Political Economy Of East German Privatization:

The Political Economy of East German Privatization Phyllis Dininio, 1999-06-30 Shows how the political economy of east German privatization was to work in theory as well as how it actually unfolded

Survival Strategies of East German Companies in a Competitive Market after Reunification Ilka Wiedemann, 2006-06-16 Inhaltsangabe Introduction The speed with which the Berlin Wall fell on the 9 November 1989 was both surprising and inspiring No longer would the people of East Germany be held captive under a repressive regime that deprived them not only of western commodities but of the most fundamental of human needs the freedom to thrive On 18 May 1990 politicians from the East and West signed a treaty creating an economic and social union This was followed by the Treaty of Unification on 31 August 1990 The dream of one Germany had become a reality It was now up to the German people to build a unified economy a task that posed difficult questions most importantly what to do with the state owned businesses that comprised the former GDR German Democratic Republic The former states of the GDR contain some of the highest growth regions in Europe Despite this there is social instability and high unemployment As of October 2003 the unemployment rate in East Germany was 17.3% compared with 8.0% for the West and 8.1% for the European Union While there is a necessity to improve the situation for all of Germany many hurdles remain In the case of unified Germany Deutschland einzig Vaterland is more than a slogan of unity it is a statement for economic survival The aim of this thesis will be to explore the following questions How did three East German companies the Rotk ppchen sparkling wine company the Florena cosmetics company and the Fit detergent company survive and even thrive after reunification How did the Treuhand Anstalt THA or Trust Agency help these companies and what affect has this had on the German economy What were some peripheral reasons for economic survival including government incentives global economic expansion during the 1990s and ostalgia What were some East German companies that did not survive and why did they fail when others succeeded How could these survival strategies be applied to other companies in other nations and what are the lessons for the future In answering these questions it will be necessary to explore the history not only of the three companies Rotk ppchen Florena and Fit but also of the East German market Due to the complexity of this topic however this thesis will remain focused on three main survival strategies These will include how finding a niche market using mergers and acquisitions and using company and product diversification have helped companies

Handbook of the Economics and Political Economy of Transition Paul Hare, Gerard Turley, 2013-05-02 Transition from central planning to a market economy involving large scale institutional change and reforms at all levels is often described as the greatest social science experiment in modern times As more than two decades have passed since the fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of the Soviet Union it is now an excellent time to take stock of how the transition process has turned out for the economies that have moved on from socialism and the command economy This new handbook assembles a team of leading experts many of whom were closely involved in the transition process as policymakers and policy advisors to explore the major themes that have characterized the transition process After identifying the nature of initial conditions and the strengths and weaknesses of institutions the varying paths and reforms countries have taken are fully analyzed from the shock therapy privatization or gradualism of the early years to the burning issues of the present including global integration and sustainable growth Topics covered include the socialist system pre transition economic reforms institutions the political economy of transition performance and growth enterprise restructuring and people and transition The country coverage is also extensive from the former socialist countries of the USSR and the satellite states of Central and Eastern Europe to the Asian countries of China Vietnam and others The rise of China as a key actor in the drama is chronicled along with the emergence of a new more confident oil rich Russia The comparative prosperity of the Central European countries such as Poland and the Czech Republic is contrasted with the mixed fortunes of the former USSR where some countries are stagnating while others boom This Handbook of the Economics and Political Economy of Transition is the definitive guide to this new order of things in the former Communist world

The Political Economy of Privatization and Deregulation Elizabeth E. Bailey, Janet Rothenberg Pack, 1995 The collection of articles in this volume reflect the vigorous implementation of privatization in Europe and deregulation in the United States over the last 25 years The evolutions of the movements is discussed both intellectually and politically

The Political Economy of Regionalism Michael Keating, John Loughlin, 2013-07-04 Examining the effects of economic and political restructuring on regions in Europe and North America the main themes here are international economic restructuring political realignments questions of territorial identity and policy choices and policy conflicts in regional development

The Treuhandanstalt and Privatisation in the Former East Germany Jutta E. Howard, 2018-12-20 This title was first published in 2001 This study explores the operation of the Treuhandanstalt the trust agency responsible for implementing the massive privatization programme launched in the former East Germany in 1990 It evaluates the level of satisfaction that stakeholder groups typically felt with regard to the agency its actions and its achievements

Recasting East Germany Chris Flockton, Eva Kolinsky, 2012-11-12 The transformation of east Germany since unification has wrought vast changes in the economy and in society and left deep scars as the types of social protection offered by the centralised socialism of the previous regime gave way to uncertainties and individualised life chances Social Transformation in Eastern Germany investigates the deep economic and social processes which east Germany has undergone highlighting the restructuring the social impacts and the stresses of adjustment experienced by key social groups whose workplace and social context has been recast almost out of recognition since 1990

Between State Capitalism and Globalisation Gareth Dale, 2004 This book is an exploration of the economic history of the German Democratic Republic with an emphasis upon its confrontation by and contribution towards economic and military competition on the world stage Beginning with an analysis of the Soviet bloc as a state capitalist formation the GDR's economic history is charted with detailed examinations of the challenges to Soviet style autarky that were posed by the globalising world market as well as of

GDR policymakers attempts to use Western imports and credits as a whip to spur growth The book s central section consists of an exploration of the ambivalent attitudes of East German policymakers and industrialists towards their West German counterparts in the 1980s as the whip was transformed into an ever tightening noose of debt Here a prodigious range of secondary sources as well as hitherto unpublished documents from the archives of the old regime are drawn upon to document the means by which relative economic decline and dependency upon Western institutions came to constrain the options available to the East German nomenklatura Finally this study analyses the political economy of the 1989 revolution and unification and of post unification Eastern Germany The Politics of International Political Economy Vassilis
