Political Posters In Central And Eastern Europe 1945 1995 Signs Of The Times:

Political Posters in Central and Eastern Europe 1945-1995 James Aulich, Marta Sylvestrova, 1999 The political poster was one of the most widely discredited and closely policed aspects of cultural life in the former communist bloc The poster s history is a story of aesthetic political and finally national liberation This comprehensively illustrated comparative analysis of political poster design drawn from major collections in Belorussia Croatia Czech Republic Germany Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Russia Slovenia and the Ukraine exemplifies the aesthetic diversity of the region under communist rule

Political Posters in Central and Eastern Europe, 1945-95 James Aulich, Marta Sylvestrová, 1999 Publikacja towarzysząca wystawie Sign of the times Manchester Metropolitan University 17 11 1999 31 01 2000 The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century Glennys Young, 2011-10-13 Using a source based approach The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century is the first text designed to help students general readers and scholars understand how people constructed Communist ways of life around the world Taking a global approach it extends beyond Russia and Eastern Europe to examine the lives of people in China Korea Vietnam Cambodia Kyrgyzstan Algeria Peru Cuba and elsewhere The book provides an inside look at the Communist experience where people were sometimes simultaneously so enthusiasts reshapers resisters and victims of an ideological project that was and for some still is both humanity s darkest nightmare and brightest hope Since the collapse of Communist regimes beginning in 1989 vital questions about how people subjectively experienced Communism helped to shape it and constructed an idea of self in such restrictive environments have not lost their political significance In fact just the opposite holds true The opening of many formerly closed Communist archives has given scholars the opportunity to research the political significance that the construction of the self had across Communist regimes polities and movements Incorporating the latest scholarship The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century includes previously unavailable documents such as diaries and letters which are now accessible as a result of the archival revolution A photo essay Everyday Life and Everyday Things under Socialism 1945 1989 uses visual evidence to explore everyday life across the Communist civilizations A locator map at the beginning of each chapter identifies the places associated with each of the sources and a chronology provides a comparative timeline for Communist and world history

The Aesthetics of Global Protest Aidan McGarry, Itir Erhart, Hande Eslen-Ziya, Olu Jenzen, Umut Korkut, 2025-10-01 Protestors across the world use aesthetics in order to communicate their ideas and ensure their voices are heard This book looks at protest aesthetics which we consider to be the visual and performative elements of protest such as images symbols graffiti art as well as the choreography of protest actions in public spaces Through the use of social media protestors have been able to create an alternative space for people to engage with politics that is more inclusive and participatory than traditional politics This volume focuses on the role of visual culture in a highly mediated environment and draws on case studies from Europe Thailand South Africa USA Argentina and the Middle East in order to demonstrate how protestors use aesthetics to communicate their demands and ideas It examines how digital media is harnessed by protestors and argues that all protest aesthetics are performative and communicative Governmental Power Market-Ing in the VU-CHAOS World Wongmahesak, Kittisak, Gohwong, Srirath, Pavapanunkul, Shayut, Mahittichatkul, Nasaran, 2023-09-29 Governmental Power Market Ing in the VU CHAOS World is a thought provoking book that explores the blended concepts of state governance marketing and management This book offers a comprehensive examination of the dynamics and implications of governmental power in a rapidly changing world Delve into this text to investigate the concept of government and its significance as well as the rise of gerontocracy where the elders exert influence over the state game both in theory and practice Further chapters explore topics such as the hidden agenda behind the development of government in governmental power marketing theory the sources and status of government strategies and behavior of governments as buyers The influences that shape governmental buying behavior and the implications for controlling governmental power are also examined Readers will gain insights into future trends in government theory and practice including strategic approaches for stateless players and net states Case studies and comparative applications offer real world examples and practical implications Governmental Power Market Ing in the VU CHAOS World is an essential resource for academics researchers policymakers and anyone interested in understanding the complex interplay between governmental power and market dynamics in today's evolving global landscape

