Sartre And The Media:

Sartre and the Media Michael Scriven, 1993 Dramatic Theories of Voice in the Twentieth Century Andrew Kimbrough, 2010 Phenomenology and the Philosophy of Technology Bas de Boer, Jochem Zwier, 2024-10-16 Our contemporary world is undeniably intertwined with technology influencing every aspect of human life This edited volume delves into why modern philosophical approaches to technology closely align with phenomenology and explores the implications of this relationship Over the past two decades scholars have emphasized users lived experiences and their interactions with technological practices arguing that technologies gain meaning and shape within specific contexts actively shaping those contexts in return This book investigates the phenomenological roots of contemporary philosophy of technology examining how phenomenology informs analyses of temporality use cognition embodiment and environmentality Divided into three sections the volume begins by exploring the role of phenomenological methods in the philosophy of technology and further investigates the methodological implications of combining phenomenology with other philosophical schools The second section examines technology as a phenomenon debating whether it should be analysed as a whole or through individual artifacts The final section addresses the practical applications of phenomenological insights in design practices and democratic engagement By offering a systematic exploration of the connection between phenomenology and technology this volume provides valuable insights for scholars students and researchers in related fields highlighting the continued relevance of phenomenological perspectives in understanding our technologically mediated world Marxist Humanism and Communication Theory Christian Fuchs, 2021-03-16 This book outlines and contributes to the foundations of Marxist humanist communication theory It analyses the role of communication in capitalist society Engaging with the works of critical thinkers such as Erich Fromm E P Thompson Raymond Williams Henri Lefebvre Georg Lukacs Lucien Goldmann G nther Anders M N Roy Angela Davis C L R James Rosa Luxemburg Eve Mitchell and Cedric J Robinson the book provides readings of works that inform our understanding of how to critically theorise communication in society The topics covered include the relationship of capitalism racism and patriarchy communication and alienation the base superstructure problem the question of how one should best define communication the political economy of communication ideology critique the connection of communication and struggles for alternatives Written for a broad audience of students and scholars interested in contemporary critical theory this book will be useful for courses in media and communication studies cultural studies Internet research sociology philosophy political science and economics This is the first of five Communication and Society volumes each one outlining a particular aspect of the foundations of a critical theory of communication in society

Broadcasting in the Modernist Era Matthew Feldman, Henry Mead, Erik Tonning, 2014-05-22 The era of literary modernism coincided with a dramatic expansion of broadcast media throughout Europe which challenged avant garde writers with new modes of writing and provided them with a global audience for their work Historicizing these developments and drawing on new sources for research including the BBC archives and other important collections Broadcasting in the Modernist Era explores the ways in which canonical writers engaged with the new media of radio and television Considering the interlinked areas of broadcasting culture and politics in this period the book engages the radio writing and broadcasts of such writers as Virginia Woolf W B Yeats Ezra Pound T S Eliot James Joyce George Orwell E M Forster J B Priestley Dorothy L Sayers David Jones and Jean Paul Sartre With chapters by leading international scholars the volume s empirical based approach aims to open up new avenues for understandings of radiogenic writing in the mass media age The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Existentialism Kevin Aho, Megan Altman, Hans Pedersen, 2024-04-18 Of the philosophical movements of the twentieth century existentialism is one of the most powerful and thought provoking Its engagement with the themes of authenticity freedom bad faith nihilism and the death of God captured the imagination of millions However in the twenty first century existentialism is grappling with fresh questions and debates that move far beyond traditional existential preoccupations ranging from the lived experience of the embodied self intersectionality and feminist theory to comparative philosophy digital existentialism disability studies and philosophy of race The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Existentialism explores these topics and more connecting the ideas and insights of existentialism with some of the most urgent debates and challenges in philosophy today Eight clear