Preaching Is Believing The Sermon As Theological Reflection:

Preaching is Believing Ronald J. Allen, 2002-01-01 In Preaching Is Believing Allen calls for preachers to help congregations cultivate a systematic approach to Christian faith and life by bringing systematic theology directly into the pulpit

The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice

Sermon Treks Ronald J. Allen, 2013 Discover creative new trails for preaching beyond the lectionary

Kairos Preaching David Schnasa Jacobsen, Robert Allen Kelly, Although lectionary and worship allow us to deepen our appreciation for the Bible and the themes and emphases of the Christian calendar they sometimes fail to allow preachers to speak the gospel directly to the situations that occupy their congregations This book is designed to help pastors and seminarians discover resources they already have to unpack situations and understand them theologically in light of their task of preaching the gospel

Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-01 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today's preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticsians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Contributors include Ronald J Allen Professor of Preaching and Gospels and Letters at Christian Theological Seminary John S McClure Charles G Finney Professor of Preaching and Worship at Vanderbilt Divinity School Alyce M McKenzie George W and Nell Ayers Le Van Professor of Preaching and Worship at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University Michael Pasquarello III Granger E and Anna A Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary Luke A Powery Dean of the Chapel and Associate Professor of the Practice of Homiletics at Duke University Teresa Stricklen Eisenlohr Ph D Associate for Worship Office of Theology and Worship at the Presbyterian Church U S A

Proclaiming the Whole Counsel of God Steve D. Eutsler,2025-04-24 For years the best sages have warned Those who fail to plan plan to fail Experience has proven this advice to be true in the spiritual realm as well as in the secular Without careful planning even Pentecostal ministers of the gospel often repeat certain texts or topics while they neglect other critical truths This frequent phenomenon inspired the integrated approach in this project Dr Eutsler has written a book on preaching that Pentecostal Charismatic pastors and ministers have needed for a long time Based on years of practical experience and sound scholarship it combines an emphasis on the guidance of the Holy Spirit along with long range planning After exploring the unique dynamics of Pentecostal preaching he discusses step by step how to increase their implementation on a more consistent basis This volume will benefit both beginning and veteran students of preaching It could easily be used personally or in a classroom setting Those preachers who read and implement its wise counsel will improve the quality creativity and variety of their preaching George O Wood General Superintendent of the Assemblies of God A Faith of Your Own

Ronald J. Allen,2010-01-25 A faith should be a living thing What we believe necessarily evolves in response to insights into the Bible to questions or doubts we face to changes in life circumstances or to things that happen in the larger world Nevertheless Christians often find it helpful to identify what they can most fully believe at a given moment Such clarity empowers the present and leads us toward the future Such moments can also be mile markers by which we measure our faith journey In each chapter the first section lists the most common ways a certain topic is understood in the Bible The second section identifies important ways the church has interpreted that topic since the Bible s inception The third section introduces contemporary perspectives With that foundational knowledge readers can make a judgment as to which viewpoints seem more or less persuasive to them personally Finally each chapter ends with questions for reflection for individuals or small groups Shaping the Claim Marvin A. McMickle,2008-09-03 Shaping the Claim helps the preacher discover the core of the message to be preached the sermon claim In order to be effective says McMickle a sermon needs to address the hearers at three distinct levels the head or the intellect the heart or passion and conviction and the hand or an expected and desired response In order to discover the biblical claim that a sermon should make upon a particular congregation at a particular time McMickle presents a helpful three step process 1 What 2 So What and 3 Now What The book is keyed to online sermon samples and other Web based features such as sermon illustrations and art Reverberating Word Michael Denham,2018-06-12 Like sounds of beautiful music worship can renew us for God s glory and our good by the invigorating power of God s reverberating Word It is God s story that redeems all our stories We want to tell it again and again as best we can clearly conveying its message meaning richness claim and call Through its every facet and component worship that is biblically expositional can heighten how we proclaim God s story faithfully and creatively pointing to the One who alone offers us true identity security and destiny If you seek me you will find me if you search with all your heart declares the Lord With the ancient prophets and apostles we must repeat and repeat and repeat the most wonderful truth that God wants to be found In Christian worship such tremendous and tender encounter is available to us as nowhere else

