some studies do point to the persistence of systemic barriers to equity in higher education in depth analyses of racism racialization and Indigeneity in the academy are more notable for excluding racialized and Indigenous professors This book is the first comprehensive data based study of racialized and Indigenous faculty members' experiences in Canadian universities Challenging the myth of equity in higher education it brings together leading scholars who scrutinize what universities have done and question the effectiveness of their equity programs They draw on a rich body of survey data interviews and analysis of universities stated policies to examine the experiences of racialized faculty members across Canada who despite diversity initiatives in their respective institutions have yet to see meaningful changes in everyday working conditions They also make important recommendations as to how universities can address racialization and fulfill the promise of equity in higher education