sections explore the following topics methodology and technology social and political perspectives environment and place affectivity and emotion death and freedom value existentialism and Asian philosophy aging and disability As well as chapters on key figures such as Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger Sartre and Beauvoir the Handbook includes chapters on topics as diverse as Chicana feminism ecophilosophy and the environment Latina existentialism Black nihilism the Kyoto school and southeast Asian existentialism and the experiences of aging disability and death Essential reading for students and researchers in the areas of existentialism and phenomenology The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Existentialism will also be of interest to those studying ethics philosophy and gender philosophy of race the emotions and philosophical issues in health and illness as well as related disciplines such as Literature Sociology and Political Theory Critical Theory and Poststructuralism Mark Poster, 2019-05-15 In Critical Theory and Poststructuralism Mark Poster enacts a dialogue between the French poststructuralists especially Michel Foucault and the tradition of critical social theory as developed by the Frankfurt School and by other Continental theorists such as Jean Paul Sartre These confrontations between poststructuralists who represent postmodern thought and theorists committed the modern project of the Enlightenment is according to Poster of urgent importance because of the failure of critical theory to sustain a convincing critique of today s radically changed social formation The Years of Theory Fredric Jameson, 2024-10-08 Magisterial lectures on the major figures of French theory from America s leading Marxist critic Fredric Jameson introduces here the major themes of French theory existentialism structuralism poststructuralism semiotics feminism psychoanalysis and Marxism In a series of accessible lectures Jameson places this effervescent period of thought in the context of its most significant political conjunctures including the Liberation of Paris the Algerian War the uprisings of May 68 and the creation of the EU The philosophical debates of the period come to life through anecdotes and extended readings of work by the likes of Sartre Beauvoir Fanon Barthes Foucault Althusser Derrida Deleuze groups like Tel Quel and Cahiers du Cinéma and contemporary thinkers such as Rancière and Badiou Eclectic insightful and inspired Jameson's seminars provide an essential account of an intellectual moment comparable in significance to the Golden Age of Athens historically fascinating and of persistent relevance

Genealogy and Ontology of the Western Image and its Digital Future John Lechte, 2012-04-27 With the emerging dominance of digital technology the time is ripe to reconsider the nature of the image Some say that there is no longer a phenomenal image only disembodied information 0 1 waiting to be configured For photography this implies that a faith in the principle of an evidential force of the impossibility of doubting that the subject was before the lens is no longer plausible Technologically speaking we have arrived at a point where the manipulation of the image is an ever present possibility when once it was difficult if not impossible What are the key moments in the genealogy of the Western image which might illuminate the present status of the image And what exactly is the situation to which we have arrived as far as the image is concerned These are the questions guiding the reflections in this book In it we move in Part 1 from a study of the Greek to the Byzantine image from the Renaissance image and the image in the Enlightenment to the image as it emerges in the Industrial Revolution Part 2 examines key aspects of the image today such as the digital and the cinema image as well as the work of philosophers of the image including Roland Barthes Walter Benjamin Gilles Deleuze Jean Paul Sartre and Bernard Stiegler

Storming the Reality Studio Larry McCaffery, 1991 The term cyberpunk entered the literary landscape in 1984 to describe William Gibson's pathbreaking novel Neuromancer Cyberpunks are now among the shock troops of postmodernism Larry McCaffery argues in Storming the Reality Studio marshalling the resources of a fragmentary culture to create a startling new form Artificial intelligence genetic engineering multinational machinations frenetic bursts of prose collisions of style celebrations of texture although emerging largely from science fiction these features of cyberpunk writing are as this volume makes clear integrally related to the aims and innovations of the literary avant garde By bringing together original fiction by well known contemporary writers William Burroughs Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo Kathy Acker J G Ballard Samuel R Delany critical commentary by some of the major theorists of postmodern art and culture Jacques Derrida Fredric Jameson Timothy Leary Jean François Lyotard and work by major practitioners of cyberpunk