www.congregationalresources.org Richard Bass,2004-12-30 An ever increasing number of resources compete for the attention of congregational leaders With a seemingly endless number of choices finding the best resource on a particular topic for a specific congregation is an often daunting challenge www congregationalresources org is an invaluable companion to the groundbreaking online version of Alban Institute s and Indianapolis Center for Congregation s jointly researched and produced Congregational Resource Guide launched in 2001 and accessed by thousands of seekers each week The book conveniently and cogently puts the rich array of important resources into context by examining in depth the key books organizations Web sites and people that will help leaders gain an understanding of important issues facing their congregations The book features ten overviews of important topics by widely recognized experts in their fields including Amy Sherman on Community Ministry Tom Fischer on Congregational Health Lee Ramsey on Preaching Paul Chaffee on Leadership John Janka on Evaluation and Jean Trumbauer on Lay Ministry Each essay is accompanied by an annotated list of selected resources for researching further information Helpful guides for using these valuable resources to promote and encourage congregational understanding and transformation are also included Homiletics Wilfried Engemann,2018-11-19

In a dialogue with all of the theological disciplines and also with closely related human and philosophical sciences this standard work sets out criteria for a contemporary approach to preaching The assumptions arguments models perspectives and methods for analyzing the homiletic process are presented in an understandable form Figures and practical guidelines offer helpful illustrations This comprehensive and engaging format makes this volume a supportive textbook a reliable reference work and a stimulating aid for preaching all in one Feasting on the Word: Year B, Volume 1 David L.

Bartlett,Barbara Brown Taylor,2008-06-11 With this new lectionary commentary series Westminster John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today When complete the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with movable occasions such as Christmas Day Epiphany Holy Week and All Saints Day For each lectionary text preachers will find four brief essays one each on the theological pastoral exegetical and homiletical challenges of the text This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion The editors and contributors to this series are world class scholars pastors and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common Lectionary each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers as well as teachers and students may make use of its content

What We Love: Reflections on Ministry, Leadership, and Mission Myk Habets, John Tucker, 2018-03-08 Leadership is a quality that often goes underappreciated or unrecognized in New Zealand church life But this is not how it should be Leadership is a godly and biblical quality and those with such gifts are to be celebrated and cherished This volume is a tribute to one such gifted leader Charles Hewlett eighth Principal of Carey Baptist College 2010 2017 Structured around the theme of What We Love a saying Charles would repeat often throughout his principalship faculty and students reflect on biblical theological and applied themes central to Christian thought and practice today More than an in house tribute this volume will be of interest and use to pastors and practitioners looking for considered reflections on ministry leadership and mission today

