Sartre Ronald Hayman,1987 A biography of the philosopher and activist who was for thirty five years the most influential thinker of France and the West Life/Situations Jean-Paul Sartre,1977 We Have Only This Life to Live Jean-Paul Sartre,2013-06-04 Jean Paul Sartre was a man of staggering gifts whose accomplishments as philosopher novelist playwright biographer and activist still command attention and inspire debate Sartre s restless intelligence may have found its most characteristic outlet in the open ended form of the essay For Sartre the essay was an essentially dramatic form the record of an encounter the framing of a choice Whether writing about literature art politics or his own life he seizes our attention and drives us to grapple with the living issues that are at stake We Have Only This Life to Live is the first gathering of Sartre s essays in English to draw on all ten volumes of Situations the title under which Sartre collected his essays during his life while also featuring previously uncollected work including the reports Sartre filed during his 1945 trip to America Here Sartre writes about Faulkner Bataille Giacometti Fanon the liberation of France torture in Algeria existentialism and Marxism friends lost and found and much else We Have Only This Life to Live provides an indispensable panoramic view of the world of Jean Paul Sartre Witness to My Life Jean-Paul Sartre,1992

Existentialism is a Humanism Jean-Paul Sartre,2007-07-24 This book presents a new English translation of two seminal works by Jean Paul Sartre the most dominant European intellectual of the post World War II decades The volume includes Sartre s 1945 lecture Existentialism Is a Humanism and his analysis of Camus s The Stranger along with a discussion of these works by acclaimed Sartre biographer Annie Cohen Solal This edition is a translation of the 1996 French edition which includes Arlette Elka m Sartre s introduction and a Q A with Sartre about his lecture In her foreword intended for an American audience acclaimed Sartre biographer Annie Cohen Solal offers an assessment of both works It was to correct common misconceptions about his thought that Sartre accepted an invitation to speak on October 29 1945 at the Club Maintenant in Paris The unstated objective of his lecture Existentialism Is a Humanism was to expound his philosophy as a form of existentialism a term much bandied about at the time Sartre asserted that existentialism was essentially a doctrine for philosophers though ironically he was about to make it accessible to a general audience The published text of his lecture quickly became one of the bibles of existentialism and made Sartre an international celebrity The idea of freedom occupies the center of Sartre's doctrine Man born into an empty godless universe is nothing to begin with He creates his essence his self his being through the choices he freely makes existence precedes essence Were it not for the contingency of his death he would never end Choosing to be this or that is to affirm the value of what we choose In choosing therefore we commit not only ourselves but all of mankind

Sartre For Beginners Donald D. Palmer, 2007-08-21 Sartre For Beginners is an accessible yet sophisticated introduction to the life and works of the famous French philosopher Jean Paul Sartre Sartre was a member of the French underground during WWII a novelist a playwright and a major influence in French political and intellectual life The book opens with a biographical section introducing the significant events in the life of the man who coined the term existentialism Then it examines Sartre s early philosophical works Ideas from Sartre s other fictional and dramatic works are discussed but the greatest part is the presentation of the main concepts from Sartre s Being and Nothingness 1943 These include the topics of consciousness freedom responsibility absurdity bad faith authenticity and the hellish confrontation with other people Finally the book deals with Sartre s modification of his early existentialism to compliment his conversion to a kind of existential Marxism Sartre For Beginners summarizes the work of the most renown philosopher of the 20th Century Sartre's 'Being and Nothingness' Sebastian Gardner, 2009-01-01 This text presents a concise and accessible introduction Jean Paul Satre s existentialist book Being and Nothingness The 20th Century O-Z Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual s place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Versions of Deconversion John D. Barbour, 1994 In Versions of Deconversion John Barbour examines the work of a broad selection of authors in order to discover the reasons for their loss of faith and to analyze the ways in which they have interpreted that loss For some the experience of deconversion led to another religious faith some turned to atheism or agnosticism and others used deconversion as a metaphor or analogy to interpret an experience of personal transformation The loss of faith is closely related to such vital ethical and theological concerns as the role of conscience the assessment of religious communities the dialectical relationship between faith and doubt and the struggle to reconcile faith with intellectual and moral integrity This book shows the persistence and the vitality of the theme of deconversion in autobiography and it demonstrates how the literary form and structure of autobiography are shaped by ethical critique and religious reflection Versions of Deconversion should appeal at once to scholars in the fields of religious studies and theology who are concerned with narrative texts to literary critics and specialists on autobiography and to a wider audience interested in the ethical and religious significance of autobiography
