Predicament Of Culture:

The Predicament of Culture James Clifford, 1988-05-18 Clifford offers a critical ethnography of the West in its changing relations with other societies Analyzing cultural practices such as anthropology travel writing collecting and museum displays of tribal art Clifford shows authoritative accounts of other ways of life to be contingent fictions now actively contested in postcolonial contexts

Predicament of Culture James Clifford, 1999 THE PREDICAMENT OF CULTURE - TWENTIETH-CENTURY ETHNOGRAPHY, LITERATURE, AND ART (INTERLOAN 327215). , Culture Writing Tim Watson, 2018-01-19 Focusing on the 1950s and early 1960s Culture Writing argues that this period in Britain the United States France and the Caribbean was characterized by dynamic exchanges between literary writers and anthropologists on both sides of the Atlantic As the British and French empires collapsed and the United States rose to global power in the early Cold War and as intellectuals from the decolonizing world challenged the cultural hegemony of the West some anthropologists began to assess their discipline s complicity with empire and experimented with literary forms and technique Culture Writing shows that the literary turn in anthropology took place earlier than has conventionally been assumed in the 1950s rather than the 1970s and 80s Simultaneously some literary writers reacted to the end of the period of modernist experimentation by turning to ethnographic methods for representing the people and cultural practices of Britain France and the United States bringing anthropology back home There is analysis of literary writers who had a significant professional engagement with anthropology and brought some of its techniques and research questions into literary composition Barbara Pym Britain Ursula Le Guin and Saul Bellow United States douard Glissant Martinique and Michel Leiris France On the side of ethnography the book analyzes works by anthropologists who either explicitly or surreptitiously adopted literary forms for their writing about culture Laura Bohannan United States Michel Leiris and Claude Lévi Strauss France and Mary Douglas Britain Culture Writing concludes with an epilogue that shows how the literature anthropology conversation continues into the postcolonial period in the work of Indian author anthropologist Amitav Ghosh and Jamaican author sociologist Erna Brodber

New Culture in a New World David Kenley, 2004-06 During the 1920s China s intellectuals called for a new literature system of thought and orientation towards modern life the May Fourth Movement or the New Culture Movement spilled beyond China to the overseas Chinese communities This work analyzes the New Culture Movement from a diaspora perspective of the overseas Chinese in Singapore

Frontiers of Historical Imagination Kerwin Lee Klein, 1999-11-10 A thorough and breathtaking review of modern historiography anthropology and literary criticism as they relate to the American frontier Robert V Hine author of Second Sight

The Ethnopoetics of Shamanism M. Santos, 2016-04-30 Over the last century Western portrayals of shamanism have changed radically toward an ethnopoetics of shamanism While shamanic practices had long been indirectly registered by Westerners it is only since the late nineteenth century that they have taken on symbolic import within discourses of primitivism and debates over magic and rationality Gambling and

