The preColumbian Textiles in the Roemer- and Pelizaeus-Museum Hildesheim, Germany Lena Bjerregaard, 2020-01-14 Along the coast of Peru is one of the driest deserts in the world Here under the sand the ancient Peruvians buried their dead wrapped in gorgeous textiles As organic material keeps almost forever when stored without humidity light and oxygen many of the mummies excavated in the last hundred years are in excellent conditions And so are the textiles wrapped around them Their clear colors are still dazzling and the textile fibers in good condition Textiles were highly valued objects in ancient Peru used for expressing status and diverse messages in these non literate but highly organized and very developed cultures Much energy innovation and aesthetic sensibility were invested in the textiles The preColumbian peoples had access to exquisite materials the local fibers were camelid fibers alpaca and vicuña cotton and plant fibers agave for instance The camelid fibers have very little scales compared to sheep fibers and are long soft and lustrous The Peruvian cotton grew in 5 different colors The ancient Peruvians were also master dyers and have for thousands of years dyed their yarn with indigo blue madder red cochineal red sea snail purple and yellow from many kinds of plants And so they produced some of the finest most beautiful and most interesting textiles in the world Instead of writing they kept the order in their world encoded in textile fibers The Roemer and Pelizaeus Museum in Hildesheim houses a collection of 405 preColumbian textiles Most of them are fragments but a few complete

Bauhaus Weaving Theory T'ai Smith, 2014-11-01 The Bauhaus school in Germany has long been understood through the writings of its founding director Walter Gropius and well known artists who taught there such as Wassily Kandinsky and L szl Moholy Nagy Far less recognized are texts by women in the school s weaving workshop In Bauhaus Weaving Theory T ai Smith uncovers new significance in the work the Bauhaus weavers did as writers From colorful expressionist tapestries to the invention of soundproofing and light reflective fabric the workshop s innovative creations influenced a modernist theory of weaving In the first careful examination of the writings of Bauhaus weavers including Anni Albers Gunta St zl and Otti Berger Smith details how these women challenged assumptions about the feminine nature of their craft As they harnessed the vocabulary of other disciplines like painting architecture and photography Smith argues the weavers resisted modernist thinking about distinct media In parsing texts about tapestries and functional textiles the vital role these women played in debates about medium in the twentieth century and a nuanced history of the Bauhaus comes to light Bauhaus Weaving Theory deftly reframes the Bauhaus weaving workshop as central to theoretical inquiry at the school Putting questions of how value and legitimacy are established in the art world into dialogue with the limits of modernism Smith confronts the belief that the crafts are manual and technical but never intellectual arts Proceedings of the ... Baud,Johanna Louisa Ypeij,2009 Cultural tourism has become an important source of revenue for Latin American countries especially in the Andes and Meso America Tourists go there looking for authentic cultures and artefacts and interact directly with indigenous people Cultural tourism therefore takes place in close engagement with local societies This book analyse the effects of cultural tourism and the processes of change it provokes in local societies It analyses the intricacies of informal markets the consequences of enforcing tourist policies the varied encounters of foreign tourists with local populations and the images and identities that result from the development of tourism The contributors convincingly show that the tourist experience and the reactions to tourist activities can only be understood if analysed from within local contexts Contributors Michiel Baud Annelou Ypeij Lisa Breglia Quetzil E Casta eda Ben Feinberg Carla Guerr n Montero Walter E Little Keely B Maxwell Lynn A Meisch Zoila S Mendoza Alan Middleton Beatrice Simon Griet Steel Gabriela Vargas Cetina Tourism in Latin America especially the sort of cultural tourism that plays to desires for authentic experiences has become a key foreigner currency earner for many countries This important volume examines the impact of tourism across the region providing a rich survey of the range of experiences and teasing out the theoretical implications From the almost surreal Mi Pueblito theme park in Panama to mushroom hunting tourists in Oaxaca to the eco trail leading to Machu Pichu these chapters present compelling cases that speak to identity formation nationalism and economic impacts As the contributors show benefits are differentially accrued to various actors and often not to the communities that tourists come to see Yet the contributors also make it clear that in struggles over ownership authenticity and political representation local communities actively shape the contours and meanings of tourism at times successfully leveraging cultural capital into economic gains Edward F Fischer Director Center for Latin American Studies Vanderbilt University

The Royal Inca Tunic Andrew James Hamilton, 2024-05-14 The hidden life of the greatest surviving work of Inca art The most celebrated Andean artwork in the world is a five hundred year old Inca tunic made famous through theories about the meanings of its intricate designs including attempts to read them as a long lost writing system But very little is really known about it The Royal Inca Tunic reconstructs the history of this enigmatic object presenting significant new findings about its manufacture and symbolism in Inca visual culture Andrew James Hamilton draws on meticulous physical examinations of the garment conducted over a decade wide ranging studies of colonial Peruvian manuscripts and groundbreaking research into the tunic's provenance He methodically builds a case for the textile having been woven by two women who belonged to the very highest echelon of Inca artists for the last emperor of the Inca Empire on the eve of the Spanish invasion in 1532 Hamilton reveals for the first time that this imperial vestment remains unfinished and has suffered massive dye fading that transforms its appearance today and he proposes a bold new conception of what this radiant masterpiece originally looked like Featuring stunning photography of the tunic and Hamilton's own beautiful illustrations The Royal Inca Tunic demonstrates why this object holds an important place in the canon of art history
