

Reflections on the Construction of Political Consciousness of College Students in the New Era

In 2016, the CPC Central Committee put forward for the first time in the whole party to enhance political awareness, overall situation awareness, core awareness, and alignment awareness. In the "Four Consciousness", political consciousness ranks first and is always at the core of the political field. Party members of college students are the hope of China's future. Party organizations in colleges and universities should fully realize the importance of enhancing the political awareness of party members of college students, and strive to strengthen the ideals and beliefs of party members of college students, so that they will eventually become an important part of building socialist modernization and realizing the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. strength.

1. The necessity of enhancing the political awareness of college students

"Political awareness refers to political beliefs, political positions, political attitudes based on political cognition and preferences (value judgments), as well as political behavior patterns dominated by political beliefs, positions and attitudes." Enhancing the political awareness of college students' party member It is of great significance to inherit and carry forward the political culture within the party, to implement the requirements of comprehensively and strictly governing the party, and to realize the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation.

1. Enhancing the political awareness of college students' party members is an inevitable requirement for the implementation of comprehensive and strict governance of the party

Comprehensively and strictly governing the party is one of the important contents of enhancing political awareness. Since the 18th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, General Secretary Xi Jinping has repeatedly emphasized in a series of important expositions that comprehensively and strictly governing the party is a major measure that affects the life and death of the party. "The people hate corruption the most, and corruption is the biggest threat to our party. " Therefore, we must punish corruption with a zero-tolerance attitude, continue to maintain a high-pressure situation of punishing corruption, resolutely curb corruption at the source, adhere to the close combination of ideological party building and

Student Politics and Voting Behaviour Surendra Kumar Pattnaik, 1982 Public Opinion and the Political Future of the Nation's Capital Edward M. Meyers, 1996-06-01 Despite widespread agreement that the District of Columbia's political system has collapsed there is a serious lack of thoughtful proposals addressing the political future of the nation's capital In this book Edward M Meyers examines the opinions of average Americans about Washington D C in order to understand how many Americans are likely to approach the question of what reforms are needed Meyers first explores the political economic and social conditions of the District providing an informed context for understanding and evaluating its political options Presenting the results of in depth qualitative research with focus groups held across the country Meyers reveals that regardless of the participants knowledge about the District their beliefs in six basic concepts or schemata such as respect for democratic rights attitudes about race and aversion to an intrusive federal government molded their opinions about various options for District self governance The book concludes with insights into the District by local and national political leaders including OMB Director Alice Rivlin Jesse Jackson Representatives Eleanor Holmes Norton Thomas Davis and James Walsh and Marion Barry

A Study of Student Youth in Modern India (A Case of Degree College Students) Dr. Satish Kumar G, Education For Unorganised Sector G.I. Reddy, 1992 Learning to Lead Jennifer R. Nájera, 2024-09-06 In Learning to Lead Jennifer R N jera explores the intersections of education and activism among undocumented students at the University of California Riverside Taking an expansive view of education N jera shows how students experiences in college both in and out of the classroom can affect their activism and advocacy work Students learn from their families communities peers and student and political organizations In these different spaces they learn how to navigate community and college life as undocumented people Students are able to engage campus organizations where they can cultivate their leadership skills and importantly learn that they are not alone These students embody and mobilize their education through both large and small political actions such as protests workshops for financial aid applications and Know Your Rights events As students create community with each other they come to understand that their individual experiences of illegality are part of a larger structure of legal violence This type of education empowers students to make their way to and through college change their communities and ultimately assert their humanity

Student Resistance to Apartheid at the University of Fort Hare Rico Devara Chapman, 2016-05-12 The book explores forms of popular student resistance to apartheid education in South Africa particularly at the University of Fort Hare UFH by tracing student activism at UFH from 1970 to 2000 highlighting the factors that influenced the development of a culture of student resistance investigating the root causes that made Fort Hare exceptional in its stand against apartheid and chronicling the educational and social implications that resulted from students unparalleled and fearless actions against the apartheid system Student resistance at Fort Hare can be traced as far back as the 1940s however this book will primarily focus on the critical 1970 2000 period which was marked by increased student activism in South Africa The 1980s and 1990s were peak years for student activism in the country There is no doubt that student struggles during this period and thereafter helped dismantle apartheid and usher in a new South African government
