Shakespeare's Women and the Fin de Siècle Sophie Duncan, 2016-12-01 Shakespeare's Women and the Fin de Siècle illuminates the most iconoclastic performances of Shakespeare's heroines in late Victorian theatre through the celebrity commentary and wider careers of the actresses who played them By bringing together fin de siècle performances of Shakespeare and contemporary Victorian drama for the first time this book illuminates the vital ways in which fin de siècle Shakespeare and contemporary Victorian theatre culture conditioned each other Actresses' movements between Shakespeare and fin de siècle roles reveal the collisions and unexpected consonances between apparently independent areas of the fin de siècle repertory Performances including Ellen Terry's Lady Macbeth Madge Kendal's Rosalind and Lillie Langtry's Cleopatra illuminate fin de siècle Shakespeare's lively intersections with cultural phenomena including the Jack the Ripper killings Aestheticism the suicide craze and the rise of metropolitan department stores If as previous studies have shown Shakespeare was everywhere in Victorian culture Sophie Duncan explores the surprising ways in which late Victorian culture from Dracula to pornography and from Ruskin to the suffragettes inflected Shakespeare Via a wealth of unpublished archival material Duncan reveals women's creative networks at the fin de siècle and how Shakespearean performance traditions moved between actresses via little studied performance genealogies At the same time controversial new stage business made fin de siècle Shakespeare as much a crucible for debates over gender roles and sexuality as plays by Ibsen and Shaw Increasingly actresses' creative networks encompassed suffragist activists who took personal inspiration from star Shakespearean actresses From a Salome esque Juliet to a feminist Paulina fin de siècle actresses created cultural legacies which Shakespeare in performance still negotiates today In the Clouds Sarah Bernhardt, 2021-11-24 In 1878 Gustave Flaubert looked on in horror as his publisher picked up a manuscript from the mysterious stage actress Sarah Bernhardt and published it in place of a new edition of his latest work and watched it go on to become an instant bestseller achieving international fame Narrated by a chair in a hot air balloon In the Clouds is a light hearted humorous tale that follows a character reminiscent of Bernhardt through the skies above Paris Sadly the story sunk into obscurity lying out of print in the English language for much of the twentieth century Featuring the original illustrations by Georges Clairin and in a fresh edit of the first English translation this edition seeks to bring the tale to a new generation of readers

The Fin-de-siècle Poem Joseph Bristow, 2005 Featuring innovative research by emergent and established scholars The Fin de Siècle Poem throws new light on the remarkable diversity of poetry produced at the close of the nineteenth century in England Opening with a detailed preface that shows why literary historians have frequently underrated fin de siècle poetry the collection explains how a strikingly rich body of lyrical and narrative poems anticipated many of the developments traditionally attributed to Modernism Each chapter in turn provides insights into the ways in which late nineteenth century poets represented their experiences of the city their attitudes toward sexuality their responses to empire and their interest in religious belief The eleven essays presented by editor Joseph Bristow pay renewed attention to the achievements of such legendary writers as Oscar Wilde John Davidson Ernest Dowson Lionel Johnson and W B Yeats whose careers have always been associated with the 1890s This book also explores the lesser known but equally significant advances made by notable women poets including Michael Field Amy Levy Charlotte Mew Alice Meynell A Mary F Robinson and Graham R Tomson The Fin de Siecle Poem brings together innovative research on poetry that has been typecast as the attenuated Victorianism that was rejected by Modernism The contributors underscore the remarkable innovations made in English poetry of the 1880s and 1890s and show how woman poets stood shoulder to shoulder with their better known male contemporaries Joseph Bristow is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles where he edits the journal Nineteenth Century Literature His recent books include The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Oscar Wilde Contextual Conditions and the variorum edition of Oscar Wilde s The Picture of Dorian Gray

Female Spectacle Susan A. Glenn, 2009-07-01 When the French actress Sarah Bernhardt made her first American tour in 1880 the term feminism had not yet entered our national vocabulary But over the course of the next half century a rising generation of daring actresses and comics brought a new kind of woman to center stage Exploring and exploiting modern fantasies and fears about female roles and gender identity these performers eschewed theatrical convention and traditional notions of womanly modesty They created powerful images of themselves as ambitious independent and sexually expressive New Women Female Spectacle reveals the theater to have been a powerful new source of cultural authority and visibility for women Ironically theater also provided an arena in which producers and audiences projected the uncertainties and hostilities that accompanied changing gender relations From Bernhardt s modern methods of self promotion to Emma Goldman s political theatrics from the female mimics and Salome dancers to the upwardly striving chorus girl Glenn shows us how and why theater mattered to women and argues for its pivotal role in the emergence of modern feminism
