Unlike other writers who have viewed the export of American art during the 1950s and 1960s as another form of Cold War propagandizing and famous American artists as cultural imperialists Ikegami sees the global rise of American art as a cross cultural phenomenon in which each art community Rauschenberg visited was searching in different ways for cultural and artistic identity in the midst of Americanization Rauschenberg's travels and collaborations established a new kind of transnational network for the postwar art world prefiguring the globalization of art before the era of globalization The American Painting Collection of the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery, 1988 The Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery houses one of the most highly regarded collections of twentieth century American art anywhere including paintings by Edward Hopper Georgia O Keeffe Mark Rothko Willem de Kooning Marsden Hartley Robert Motherwell Robert Henri Grant Wood Frank Stella and many more internationally renowned artists Calling the Sheldon collection exemplary the art historian and critic Barbara Rose notes Because the collection does not reflect fashion the misguided inspiration of much art collecting today but is rather an effort of connoisseurship and informed by an art historical viewpoint it is certain to remain as durable and exciting tomorrow as it is today The American Painting Collection of the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery offers for the first time a full description of the collection now numbering more than one thousand works that has been nearly a century in the making The first part of the book presents full color reproductions of 101 of the most noteworthy paintings in the collection each accompanied by a brief discussion of the artist and his or her work The second part or catalog consists of a complete inventory of the collection including for each painting its physical description provenance exhibition history and publication history as well as a black and white reproduction Publication of the book coincides with a year long celebration of the centennial of the Nebraska Art Association the Sheldon Gallery's support group and one of the oldest continuous arts organizations in the country The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries American Book Publishing Record, 1968 Time Dust, James Rosenquist Constance White Glenn, James Rosenquist, 1993 James Rosenquist is an internationally renowned artist who first achieved wide recognition as a result of his pioneering contributions to Pop Art in the 1960s and 1970s Like many artists of his circle particularly Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein Rosenquist has been fascinated with the visual language and ephemera of mass reproduction In Rosenquist's case his interest was manifested in an art derived from popular imagery sources yet committed to the expression of his personal concerns as an artist and a printmaker He has tested the limits of the medium in order to achieve on the one hand subtle nuances unique to particular techniques and on the other the vast billboard scale that is his signature style This book traces Rosenquist's entire career from his early work as a sign painter to the creation of what is thought to be the world's largest print Time Dust completed in 1992. An important historical text by Constance Glenn explores such contemporary issues as the role of the mass media, the appropriation of its techniques and imagery, and the origin and demand for multiple images, as well as presenting in depth the artist's evolution as painter and printmaker. The 150 colorplates include, in addition to landmark paintings, numerous examples of previously unpublished sketches and prints, as well as many of Rosenquist's famous works such as the great installation print F 111. The book includes a catalogue raisonné of the artist's 229 prints and an extensive bibliography.