William Gibson Rudy Rucker John Shirley Pat Cadigan Bruce Sterling Storming the Reality Studio reveals a fascinating ongoing dialog in contemporary culture What emerges most strikingly from the colloquy is a shared preoccupation with the force of technology in shaping modern life It is precisely this concern according to McCaffery that has put science fiction typically the province of technological art at the forefront of creative explorations of our unique age A rich opportunity for reading across genres this anthology offers a new perspective on the evolution of postmodern culture and ultimately shows how deeply technological developments have influenced our vision and our art Selected Fiction contributors Kathy Acker J G Ballard William S Burroughs Pat Cadigan Samuel R Delany Don DeLillo William Gibson Harold Jaffe Richard Kadrey Marc Laidlaw Mark Leyner Joseph McElroy Misha Ted Mooney Thomas Pynchon Rudy Rucker Lucius Shepard Lewis Shiner John Shirley Bruce Sterling William Vollman Selected Non Fiction contributors Jean Baudrillard Jacques Derrida Joan Gordon Veronica Hollinger Fredric Jameson Arthur Kroker and David Cook Timothy Leary Jean Fran ois Lyotard Larry McCaffery Brian McHale Dave Porush Bruce Sterling Darko Suvin Takayuki Tatsumi Censored 2018 Mickey Huff, Andy Lee Roth, Project Censored, 2017-10-03 Censored should be affixed to the bulletin boards in every newsroom in America And perhaps read aloud to a few publishers and television executives RALPH NADER The annual yearbook from Project Censored features the year's most underreported news stories striving to unmask censorship self censorship and propaganda in corporate controlled media outlets Featuring the top 25 most underreported stories as voted by scholars journalists and activists across the country and around the world as well as chapters exploring timely issues from the previous year with more in depth analysis Exposed Mia-Marie Hammarlin, 2019-09-15 This book illuminates the personal experience of being at the centre of a media scandal It applies ethnological perspectives to empirical materials from a Swedish context to highlight the existential level of the phenomenon How does it feel to be exposed through scandalisation How does such an experience affect a person's everyday life These are the urgent and fascinating questions that the book addresses It also highlights the fusion between face to face communication and traditional news media Gossip and rumour must be included in the idea of the media system for us to be able to understand the power of a media scandal a finding leads to a critique of earlier research The Algebra of Warfare-Welfare Irfan Ahmad, Pralay Kanungo, 2018-12-24 Electoral democracy combines the ideas and practices of warfare and welfare where both work in tandem as near synonyms India's robust electoral democracy exemplifies this combination in diverse forms Critically analysing the 2014 Parliamentary elections beyond the seduction of immediacy and bare cold statistics this book puts human subjectivity at the centre of election studies and through an anthropological sociological approach makes lives human and non human lived and unlived or unlivable central to any understanding of elections and democracy Crafting a new comprehensive approach this volume looks at the 2014 elections in relation to the changing nature and forms of elections and democracy globally Coming from multidisciplinary backgrounds the contributors to this volume use ethnographic observations to open up a space for new theoretical and methodological reflections on the role of media in Indian elections the shift to the right in 2014 and its consequences the significance of traditional Hindu spaces such as the river Ganga in BJP's victory the role of gurus like Baba Ramdev and the electoral choices available to and exercised by the minorities among others Dictionary of Untranslatables Barbara Cassin, Emily Apter, Jacques Lezra, Michael Wood, 2014-02-09 Characters in some languages particularly Hebrew and Arabic may not display properly due to device limitations Transliterations of terms appear before

The Jewish American Novel Philippe Codde, 2007 Philippe Codde provides a comparative cultural analysis of the unprecedented success of the Jewish novel in the postwar United States by situating the process and event in the context of three closely related American cultural movements the popularity in the US of French philosophical and literary existentialism the increasing visibility of the Holocaust in US American life and the advent of radical theology Codde argues that the literary repertoire of the postwar Jewish novel consists of an amalgam of these cultural elements that were making their mark in the political religious and philosophical systems of the United States at the time and that this explains in part the Jewish novel's sweeping success in the American literary system