Mapping Modernisms Elizabeth Harney, Ruth B. Phillips, 2018-11-01 Mapping Modernisms brings together scholars working around the world to address the modern arts produced by indigenous and colonized artists Expanding the contours of modernity and its visual products the contributors illustrate how these artists engaged with ideas of Primitivism through visual forms and philosophical ideas Although often overlooked in the literature on global modernisms artists artworks and art patrons moved within and across national and imperial borders carrying appropriating or translating objects images and ideas These itineraries made up the dense networks of modern life contributing to the crafting of modern subjectivities and of local transnationally inflected modernisms Addressing the silence on indigeneity in established narratives of modernism the contributors decenter art history's traditional Western orientation and prompt a re evaluation of canonical understandings of twentieth century art history Mapping Modernisms is the first book in Modernist Exchanges a multivolume project dedicated to rewriting the history of modernism and modernist art to include artists theorists art forms and movements from around the world Contributors Bill Anthes Peter Brunt Karen Duffek Erin Haney Elizabeth Harney Heather Igloliorte Sandra Klopper Ian McLean Anitra Nettleton Chika Okeke Agulu Ruth B Phillips W Jackson Rushing III Damian Skinner Nicholas Thomas Norman Vorano The Fate of the New Man Claire McCallum, 2018-07-03 Between 1945 and 1965 the catastrophe of war and the social and political changes it brought in its wake had a major impact on the construction of the Soviet masculine ideal Drawing upon a wide range of visual material The Fate of the New Man traces the dramatic changes in the representation of the Soviet man in the postwar period It focuses on the two identities that came to dominate such depictions in the two decades after the end of the war the Soviet man's previous role as a soldier and his new role in the home once the war was over In this compelling study Claire McCallum focuses on the reconceptualization of military heroism after the war the representation of contentious subjects such as the war damaged body and bereavement and postwar changes to the depiction of the Soviet man as father McCallum shows that it was the Second World War rather than the process of de Stalinization that had the greatest impact on the masculine ideal proving that even under the constraints of Socialist Realism the physical and emotional devastation caused by the war was too great to go unacknowledged The Fate of the New Man makes an important contribution to Soviet masculinity studies McCallum's research also contributes to broader debates surrounding the impact of Stalin's death on Soviet society and on the nature of the subsequent Thaw as well as to those concerning the relationship between Soviet culture and the realities of Soviet life This fascinating study will appeal to scholars and students of Soviet history masculinity studies and visual culture studies

Across the Blocs Patrick Major, Rana Mitter, 2004-08-02 This book asks the reader to reassess the Cold War not just as superpower conflict and high diplomacy but as social and cultural history It makes cross cultural comparisons of the socio cultural aspects of the Cold War across the East West block divide dealing with issues including broadcasting public opinion and the production and consumption of popular culture

Posters Elizabeth E. Guffey, 2014-10-15 From band posters stapled to telephone poles to the advertisements hanging at bus shelters to the inspirational prints that adorn office walls posters surround us everywhere but do we know how they began Telling the story of this ephemeral art form Elizabeth E Guffey reexamines the poster's roots in the nineteenth century and explores the relevance they still possess in the age of digital media Even in our world of social media and electronic devices she argues few forms of graphic design can rival posters for sheer spatial presence and they provide new opportunities to communicate across public spaces in cities around the globe Guffey charts the rise of the poster from the revolutionary lithographs that papered nineteenth century London and Paris to twentieth century works of propaganda advertising pop culture and protest Examining contemporary examples she discusses Palestinian martyr posters and West African posters that describe voodoo activities or Internet con men stopping along the way to uncover a rich variety of posters from the Soviet Union China the United States and more Featuring 150 stunning images this illuminating book delivers a fresh look at the poster and offers revealing insights into the designs and practices of our twenty first century world

Contemporary Chinese Graphic Design Practice Yun Wang, 2025-01-09 Drawing from a rich body of archival documents case studies and interviews this book explores the ways in which graphic designers in China sought to establish graphic design as a profession and discipline from the 1980s to the present day Yun Wang traces the impact of cultural economic and social conditions on China's developing design industry in a period of rapid transformation focusing on Beijing Guangzhou and Shenzhen as industry centres From the influence of the newly implemented reform and opening up policy in 1978 to membership of the World Trade Organization in 2001 and international events such as the 2008 Beijing Olympics Wang maps the increased demand for design talent and the evolution of a creative industry This book provides a critical and extensively researched narrative of how graphic design developed locally and regionally through practice in education and within the publishing landscape and pays particular attention to the ways in which designers in different cities in the People's Republic of China intersected with international networks Including material from interviews with over 50 designers and other stakeholders archival research into graphic work design journals and exhibition catalogues and 100 illustrations and photographs throughout this book provides an in depth exploration of graphic design developments in recent decades It also features personal and institutional accounts in addition to the author's unique insight and reflections on the growing design industry in contemporary China