The God of the Dangerous Sermon Frank A. Thomas, 2021-10-19 Learn to engage with a dangerous God to preach the sermons your community needs today Every sermon has a theology and a god of that theology behind it Preaching is more effective and has more integrity when preachers understand the god behind their theology Specifically whether the god is a universal God like the one expressed by Christ and the Christian faith or a tribal god which is sometimes dressed up to resemble Christianity but is something else entirely Frank A Thomas culminates his exploration of the Dangerous Sermon with this book which leads readers through the process of identifying and understanding the gods behind theology and their connection to preaching The reader is equipped to discern the metaphors symbols and rhetorical indicators which point to the god a preacher is serving and calling others to serve Praise for The God of the Dangerous Sermon Enlightening vibrant and memorable A vital resource for anyone who seeks to preach substantive sermons Donyelle McCray Associate Professor of Homiletics Yale Divinity School New Haven CT With dexterous and definitive argument Thomas compels preachers to be accountable for the God behind their rhetoric Karoline M Lewis Marbury E Anderson Chair of Biblical Preaching Professor of Biblical Preaching Luther Seminary St Paul MN The God of the Dangerous Sermon and its two companion books will raise up the next wave of preachers who simultaneously nurture faith communities and bear witness to the God of justice we know in the face of Jesus Christ Gregory V Palmer Resident Bishop of the Ohio West Episcopal Area United Methodist Church Warning to all preachers Do not open this book by Frank Thomas unless you are ready to be changed No one else lays out the promise and perils of preaching with such clarity and compassion I know I do not live up to the call of the God of the Dangerous sermon every single Sunday but Frank Thomas sure makes me want to Great teachers and preachers will do that Lillian Daniel senior pastor of First Congregational Church in Dubuque IA author of Tired of Apologizing for a Church I Don t Belong To In God of the Dangerous Sermon Frank Thomas refines his theoretical vision of celebration in African American preaching and demonstrates how and why theological content is at the heart of his project For Thomas celebration is rhetorical theology made possible because of the actions and character of a God whose divine performance consists of healing the brokenhearted liberating the oppressed and refusing to be tribal A legend in his time this is Thomas at the height of his native genius and creative powers Kenyatta R Gilbert professor of homiletics Howard University School of Divinity Washington DC author of Exodus Preaching Crafting Sermons about Justice and Hope from Abingdon Press Sermons on United Methodist Beliefs Kenneth L. Preaching Women Liz Shercliff,2019-09-30 Filling a glaring gap in the literature around homiletics Preaching Women considers reasons why women preachers should preach from their experiences as women what women bring to preaching that is missing without us and how women preachers can go about the task of biblical preaching A Faith Worth Believing, Living, and Commending Dennis Ngien,2008-03-01 The materials presented here are reflections on a variety of topics a belief in God s suffering and the pastoral implications of this Luther s theology of preaching practical approaches to evangelistic preaching pastoral advice on death and dying apologetic preaching in a post Christian culture on the model of Paul effective living in the power of the Holy Spirit striking a balance between enthusiastic service and fervent love the image of God s love in the Old Testament and personal exhortations Although this book was written on the balcony of my own study where reflection and meditation are carried out it is cognizant of ministry contexts where people s needs and struggles are most evident With anecdotes and analyses the readers will be enabled to discern the signs of divine transcendence in their lives and to apprehend or rather to be apprehended by the beauty of God s grace the abiding basis of our being and well being What has been written in this book reveals the heartbeat of a mentor who earnestly hungers for divine beauty and holiness a mentor whose hunger God eagerly fulfills just as he promises and a mentor who wishes this same fulfillment to happen for readers The basic assumption in this book is this a faith that is worth believing is a faith that is worth living and thus worth commending The book is also an exercise of faith seeking understanding understanding only God could supply It is written with the hope that it will lead readers from knowing God to loving him to enjoying him and finally to proclaiming him so that others will be brought into the orbit of God s inestimable grace Not until our hearts which God s heart touches touch the heart of others is our ministry complete and our life found pleasing to God A Legacy of Preaching, Volume Two---Enlightenment to the Present Day Zondervan,2018-11-13 A Legacy of Preaching Volume Two Enlightenment to the Present Day explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history allowing these preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives theologies and methods of preaching Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the history of preaching. This diverse collection of familiar and lesser known individuals provides a detailed and fascinating look at what it has meant to communicate the gospel over the past two thousand years. By looking at how the gospel has been communicated over time and across different cultures, pastors, scholars, and homiletics students can enrich their own understanding and practice of preaching for application today. Volume Two covers the period from the Enlightenment to the present day and profiles thirty-one preachers, including Charles Simeon by Darrell Young, Robert Murray M. Cheyne by Jordan Mark Stone, Alexander Maclaren by R. Scott Pace, Catherine Booth by Roger J. Green, Charles Haddon Spurgeon by Thomas J.
