Political Protest And Street Art Popular Tools For Democratization In Hispanic Countries:

Political Protest and Street Art Lyman Chaffee, 1993-06-21 This first cross national book length study of street art as political protest and communication focuses on art forms traditionally used by collectives and state interests in the Hispanic world posters wallpaintings graffiti murals shirts buttons and stickers for example Professor Chaffee examines the motives behind the use of street art as propaganda and seeks to explain how it is effective Using field research and a sociopolitical approach he assesses contemporary street art in Spain the Basque country Argentina and Brazil He shows how street art is a barometer of popular conflicts and sentiments across the political spectrum This comparative analysis is intended for students teachers and professionals in the fields of communication political science history and popular culture

Street Art and Activism in the Greater Caribbean Jana Evans Braziel, 2022-09-06 Foregrounding street art in the capital cities of Cuba Haiti and Puerto Rico this book argues that Antillean street artists diagnose the impossible state of the arrested present colonized occupied or under dictatorship while simultaneously imagining liberated futures and fully sovereign states Jana Evans Braziel launches a comparative study of art politics history urban street cultures engaged citizenships and social transformations in three Antillean capital cities Havana Cuba Port au Prince Haiti and San Juan Puerto Rico of the Greater Caribbean The book includes a photo documentary archive of street art murals and installations by key muralists in these cities Yulier Rodriguez Perez Jerry Rosembert Moise and Colectivo Moriviv Chachi Gonzalez Colón Raysa Rodriguez García and Salom Cortés Braziel offers art historical and geopolitical analyses of the urban street art in their cities of production underscoring street art as political economic and environmental engagements and not as exclusively aesthetic ones with urban space and street life The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Caribbean studies Latin American studies and urban studies

Handbook of Latin American Studies Dolores Moyano Martin, P. Sue Mundell, 1997-12-01 Beginning with volume 41 1979 the University of Texas Press became the publisher of the Handbook of Latin American Studies the most comprehensive annual bibliography in the field Compiled by the Hispanic Division of the Library of Congress and annotated by a corps of more than 130 specialists in various disciplines the Handbook alternates from year to year between social sciences and humanities The Handbook annotates works on Mexico Central America the Caribbean and the Guianas Spanish South America and Brazil as well as materials covering Latin America as a whole Most of the subsections are preceded by introductory essays that serve as biannual evaluations of the literature and research underway in specialized areas The Handbook of Latin American Studies is the oldest continuing reference work in the field Dolores Moyano Martin of the Library of Congress Hispanic Division has been the editor since 1977 and P Sue Mundell has been assistant editor since 1994 The subject categories for Volume 55 are as follows Anthropology including Archaeology and Ethnology Economics Electronic Resources for the Social Sciences Geography Government and Politics International Relations Sociology

Political Street Art Holly Eva Ryan, 2016-12-08 Recent global events including the Arab Spring

uprisings Occupy movements and anti austerity protests across Europe have renewed scholarly and public interest in collective action protest strategies and activist subcultures We know that social movements do not just contest and politicise culture they create it too However scholars working within international politics and social movement studies have been relatively inattentive to the manifold political mediations of graffiti muralism street performance and other street art forms Against this backdrop this book explores the evolving political role of street art in Latin America during the twentieth and early twenty first centuries It examines the use appropriation and reconfiguration of public spaces and political opportunities through street art forms drawing on empirical work undertaken in Brazil Bolivia and Argentina Bringing together a range of insights from social movement studies aesthetics and anthropology the book highlights some of the difficulties in theorising and understanding the complex interplay between art and political practice It seeks to explore what art can do in protest and in so doing aims to provide a useful point of reference for students and scholars interested in political communication culture and resistance It will be of interest to students and scholars working in politics international relations political and cultural geography Latin American studies art sociology and anthropology Political Graffiti in Critical Times Ricardo Campos,Yiannis Zaimakis,Andrea Pavoni,2021-02-03

Whether aesthetically or politically inspired graffiti is among the oldest forms of expression in human history one that becomes especially significant during periods of social and political upheaval With a particular focus on the demographic ecological and economic crises of today this volume provides a wide ranging exploration of urban space and visual protest Assembling case studies that cover topics such as gentrification in Cyprus the convulsions of post independence East Timor and opposition to Donald Trump in the American capital it reveals the diverse ways in which street artists challenge existing social orders and reimagine urban landscapes Utopia David Ayers,Benedikt Hjartarson,Tomi Huttunen,Harri Veivo,2015-12-14

