Political Spectacle And The Fate Of American Schools:

Political Spectacle and the Fate of American Schools Mary Lee Smith, Linda Miller-Kahn, Walter Heinecke, Patricia F. Jarvis, 2004-02-02 The authors argue that the most influential and well known educational policy programs in the past 30 years are not based on democratic consensus but are instead formulated by the political community as symbolic efforts meant to generate personal partisan gain

A Good Investment? Amy Brown, 2015-11-15 Select students and teachers worked the room at a fundraising event for a New York City public high school Amy Brown calls College Preparatory Academy It was their job to convince wealthy attendants that College Prep with its largely minority and disadvantaged student body and its unusually high rate of graduation and college acceptance was a worthy investment To this end students and teachers tried to seem needy and deserving hoping to make supporters feel generous important and not threatened How much Brown asks does competition for financing in urban public schools depend on marketing and perpetuating poverty in order to thrive And are the actors in this drama deliberately playing up stereotypes of race and class A Good Investment offers a firsthand look behind the scenes of the philanthropic approach to funding public education a process in which social change in education policy and practice is aligned with social entrepreneurship The appearance of success equity or justice in education Brown argues might actually serve to maintain stark inequalities and inhibit democracy Her book shows that models of corporate or philanthropic charity in education can in fact reinforce the race and class hierarchies that they purport to alleviate As their voices reveal the teachers and students on the receiving end of such a system can be critically conscious and ambivalent participants in a school's racialized marketing and image management Timely and provocative this nuanced work exposes the unintended consequences of an education marketplace where charity masquerades as justice

Hidden Markets Patricia Burch, 2009-01-13 Across the U S test publishers software companies and research firms are swarming to take advantage of the revenues made available by the No Child Left Behind Act In effect the education industry has assumed a central place in the day to day governance and administration of public schools a trend that has gone largely unnoticed by policymakers or the press until now Drawing on analytic tools Hidden Markets examines specific domains that the education industry has had particular influence on home schooling remedial instruction management consulting test development data management and staff development Burch's analysis demonstrates that only when we subject the education industry to systematic and in depth critical analysis can we begin to demand more corporate accountability and organize to halt the slide of education funds into the market

A Universal Template for Research Position and Life Experience Papers Dale Benjamin Drakeford, 2005 The self descriptive title A Universal Template For Research Position and Life Experience Papers implies that there is a position that writers take in even the simplest of essays As such Template provides an opportunity to accomplish two tasks at once consider the definitive differences between Research Position and Experience papers and explore the issues that impound and empower contemporary urban education Dale Benjamin

Drakeford provides an interactive workshop to guide student writing on any social science subject Agreeing with many scholars that public and free pedagogy is indispensable the author also argues that there is no wrong or right in scholastic debate only correct presentation of objective thoughts or non objective attitudes This the author says is what is sometimes forgotten in the heat of getting ideas on paper Hence Template provides structure for planning papers and in process cues for staying on task to complete them with proper formality

Mothering for Schooling Alison Griffith,Dorothy Smith,2005-07-08 Griffith and Smith explore the innumerable hidden seemingly mundane tasks like getting kids ready for school helping with homework or serving on the PTA can all have profound effects on what occurs within school Based on longitudinal interviews with mothers of school age children this book exposes the effects mothers work has on educational systems as a whole and the ways in which inequalities of educational opportunities are reproduced

Critical Approaches to Comparative Education F. Vavrus,L. Bartlett,2009-12-07 This book unites a dynamic group of scholars who examine linkages among local national and international levels of educational policy and practice Utilizing multi sited ethnographic approaches the essays explore vertical interactions across diverse levels of policy and practice while prompting horizontal comparisons across twelve sites in Africa Europe the Middle East and the Americas The vertical case studies focus on a range of topics including participatory development the politics of culture and language neoliberal educational reforms and education in post conflict settings Editors Vavrus and Bartlett contribute to comparative theory and practice by demonstrating the advantages of thinking vertically

Pedagogy, Praxis and Purpose in Education C.M. Mulcahy,D.E. Mulcahy,D.G. Mulcahy,2014-12-05 Recent years have shown the growth of federal legislation and programs having a profound impact on educational policy and practice and a decline in reliance on broadly based educational justifications Paralleling this development has been the emergence of well endowed and influential private foundations and an increase in corporate influence in shaping policy In this volume the authors consider the discourse rhetoric and underlying values that sustain these developments alongside those that underlie more longstanding and competing educational theories and practices This volume highlights the importance of recognizing opposing conceptualizations of education some more educationally productive than others and their core values approaches to student learning strengths and weaknesses and justification The authors analyze and critique what Jane Roland Martin has referred to as the deep structure of educational thought and seek improved educational policy and practice with particular reference to curriculum and pedagogy It features a comparative analysis of competing discourses including autocratic control limited personal development and praxis

Arts-Based Research in Education Melisa Cahnmann-Taylor,Richard Siegesmund,2013-10-08 This text introduces readers to definitions and examples of arts based educational research presents tensions and questions in the field and provides exercises for practice It weaves together critical essays about arts based research in the literary visual and performing arts with examples of artistic products of arts based research arts for scholarship s sake that illuminate by example Each artistic example is accompanied by a scholarARTist's statement that includes reflection on how the work of art relates to the scholar's research interests and practices. Arts Based Research in Education Foundations for Practice helps the reader understand what arts based research is, tracing the history of the field and providing examples. Includes end of chapter questions to engage students in practicing arts based inquiry and to generate class discussion about the material. Features a diverse range of contributors: very established scholars in educational and social science research as well as those new to the field. Represents a variety of voices: scholars of color, queer and straight orientations, different ages, experience and nationalities, and presents beautiful illustrations of visual art, data based poems, plays, short stories and musical scores. First of its kind, this volume is intended as a text for arts based inquiry, qualitative research methods in education and related courses and as a resource for faculty, doctoral students and scholars across the field of social science research methods.

Equality in the Secondary

School Mike Cole, 2009-12-22 Draws together a wealth of knowledge from a varied list of contributors, all of whom recognise the importance of promoting equality in secondary schools. The Problem with Boys' Education Wayne Martino, Michael D. Kehler, Marcus B. Weaver-Hightower, 2009-08-03 This book offers an illuminating analysis of the theories, politics and realities of boys' education around the world: an insightful and often disturbing account of various educational systems, successes and failings in fostering intellectual and social growth in male students. Examining original research on the impact of implementing boys' education programs in schools, the book also discusses the role of male teachers in educating boys, strategies for aiding marginalized boys in the classroom and the possibilities for gender reform in schools that begins at the level of pedagogy. Complete with case studies of various classrooms, school districts and governmental policy programs, the detailed essays collected provide a look into education's role in the development of masculinities, paying special attention to the ways in which these masculinities intersect with race, class and sexuality to complicate the experience of boys within and outside of a classroom setting.
