understood The starting point of this work is to ask why these goals have been focussed upon and differentially over time how they have been constructed to appeal to the population and insofar as this can be assessed how far the population has accepted these narratives The first half of the book analyses the development of the major narratives from the 1940s onwards addressing the notion of austerity and its particular meaning in the 1940s the rise of a narrative of economic decline from the late 1950s and the subsequent attempts to modernize the economy the attempts to roll back the state from the 1970s the impact of ideas of globalization in the 1990s and finally the way the crisis of 2008 9 onwards was constructed as a problem of debts and deficits The second part of the book focuses on four key issues in attempts to manage the people productivity the balance of payments inflation and unemployment It shows how in each case governments sought to get the populace to understand these issues in a particular light and shaped strategies to that end