Survival in Native North America Paul Pasquaretta, 2022-12-13 The cards are turned the chips are raked In casinos all over the country Native Americans are making money and reclaiming power But the games are by no means confined to the tables as the Mashantucket Pequots can attest Although Anglo Americans have attempted to undermine Pequot sovereignty for centuries these Native Americans have developed a strategy of survival in order to maintain their sense of peoplehood a resiliency that has vexed outsiders from English settlers to Donald Trump The Pequots have found success at their southeastern Connecticut casino in spite of the odds But in considering their story Paul Pasquaretta shifts the focus from casinos to the political struggles that have marked the long history of indigenous colonial relations Viewing the survival of Native communities in the face of genocide and forced assimilation as a high stakes game of chance he examines gambling metaphors in historical and literary contexts to reveal strategies employed by several tribes as they participate in various games with white society whether land re acquisition political positioning or resistance to outside dominance Through a comparative analysis of texts spanning four centuries colonial war narratives nineteenth century romance fiction tribal memorials Native American novels Pasquaretta provides a framework for understanding Indian white relations and the role of chance in the realm of colonialism He explores two intertwining themes the survival of indigenous peoples in the face of the European invasion of North America and the ongoing contest of Natives and newcomers that has transpired in the marketplace on the battlefield and in the courts In so doing he considers the impact of reservation gambling on the development of contemporary tribal communities and the role of traditional Indian gambling practices and stories in the survival of indigenous cultural traditions Gambling and Survival in Native North America is a wide ranging book that shows how Native Americans have become active participants in their own survival despite the popular belief that Indian tribes as conquered peoples have been rendered helpless for over a century Working within a system devised to confine and even destroy them they have found ways to remain in the game and against all odds have learned to play it well The Politics of Judgment Kennan Ferguson, 2007-02-01 Drawing on recent contributions to philosophy economics cultural studies feminism psychology and anthropology The Politics of Judgment demonstrates how modern political identities depend upon and are formed by aesthetic judgment Black Rhythms of Peru Heidi Feldman, 2023-02-28 Winner of the IASPM s Woody Guthrie Award 2007 In the late 1950s to 1970s an Afro Peruvian revival brought the forgotten music and dances of Peru s African musical heritage to Lima s theatrical stages The revival conjured newly imagined links to the past in order to celebrate and to some extent recreate Black culture in Peru In this groundbreaking study of the Afro Peruvian revival and its aftermath Heidi Carolyn Feldman reveals how Afro Peruvian artists remapped blackness from the perspective of the Black Pacific a marginalized group of African diasporic communities along Latin America s Pacific coast Feldman s ethnography of remembering traces the memory projects of charismatic Afro Peruvian revival artists and companies including Jos Durand Nicomedes and Victoria Santa Cruz and Per Negro culminating with Susana Baca s entry onto the global world music stage in the 1990s Readers will learn how Afro Peruvian music and dance genres although recreated in the revival to symbolize the ancient and forgotten past express competing modern beliefs regarding what constitutes Black Rhythms of Peru Culture Adam Kuper,2000-11-15 Suddenly culture seems to explain everything from civil wars to financial crises and divorce rates But when we speak of culture what precisely do we mean Adam Kuper pursues the concept of culture from the early twentieth century debates to its adoption by American social science under the tutelage of Talcott Parsons What follows is the story of how the idea fared within American anthropology the discipline that took on culture as its special subject Here we see the influence of such prominent thinkers as Clifford Geertz David Schneider Marshall Sahlins and their successors who represent the mainstream of American cultural anthropology in the second half of the twentieth century the leading tradition in world anthropology in our day These anthropologists put the idea of culture to the ultimate test in detailed empirical ethnographic studies and Kuper s account shows how the results raise more questions than they answer about the possibilities and validity of cultural analysis Written with passion and wit Culture clarifies a crucial chapter in recent intellectual history Adam Kuper makes the case against cultural determinism and argues that political and economic forces social institutions and biological processes must take their place in any complete explanation of why people think and behave as they do Archiveology Catherine Russell,2018-03-15 In Archiveology Catherine Russell uses the work of Walter Benjamin to explore how the practice of archiveology the reuse recycling appropriation and borrowing of archival sounds and images by filmmakers provides ways to imagine the past and the future Noting how the film archive does not function simply as a place where moving images are preserved Russell examines a range of films alongside Benjamin s conceptions of memory document excavation and historiography She shows how city films such as Nicole V dr s s Paris 1900 1947 and Thom Andersen s Los Angeles Plays Itself 2003 reconstruct notions of urban life and uses Christian Marclay s The Clock 2010 to draw parallels between critical cinephilia and Benjamin s theory of the phantasmagoria Russell also discusses practices of collecting in archiveological film and rereads films by Joseph Cornell and Rania Stephan to explore an archival practice that dislocates and relocates the female image in film In so doing she not only shows how Benjamin s work is as relevant to film theory as ever she shows how archiveology can awaken artists and audiences to critical forms of history and memory The Migrant's Time Saloni Mathur,2011-09-27 The conditions of alienation and exclusion are inextricably linked to the experience of the migrant This ground breaking volume explores both the increasing emergence of the theme of migration as a dominant subject matter in art as well as the ways in which the varied mobilities of a globalized world have radically reshaped art s conditions of production reception and display In a wide ranging selection of essays fourteen distinguished scholars in the fields of visual studies art history literary studies global studies and art criticism explore the universality of conditions of global migration and interdependence inviting a rethinking of existing perspectives in postcolonial transnational and diaspora studies and laying the foundation for empirical and theoretical directions beyond the terms of these traditional
