Political Economy Of Regionalism The Case Of Southern Africa:

The Political Economy of Regionalism F. Söderbaum, 2004-10-29 The Political Economy of Regionalism The Case of Southern Africa challenges prevailing wisdom showing how ruling political elites and big business join forces with certain external actors in order to promote market integration and economic globalization boost regimes and to satisfy group specific and even personal interests Only rarely do these forms of regionalism contribute to the poor and disadvantaged who instead opt out and survive through informal economic regionalisms or seek to create regionalisms rooted in civil society

Political Economy Of The Brics Countries, The (In 3 Volumes) , 2020-03-03 Over the past 20 years social scientists government officials and investors have expressed mounting interest in the BRICS countries which include Brazil Russia India China and South Africa These countries are widely viewed as both key actors in the global economy and important regional powers The Political Economy of the BRICS Countries is a three volume set that aims to address various crucial issues regarding these countries Volume 1 analyzes whether economic growth in the BRICS countries has been broad based and promoted equitable economic and social outcomes The authors examine specific dimensions of growth in these five economies that constrain their ability to act effectively and cohesively in international affairs Volume 2 considers how the BRICS have affected global economic governance and the international political economy Volume 3 provides various approaches to economic informality in the BRICS Moreover the chapters deal with several connections between informality and important political economic and institutional phenomena such as economic globalization and international aid economic development political regimes social capital political networks and political participation labor market rules and social policy preferences The BRICS countries have attracted rising attention over the past two decades The volumes provide an in depth analysis of various key issues regarding these countries and chart a course for future research Handbook of the Development in Africa Kobena T. Hanson, 2016-03-09 Contemporary Regional Development in Africa interrogates well known concerns in the areas of regionalism and economic integration in contemporary Africa while offering an added uniqueness by highlighting the capacity imperatives of the issues and proposing critical policy guideposts The volume juxtaposes a set of dynamic entanglements new and micro regionalism informal cross border trade intra African and African FDI plus cross border investments infrastructure development science and technology regional value chains conflict management and regional security with fluid interpretations of regional development The chapters provide snapshots of the several emerging and complex regionalisms and highlight a set of relevant and often overlapping analyses drawing on authors nuanced and granular understanding of the African landscape The varied yet interlinked nature of issues covered in this study make the book valuable and attractive to academics researchers policymakers and development practitioners

Global Political Economy John Ravenhill, 2014 Dealing with the central themes and issues of the subject this text outlines the different theoretical approaches of the global political economy as well as engaging key contemporary debates such as worldwide trade and production

Accelerating Africa'S Integration Through Micro-Regionalism: The Case of Zambia-Malawi-Mozambique Growth Triangle and Its Impact Kojo B. Asiedu, Olubanke King-Akerele, 2015-06-10 This book is about accelerating Africa's integration through the application of the growth triangle concept Filled with rich experiences backed by research this book is also a powerful account of how African countries border areas many of which largely marginalized and clash points of conflicts can be transformed into vibrant socio economic security zones through local regional development efforts This book equally creates a necessary kind of working environment where micro regionalism is given a significant role to play in addressing some of the protracted challenges associated with our continents larger groupings A valuable piece of work and absolutely required reading for all of us politicians academics private sector development practitioners NGOS

Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26 This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities The book is divided into four parts Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union

Authoritarian Regionalism in the World of International Organizations Anastassia V. Obydenkova, Alexander Libman, 2019 This volume examines the subject of authoritarian regionalism and is the first to systematically investigate the functioning and the impact of authoritarian regionalism as a new phenomenon as well as its implications for democratization world wide

Interregionalism across the Atlantic Space Frank Mattheis,Andréas Litsegård,2017-09-26 This book focuses on interregional relations across the Atlantic and the possible evolution of a new distinctive Atlantic space for international relations It provides a comprehensive insight into the overlapping linkages of interregionalism in the wider Atlantic space Additionally it raises the question of relevance currently the main question in this field of research Is interregionalism important because it brings about something new that really matters or is it simply a perhaps unavoidable by product of regionalism The book conducts an analysis of six interregional relations criss crossing the Atlantic space accounting for the multitude of interregional connections within a potential Atlantic macro region and analysing the differences conflicts and convergences between regional organizations It engages with the issue of agency in interregional relations and argues that interregional processes and agendas are always driven and constructed by certain actors for certain purposes

Regionalism and Uneven Development in Southern Africa Fredrik Söderbaum,Ian Taylor,2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2003 This volume advances our understanding of how Southern Africa is currently being reconfigured critically examining what has been marketed as the flagship of the Spatial Development Initiative programme in Southern Africa the Maputo Development Corridor MDC By examining a variety of cross cutting levels of governance and development and by focusing on the nexus between the formal and informal processes that stake out the MDC this volume contributes to a detailed understanding of what is perhaps the most important current experiment in regionalism in Africa By engaging regional processes on the micro level and on the ground there is a special emphasis on how local communities regard and respond to the Corridor initiative All chapters in the volume are the result of extensive fieldwork in both Mozambique and South Africa and the contributions are drawn from the region and beyond including Botswana Mozambique Zimbabwe South Africa Sweden and the United States