Radio John Mowitt, 2011-12-07 In a wide ranging cross cultural and transhistorical assessment John Mowitt examines radio's central place in the history of twentieth century critical theory A communication apparatus that was a founding technology of twentieth century mass culture radio drew the attention of theoretical and philosophical writers such as Jean Paul Sartre Walter Benjamin Jacques Lacan and Frantz Fanon who used it as a means to disseminate their ideas For others such as Martin Heidegger Theodor Adorno and Raymond Williams radio served as an object of urgent reflection Mowitt considers how the radio came to matter especially politically to phenomenology existentialism Hegelian Marxism anticolonialism psychoanalysis and cultural studies The first systematic examination of the relationship between philosophy and radio this provocative work also offers a fresh perspective on the role this technology plays today The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later, 2004-2012 Anne Donadey, 2020-10-07 The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later 2004 2012 examines the cultural political and aesthetic significance of narrative films made during the fiftieth anniversary period of the war between 2004 and 2012 This period was a fruitful one in which film became a central medium generating varied representations of the war and Anne Donadey argues that the fiftieth anniversary film production contributed to France s move from a period of the return of the repressed to one of difficult anamnesis Donadey provides a close analysis of twenty narrative films made during this period on both side of the Mediterranean observing that while some films continue to center on the point of view of only one stake holding group a number of films open up new opportunities for multicultural French audiences to envision the war through the eyes of Algerian characters on screen and other films bring memories from various groups together in thoughtful articulations that represent the complexity of the situation Donadey takes this analysis a step further to analyze what types of gendered representations emerge in these films given the important participation of Algerian women in the revolutionary war Scholars of Francophone studies film women s studies and history will find this book particularly useful The Nobel Prize and the Formation of Contemporary World Literature Paul Tenngart, 2023-10-05 An exploration of the history ambitions and impact of the Nobel Prize in literature as it gained a central position in 20th century global literary culture Few scholars would deny that the Nobel Prize is the most prestigious literary award in the world But what mechanisms made it possible for 18 Swedish intellectuals to become the world s most influential literary critics Paul Tenngart argues that the Nobel Prize in literature has become a special kind of international canonization exerted from a non central semi peripheral position the award sometimes confirms and reinforces hierarchical relations between literary languages and cultures and sometimes disturbs established patterns of dominance and dependence Drawing from a wide range of contemporary theories and methods this multifaceted history of the Nobel Prize questions how the Swedish Academy has managed to keep the prize s global status through all the violent international crises of the last 120 years how the selection of laureates shaped the idea of universal literary values and defined literary quality across languages and cultures and what impact the prize has had on the distribution and significance of particular works literatures and languages The Nobel Prize and the Formation of Contemporary World Literature explores the history and impact of the Nobel Prize in literature from the first award in 1901 through recent controversies involving Bob Dylan and MeToo arguing that the prize is a unique performative act that has been and still is central in our continual and collective construction of world literature People's Diplomacy of Vietnam Harish C. Mehta, 2019-08-20 This is the first full length book on the concept of People s Diplomacy promoted by the president of North Vietnam Ho Chi Minh at the peak of the Vietnam War from 1965 1972 It holds great appeal for historians international relations scholars diplomats and the general reader interested in Vietnam A form of informal diplomacy people's diplomacy was carried out by ordinary Vietnamese including writers cartoonists workers women students filmmakers medical doctors academics and sportspersons They created an awareness of the American bombardment of innocent Vietnamese civilians and made profound connections with the anti war movements abroad People's diplomacy made it difficult for the United States to prolong the war because the North Vietnamese together with the peace movements abroad exerted popular pressure on the American presidents Lyndon Johnson and Richard Nixon to end the conflict It was much more effective than the formal North Vietnamese diplomacy in gaining the support of Westerners who were averse to communism It damaged the reputation of the United States by casting North Vietnam as a victim of American imperialism
