Preaching Black Lives (Matter) Gayle Fisher-Stewart, 2020-07-17 An anthology that asks What does it mean to be church where Black lives matter Prophetic imagination would have us see a future in which all Christians would be free of the soul warping belief and practice of racism This collection of reflections is an incisive look into that future today It explains why preaching about race is important in the elimination of racism in the church and society and how preaching has the ability to transform hearts While programs protests conferences and laws are all important and necessary less frequently discussed is the role of the church specifically the Anglican Church and Episcopal Church in ending systems of injustice The ability to preach from the pulpit is mandatory for every person clergy or lay regardless of race who has the responsibility to spread the gospel For there's a saying in the Black church If it isn't preached from the pulpit it isn't important

Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory

As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book s wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry

Preaching Hebrews Douglas D. Webster, 2017-10-09 Hebrews is a powerful meditation on the gospel It is a sixty minute sermon delivered to a worshiping congregation The spiraling impact of theological exposition and pastoral exhortation is impressive Hebrews weans us away from our preoccupation with the start of the Christian life and focuses our attention on the perseverance of faith Life is not a sprint it s a marathon Faithfulness to the end affirms faith from the beginning If we let the word of God have its way with us Hebrews will deepen our faith in Christ and strengthen our faithfulness Like Jesus in the Gospels Hebrews sees the fundamental difference between apostasy and faithfulness as the difference between a religion about God and a Christ centered relationship with God Any form of Christianity that competes like other religions for the attention of its adherents through its rituals practices pastors traditions and sacred spaces has fallen back into an obsolete and worldly strategy The pastor calls for a decisive end to religion even the best religion ever conceived The flow of reasoned argument for Christ and against religion along with the pulsating emotional intensity of ultimate issues laid bare and heart felt warnings against complacency and unbelief deliver a powerful and timely message
