Policing South Africa The Sap And The Transition From Apartheid:

Policing and Human Rights Julia Hornberger, 2011-10-21 Policing and Human Rights analyses the implementation of human rights standards tracing them from the nodal points of their production in Geneva through the board rooms of national police management and training facilities to the streets of downtown Johannesburg This book deals with how the unprecedented influence of human rights combined with the inability by police officers to live up to international standards has created a range of policing and human rights vernaculars hybrid discourses that have appropriated transmogrified and undercut human rights Understood as an attempt by police officers as much as by the police as a whole to recover a position from which to act and to judge these vernaculars reveal the compromised ways in which human rights are and are not implemented Tracing how in South Africa human rights have given rise to new forms of popular justice informal private policing and provisional security arrangements Policing and Human Rights delivers an important analysis of how the dissemination and implementation of human rights intersects with the post colonial and post transformation circumstances that characterise many countries in the South

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerma, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Security Sector Reform in Constitutional Transitions Zoltan Barany, Sumit Bisarya, Sujit Choudhry, Richard Stacey, 2019-09-19 Security sector reform SSR is central to the democratic transitions currently unfolding across the globe as a diverse range of countries grapple with how to transform militias tribal forces and dominant military police and intelligence agencies into democratically controlled and accountable security services SSR will be a key element in shifts from authoritarian to democratic rule for the foreseeable future since abuse of the security sector is a central technique of autocratic government This edited collection advances solutions through a selection of case studies from around the world that cover a wide range of contexts

Police Abuse in Contemporary Democracies Michelle D. Bonner,Guillermina Seri,Mary Rose Kubal,Michael Kempa,2018-03-28 This volume offers a much needed analysis of police abuse and its implications for our understanding of democracy Sometimes referred to as police violence or police repression police abuse occurs in all democracies It is not an exception or a stage of democratization It is this volume argues a structural and conceptual dimension of extant democracies The book draws our attention to how including the study of policing into our analyses strengthens our understanding of democracy including the persistence of hybrid democracy and the decline of democracy To this end the book examines three key dimensions of democracy citizenship accountability and socioeconomic in equality Drawing from political theory comparative politics and political economy the book explores cases from France the US India Argentina Chile South Africa Brazil and Canada and reveals how integrating police abuse can contribute to a more robust study of democracy and government in general

Policing South Africa Gavin Cawthra,1993 Defensive Restructuring of the Armed Forces in Southern Africa Bjørn Møller,Gavin Cawthra,2019-01-15 Published in 1997 the work explores the reorientation of security policies and the accompanying restructuring of the armed forces going on in Southern Africa under entirely new circumstances Democracy has come to South Africa the civil wars in Angola and Mozambique have ended and the region is establishing a regional framework for cooperation While covering the entire region a special focus is placed on South Africa which is predestined to play a leading role but which is struggling with the legacy of the apartheid regime and its repeated aggressions against neighbouring states A defensive restructuring of the South African of the South African military is an element in the building of mutual trust The implications of such defensive restructuring to a non offensive defence are described in detail In addition to the analytical contribution the work also contains central documents and a bibliography

Violence and Non-Violence in Africa Pal Ahluwalia,Louise Bethlehem,Ruth Ginio,2007-03-12 This unique volume seeks both to historicize and to deconstruct the pervasive almost ritualistic association of Africa with forms of terrorism as well as extreme violence the latter bordering on and including genocide Africa is tendentiously associated with violence in the popular and academic imagination alike Written by leading authorities in postcolonial studies and African history as well as highly promising emergent scholars this book highlights political social and cultural processes in Africa which incite violence or which facilitate its negotiation or negation through non violent social practice The chapters cover diverse historical periods ranging from fourteenth century Ethiopia and early twentieth century Cameroon to contemporary analyses set in Kenya Tanzania Nigeria Cameroon the Ivory Coast and South Africa It makes a crucial contribution to a revitalized understanding of the social and historical coordinates of violence or its absence in African settings Violence and Non Violence in Africa will be of interest to students and scholars of African history and anthropology colonialism and post colonialism political science and Africanist cultural studies

Protection of Children During Armed Political Conflict Charles W. Greenbaum, Philip E. Veerman, Naomi

Bacon-Shnoor, 2006 This volume attempts to examine the issue of prevention of violence to children in violent political conflicts from a multidisciplinary perspective that includes international law developmental psychology education communications and police science While this volume concentrates mainly on the Israeli Palestinian conflict it also presents the experience of others in different parts of the world who have coped successfully with prevention of violence to civilian populations and particularly to children The editors aim to engage military and police communities world wide and especially in our society Israel in a dialogue concerning the most effective ways to abide by international conventions of human rights and childrens rights to which Israeli society is committed The volume reports on practical methods to save the lives of civilians and children in political conflicts that have been tried and which serve to protect children

Sex and Nation in Transatlantic Literatures Agata Szczeszak-Brewer, 2025-06-12 Nationalist and tribal cohesion in Ireland South Africa the US and elsewhere often relies on an absence of female and gender nonconforming bodies in the public life Staging a vital counter narrative to global nationalist discourses this book explores how 20th and 21st century postcolonial literatures criticize hetero normative definitions of nationhood across different geopolitical and cultural contexts Szczeszak Brewer delves into the metaphorical currency of male impotence and sexual aggression in nationalist narratives She examines the place of gender nonconforming characters in literature from Ireland the US Poland France Britain South Africa and Senegal in the work of writers including James Joyce Witold Gombrowicz Jean Toomer Bessie Head Zo Wicomb J M Coetzee Andrea Levy Patrick McCabe and David Diop Aligning queer and gender perspectives with discussions of white supremacy this book examines the urgency for contemporary geopolitics to imagine new discourses of community against the backdrop of a rise in neo nationalisms steeped in homophobic and misogynistic rhetoric

Internal Security Services in Liberalizing States Joseph L. Derdzinski, 2009 Among the states that have moved from authoritarianism in the past 15 years most have not moved beyond the mere procedures of democracy This excellent scholarly resource provides a comparative account of the internal security situations of Morocco and Indonesia and focuses on democracy and its non democratic institutions in an era of stalled liberalization
