Policing The National Body Race Gender And Criminalization:

Policing the National Body Jael Silliman, Jael Miriam Silliman, Anannya Bhattacharjee, 2002 This anthology explores the ways in which women of color are monitored criminalized and regulated Nine Degrees of Justice Bishakha Datta, 2012-12-31 From an early focus on rape dowry and sati feminist struggles against violence on women in India have traversed a wide terrain to include issues that were invisible in the 1980s In Nine Degrees of Justice second and third generation feminists share their perspectives on violence against women through a series of thought provoking essays Published by Zubaan Race, Class, and Gender in the United States Paula S. Rothenberg, 2004 Race Class and Gender in the United States An Integrated Study presents students with a compelling clear study of issues of race gender and sexuality within the context of class Rothenberg offers students 126 readings each providing different perspectives and examining the ways in which race gender class and sexuality are socially constructed Rothenberg deftly and consistently helps students analyze each phenomena as well as the relationships among them thereby deepening their understanding of each issue surrounding race and ethnicity From Black Power to Hip Hop Patricia Hill Collins, 2006-01-19 A provocative analysis of the new contours of black nationalism and feminism in America Right to Be Hostile Erica R. Meiners, 2010-11 Offers examples and insights into the school to prison pipeline phenomenon showing how disciplinary regulations pedagogy pop culture and more not only implicitly advance but actually normalize an expectation of incarceration for urban youth

Philosophy in Multiple Voices George Yancy, 2007-08-05 Philosophy in Multiple Voices invites transactional dialogue critical imagination and the desire to travel to enter those discursive spaces where the love of wisdom gets inflected through both lived embodiment and situational history The text raises significant meta philosophical questions around the issue of who constitutes the philosophical we through a delineation and valorization of multiple philosophical voices African American Afro Caribbean Asian American Feminist Latin American Lesbian Native American and Queer that set forth complex concerns around canon formation the relationship between philosophical discursive configurations and issues of gendered sexed racial and ethnic identities the dynamic of shifting philosophical historical trajectories differential philosophical visions sensibilities and philosophical praxes that are still largely underrepresented within the institutional confines of mainstream philosophy The text encourages philosophical heterogeneity as a value that ought to be nurtured Going Stealth Toby Beauchamp, 2019-01-17 In Going Stealth Toby Beauchamp demonstrates how the enforcement of gender conformity is linked to state surveillance practices that identify threats based on racial gender national and ableist categories of difference Positioning surveillance as central to our understanding of transgender politics Beauchamp examines a range of issues from bathroom bills and TSA screening practices to Chelsea Manning's trial to show how security practices extend into the everyday aspects of our gendered lives He brings the fields of disability science and technology and surveillance studies into conversation with transgender studies to show how the scrutinizing of gender nonconformity is motivated less by explicit transgender identities than by the perceived threat that gender nonconformity poses to the U S racial and security state Beauchamp uses instances of gender surveillance to demonstrate how disciplinary power attempts to produce conformist citizens and regulate difference through discourses of security At the same time he contends that greater visibility and recognition for gender nonconformity while sometimes beneficial might actually enable the surveillance state to more effectively track measure and control trans bodies and identities Pedagogies of Crossing M. Jacqui Alexander, 2006-01-18 A collection of essays by Alexander addressing the implications of transnational thinking for our understanding of gender sex sexuality and race The Contemporary African American Novel E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2012-07-20 This book examines how African American novels explore instances of racialization that are generated through discursive practices of whiteness in the interracial social encounters of everyday life African American fictional representations of the city have political significance Branded Bodies, Rhetoric, and the Neoliberal Nation-State Jennifer Wingard, 2013 Branded Bodies Rhetoric and the Neoliberal Nation State by Dr Jennifer Wingard explores how neoliberal economics has affected the rhetoric of the media and politics and how in very direct material ways it harms the bodies of some of the United States most vulnerable occupants The book is written at a moment when the promise of the liberal nation state in which the government purports to care for its citizens through social welfare programs financed by state funds is eroding Currently state policies are defined by neoliberal governmentality a form which privileges privatization and individual personal responsibility Instead of the promise of citizenship and the protections that come with it or the American Dream to use a more common euphemism the state uses certain bodies that will never be accepted as citizens as an underclass in service of capital think Guest Worker Programs And those underclassed bodies are identified through branding In order to demonstrate just how damaging branding has become Wingard offers readings of key pieces of legislation on immigration and GLBT rights and their media reception from the past twenty years By showing how brands are assembled to create affective threats Branded Bodies Rhetoric and the Neoliberal Nation State articulates how dangerous the branding of bodies has become and offers rhetorical strategies that can repair the damage to bodies caused by political branding Branded Bodies then is an intervention into the rhetorical practices of the nation state It attempts to clarify how the nation state uses brands to forward its claims of equality and freedom all the while condemning those who do not fit in to particular categories valued by the neoliberal state
