Petersburg Perspectives:

Petersburg Perspectives Frank Althaus, Mark Sutcliffe, 2003-05-06 As St Petersburg prepares to celebrate its 300th anniversary in May 2003 this fully illustrated volume reveals the essence of Russia's most beautiful city through new photographs and a unique collaboration between Russian and non Russian writers The city's architectural splendor and present day life is superbly captured by Yury Molodkovets official photographer of the State Hermitage Museum Contributions by eight leading writers on Russian history and society including acclaimed historian Orlando Figes and Russia's most famous poet Alexander Kushner offer new insights into the city's past and present This is a superb portrait of one of the world's most beautiful cities Growth Poles of the Global Economy: Emergence, Changes and Future Perspectives Elena G. Popkova, 2019-08-03 The book presents the best contributions from the international scientific conference Growth Poles of the Global Economy Emergence Changes and Future which was organized by the Institute of Scientific Communications Volgograd Russia together with the universities of Kyrgyzstan and various other cities in Russia The 143 papers selected focus on spatial and sectorial structures of the modern global economy according to the theory of growth poles It is intended for representatives of the academic community university and college staff developing study guides on socio humanitarian disciplines in connection with the theory of growth poles researchers and undergraduates masters and postgraduates who are interested in the recent inventions and developments in the field It is also a valuable resource for expert practitioners managing entrepreneurial structures in the existing and prospective growth poles of the global economy as well as those at international institutes that regulate growth poles The first part of the book investigates the factors and conditions affecting the emergence of the growth poles of the modern global economy The second part then discusses transformation processes in the traditional growth poles of the global economy under the influence of the technological progress The third part examines how social factors affect the formation of new growth poles of the modern global economy Lastly the fourth part offers perspectives on the future growth of the global economy on the basis of the digital economy and Industry 4.0 New Perspectives in Modern Russian History Robert B Mcklean, 1992-10-13 Containing a selection of papers from the Congress for Soviet and East European Studies this book deals with the crisis of the ancien regime in the 1890s and 1990s The essays in this volume are accordingly devoted mainly to the history of tsarist Russia between 1881 and 1917 St. Petersburg Bradley Woodworth, Constance Richards, Harold Bloom, 2005 Often called the Venice of the north St Petersburg has remained the crown jewel of the Russian artistic scene Writers covered include Fyodor Dostoevsky Nikolai Gogol and Aleksandr Pushkin Views of Russia & Russian Works on Paper, Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives, Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study Pille Valk, Gerdien Bertram-Troost, Markus Friederici, Céline Béraud, 2009 Religion is on the European agenda again The secularisation paradigm has lost its explanatory power and the newly coined term post secularism is used to describe the realisation that in the current social transformation religion cannot be ignored any longer The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project REDCo is the abbreviation for Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries England Estonia France Germany The Netherlands Norway Russia and Spain The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education religious education sociology political science anthropology psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14 16 year age group in Europe see the ir relevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole The young respondents of the quantitative study are clearly aware that the diversity of religious and non religious worldviews is the reality of the European contexts they have to manage within Most of them are convinced that religion must be addressed in schools as it is too important as factor in social life and for the coexistence of people from different cultural and religious backgrounds throughout Europe to be ignored

New Perspectives On Russian And Soviet Artistic Culture John O. Norman,1994-01-07 Global Perspectives in Modern Italian Culture Guido Abbattista,2021-09-22 Global Perspectives in Modern Italian Culture presents a series of unexplored case studies from the sixteenth to the twentieth century each demonstrating how travellers scientists Catholic missionaries scholars and diplomats coming from the Italian peninsula contributed to understandings of various global issues during the age of early globalization It also examines how these individuals represented different parts of the world to an Italian audience and how deeply Italian culture drew inspiration from the increasing knowledge of world Otherness The first part of the book focuses on the production of knowledge drawing on texts written by philosophers scientists historians and numerous other first hand eyewitnesses The second part analyses the dissemination and popularization of knowledge by focussing on previously understudied published works and initiatives aimed at learned Italian readers and the general public Written in a lively and engaging manner this book will appeal to scholars and students of early modern and modern European history as well as those interested in global history Masken & Fassaden Olaf Martens,2003