Utopian hope and dystopian despair are characteristic features of modernism and the avant garde Readings of the avant garde have frequently sought to identify utopian moments coded in its works and activities as optimistic signs of a possible future social life or as the attempt to preserve hope against the closure of an emergent dystopian present The fourth volume of the EAM series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies casts light on the history theory and actuality of the utopian and dystopian strands which run through European modernism and the avant garde from the late 19th to the 21st century The book s varied and carefully selected contributions written by experts from around 20 countries seek to answer such questions as how have modernism and the avant garde responded to historical circumstance in mapping the form of possible futures for humanity how have avant garde and modernist works presented ideals of living as alternatives to the present how have avant gardists acted with or against the state to remodel human life or to resist the instrumental reduction of life by administration and industrialisation

Sociology of Crisis Myrto Tsilimpounidi,2016-11-03 The global financial crisis has demonstrated the impact and implications of late capitalism and its bedfellow globalisation In the European context crisis is seen as a threat to the stability of the region rather than a local or national concern Post 2008 crisis is social and political rather than merely financial as Western countries witness the consequences of consumption growth and profit In this book Tsilimpounidi demonstrates how sociologists must develop new approaches to examining rapid shifts in the social landscape since crisis is not merely reflected in balance sheets but is mediated through spectacular imagery of loss deprivation and increased vectors of marginalisation Providing focused and valuable insight into the pressing problems of those living in Greece in relation to the wider spheres of the nation and at the level of the European Union Sociology of Crisis takes an approach that is firmly located within a critical sociological appeal to reflexivity A timely engagement with the problem of crisis at a macro level and in dialogue with the everyday experiences of crisis on a micro level this interdisciplinary title will appeal to both undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in sociology social policy geography urban studies and research methods social science

Globalization and New Intra-Urban Dynamics in Asian Cities Natacha

Aveline-Dubach Sue-Ching Jou Hsin-Huang Michael Hsiao ,2014-08-04 This book presents a set of essays on the globalization and intra urban dynamics of the Asian cities conducted by Taiwanese and French researchers It covers four main themes culture led regeneration projects dynamics of second tier cities urban redevelopment and land issues and new urban spaces of regulation associational life and civic action It involved comparing research subject priorities in this field as well as the approaches chosen to deal with them within a geographical zone extended from Northeast to southern Asia Rather than a comparison between Western and Asian visions of the same urban objects the project aimed to highlight differences and or similarities in the approaches of scientific communities inevitably influenced by national issues With great articulation and discourse between urban reality and theories it also observes distinctive approaches of urban research teams respectively in France and Taiwan

Creating Spaces of Hope Caroline Seymour-Jorn,2020-12-15 An exploration of how young artists imagine and maintain hope in post revolutionary Egypt Creating Spaces of Hope explores some of the newest most dynamic creativity emerging from young artists in Egypt and the way in which these artists engage contest and struggle with the social and political landscape of post revolutionary Egypt How have different types of artists studio artists graffiti artists musicians and writers responded personally and artistically to the various stages of political transformation in Egypt since the January 25 revolution What has the political or social role of art been in these periods of transition and uncertainty What are the aesthetic shifts and stylistic transformations present in the contemporary Egyptian art world Based on personal interviews with artists over many years of research in Cairo Caroline Seymour Jorn moves beyond current understandings of creative work primarily as a form of resistance or political commentary providing a more nuanced analysis of creative production in the Arab world She argues that in more recent years these young artists have turned their creative focus increasingly inward to examine issues having to do with personal relationships belonging and inclusion and maintaining hope in harsh social political and economic circumstances She shows how Egyptian artists are constructing spaces of hope that emerge as their art or writing becomes a conduit for broader discussion of social political personal and existential ideas thereby forging alternative perspectives on Egyptian society its place in the region and in the larger global context

Commemoration as Conflict S. McDowell, M. Braniff, 2014-09-09 McDowell and Braniff explore the relationship between commemoration and conflict in societies which have engaged in peace processes attempting to unpack the ways in which the practices of memory and commemoration influence efforts to bring armed conflict to an end and whether it can even reactivate conflict as political circumstances change
