Political Leadership In Sierra Leone:

Political Leadership in Sierra Leone John R. Cartwright, Political Leadership in Sierra Leone John R. Cartwright, 1978-12-15 In an age when men have come to believe that their destinies can be determined by human actions rather than by fate the question looms large of what a leader can do to fulfill the aspirations of those looking for guidance Since the political arena is one involving the use of power the position of the political leader in particular has become the focus for men's hopes and fears This book is a case study of the effect that different forms of political leadership can have upon the shaping of a single state It focuses upon two successive Prime Ministers of the Small West African state of Sierra Leone Sir Milton Margai and his younger brother Sir Albert Margai By examining their dealings with local political units their handling of ethnic and regional conflicts their attitude of change and their relations with major economic forces the author assesses why both leaders had such different measures of success with their divergent political policies The major findings of this study are that the method that a leader chooses to accomplish his goals can be important to their realisation as the choice of goals themselves and that a leader may find himself committed to a particular course through simply pursuing a line of least resistance Political Leadership in Sierra Leone John R. Cartwright, 1978-12 This book is a case study of the effect that different forms of political leadership can have upon the shaping of a single state It focuses upon two successive Prime Ministers of the Small West African state of Sierra Leone Muslim Fula Business Elites and Politics in Sierra Leone Alusine Jalloh, 2018 The first comprehensive book on the participation of Muslim Fula business elites in the post independence politics of Sierra Leone Political Leadership in Africa Giovanni Carbone, Alessandro Pellegata, 2020-03-19 An innovative analysis of political leadership in Africa between 1960 and 2018 drawing on an entirely new dataset A New Perspective on Governance, Leadership, Conflict and Nation Building in Sierra Leone Solomon E. Berewa, 2011 Sierra Leone is in her final phase of a Post civil War rebuilding after twelve years of what has been dubbed one of the most devastating civil conflicts in Modern African History Since the advent and end of the conflict a lot has been written in the forms of documentaries reportages commentaries satires and academic textbooks by journalists academics politicians former heads of state and political analysts However this book A New Perspective On Governance Leadership Conflict and Nation Building in Sierra Leone is different It presents a new outlook in the sense that it is incisive analytical honest educative and thought provoking at the same time The key message that runs through the veins of the theme is state renewal informed by new thinking spectacles that efficiently configure the manner in which the management of state leadership and governance is articulated for the benefits of the common good The author Solomon E Berewa was one of the key actors Chief Government Negotiator and stakeholder of the peace deals in his capacity as Minister of Justice and Attorney General and Vice President of the Republic of Sierra Leone He has written this masterpiece authoritatively by throwing fresh lights on the serious political issues and questions which have blurred the significance of the past and the present Like any sincere agent of nation building after a traumatic experience such as the one Sierra Leone went through the rationale of the author is to build bridges across the board political spectrums In his estimation it is only by looking into the past with open mind and sincerity learn tangible lessons and act on them meticulously that nations can be in position to surmount current challenges for the good and durability of a better tomorrow Post war Sierra Leone needs to have faith in this philosophy and crown it as the cornerstone in this crucial period of political and socio economic renewal Readings in African Politics Tom Young,2003

Table of contents Peace and Conflict Resolution in Africa Ernest E. Uwazie,2019-01-15 This publication is the product of the 25th Annual Africa and Diaspora Conference in 2016 organized by the Center for African Peace and Conflict Resolution at California State University Sacramento on the theme of Peace and Conflict Resolution in Africa 25 Years Later Lessons Best Practices and Opportunities It brings together reflections on both historical and contemporary or recurring conflicts in Africa especially on issues of ethno religious conflicts corruption land and leadership The chapters include case studies and some theoretical perspectives on the persistent search for the right size and scope of visioning and programming on peace and conflict resolution in Africa Understandably this collection of ideas thoughts and proposals will resonate with the field of Peace and Conflict Studies Arguably Africa is rising in the 21st century with declining violent conflicts and an increase in stable democracies and economies However there are still the significant challenges of extremism climate change poor governance ineffective leadership widening wealth gaps and weak institutions of moderation The essays collected here also document areas of progress in legitimizing democracy and conceptualizing social justice and suggest the need for building the next generation of peace leaders in Africa Human Security and Sierra Leone's Post-Conflict Development

Francis Wiafe-Amoako,2014-07-22 Achieving security and development in the post conflict era is a challenge with which stakeholders have to grapple While stakeholders are quick to claim success when physical hostilities cease between the belligerents ensuring sustainable peace has been a daunting task In some countries in Africa the post conflict era is characterized by organizing elections to ensure greater political participation It is believed that elections will begin a process of openness and trust in the governing system A supplement to electoral democracy has been power sharing arrangements used to resolve post election violence and ensure stability within the state However what underlie most conflicts in Africa is the marginalization and lack of an enabling environment to achieve individual life objectives Policies and strategies to achieve security and enhance development post conflict have at best been an extremely slow process and sometimes elusive In Sierra Leone for instance though the official declaration of the end of war and the successful general elections held in 2002 2007 and 2012 have led to some domestic stability developmental targets in the post conflict era have proceeded at a snail s pace The country continues to rank at the bottom of most UNDP human development indicators since 2002 Human Security and Sierra Leone s Post Conflict Development analyzes the extent to which human security issues have been addressed and subsequently implemented in the post conflict reconstruction process While Sierra Leone has made tremendous efforts at implementing reforms in the areas of political sensitization promotion of civil rights and civil liberties as well as personal security the lack on the part of the government to effectively address the unemployment problem has negatively affected security and developmental targets Thus the post conflict management strategies in Sierra Leone fail to secure and promote some aspects of human security leading to fragile peace and slow progress in achieving sustainable security and development Human security is an all encompassing phenomenon and must be addressed to achieve overall wellbeing of the people especially in post conflict environments

Ruling Emancipated Slaves and Indigenous Subjects

Olukunle P. Owolabi, 2023 An examination of the divergent developmental legacies of forced settlement and colonial occupation on both sides of the Black Atlantic world The European powers that colonized much of the world over the last few hundred years created a variety of social systems in their various colonies In Ruling Emancipated Slaves and Indigenous Subjects Olukunle P Owolabi explores the divergent developmental trajectories of Global South nations that were shaped by forced settlement where European colonists imported African slaves to establish large scale agricultural plantations or by colonial occupation which resulted in the exploitation of indigenous non white populations Owolabi shows that most forced settlement colonies emerged from European domination with higher levels of education attainment greater postcolonial democratization and favorable human development outcomes relative to Global South countries that emerged from colonial occupation after 1945 To explain this paradox he examines the distinctive legal administrative institutions that were used to control indigenous colonial subjects and highlights the impact of liberal reforms that expanded the legal rights and political agency of former slaves following abolition Spanning three centuries of colonial history and postcolonial development this is the first book to systematically examine the distinctive patterns of state building that resulted from forced settlement and colonial occupation in the Black Atlantic world
