Sarah Bastard's Notebook Marian Engel, 1974 Sarah Bastard's Notebook [sound Recording] Ciglen, Toby, Marian Engel, 1977? Lifelines Christl Verduyn, 1995 Before her death in 1985 at the age of fifty one Marian Engel had published seven novels two collections of short stories and numerous essays and articles Despite this impressive output and various literary honours including a Governor General's Award for her novel Bear Engel's writing has not received the critical attention it deserves A comprehensive study of Engel's body of work Lifelines fills a major gap in Canadian literary criticism

Marian Engel's Notebooks Christl Verduyn, 2006-01-01 Marian Engel emerged as a writer during that period in Canada when nationalism increased and new feminism dawned Although she is recognized as a distinguished woman of letters she has not been widely studied consequently we know relatively little about her and her craft The material collected in Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute is a major step in redressing that neglect Extracts carefully chosen by Christl Verduyn from Marian Engel's forty nine notebooks notebooks Engel began in the late 1940s and which she maintained until her death in 1985 track Engel's creative development illustrate her commitment to the craft of writing and document her growth as a major Canadian writer The notebooks also portray Engel's surprising leaps of logic her fascination with the bizarre the eclecticism of her reading and the depth and variety of her thinking Finally they present moving documentation of a woman facing cancer and early death Christl Verduyn's illuminating introductory discussions to each of the notebooks unobtrusively guide us in the reading of these sometimes difficult writings Marian Engel's Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute leaves readers with a vivid sense of Canadian culture during the 1960s and 1970s It provides insight into the literary life of one of Canada's significant woman writers including her connections with other Canadian writers and will be of special interest to scholars working in the field of literature Women's Writing in Canada Patricia Demers, Essays on Life
