Television in Society Arthur Asa Berger, 2017-09-29 Is television a cultural wasteland or a medium that has brought people more great art music dance and drama than any previous media How do we study and interpret television What are the effects of television on individuals and society and how do we measure them What is the role of television in our political and economic life Television in Society explores these issues in considering how television both reflects and affects society The book is divided into two sections The first focuses on programming and deals with commercials ceremonial events important series such as MASH and Lou Grant significant programs a production of Brave New World on television and the images of police on the medium The second part of the book deals with important issues and topics related to the medium the impact of television violence values found on television the impact of television on education the significance of new technological developments and the always thorny issue of freedom of the press The articles are drawn together by a brilliant introductory essay by Arthur Asa Berger who examines television as culture

Cop Shows Roger Sabin, Ronald Wilson, Linda Speidel, 2015-03-23 From cops who are paragons of virtue to cops who are as bad as the bad guys from surly loners to upbeat partners from detectives who pursue painstaking investigation to loose cannons who just want to kick down the door the heroes and anti heroes of TV police dramas are part of who we are They enter our living rooms and tell us tall tales about the social contract that exists between the citizen and the police Love them or loathe them according to the ratings we love them they serve a function They've entertained informed and sometimes infuriated audiences for more than 60 years This book examines Dragnet Highway Patrol Naked City The Untouchables The F B I Columbo Hawaii Five O Kojak Starsky Hutch Hill Street Blues Cagney Lacey Miami Vice Law Order Homicide Life on the Street NYPD Blue CSI The Shield The Wire and Justified It's time to take another look at the perps the vics and the boys and girls in blue and ask how their representation intersects with questions of class gender sexuality and race What is their socio cultural agenda What is their relation to genre and televisuality And why is it that when a TV cop gives a witness his card and says call me that witness always ends up on a slab
