Police Supervisory Practice:

Police Supervisory Practice William J. Osterloh, 1975-01-01 A training manual written in informal factual style that is devoted to the attainment of proficiency for supervisors in a police or sheriff's department. The tenets of leadership, communication, morale, motivation, and decision making are all presented. The author strives to make his topics and approaches seem relevant to modern day police conditions and operations. Each chapter includes summaries using a set of single sentences which recapitulate the principal points that have been made. They in turn are categorized under simple headings in bold type. Police Supervision Paul M. Whisenand, 1976 Effective Police Supervision Larry S. Miller, Harry W. Miller, Michael C. Combining behavioral theory and updated case studies, this core text now in its eighth edition is a vital tool for all college students pursuing criminal justice courses on supervisory practices as well as police officers preparing for promotional exams. Effective Police Supervision Study Guide Chris Rush, Burkey, Larry S. Miller, Michael C. Braswell, 2021-02-25 Good police officers are often promoted to supervisory positions with little or none of the training it takes to be a good manager. An understanding of group behaviors and organizational dynamics is necessary to grasp the fundamentals of managing police officers. The Effective Police Supervision Study Guide coordinates with the core text used in many college level classes and police departments to teach supervisory practices in criminal justice. This study guide prepares both students and professionals for academic or promotional exams, offering them an opportunity to fully review the material so that they are well prepared for testing. This new edition, like the new edition of the textbook it accompanies, includes information on the following topics: police accountability, police involvement with news media, the challenges of dealing with social media, updates on legal considerations, and ways to respond to current issues facing law enforcement with COVID 19 and managing protests. Effective Police Supervision Study Guide Chris Rush, Burkey, Larry S.
