Hafiz and His Contemporaries Dominic Parviz Brookshaw, 2019-02-28 Despite his towering presence in premodern Persian letters

Shams al Din Muhammad Hafiz of Shiraz d 1390 remains an elusive and opaque character for many. In order to look behind the hyperbole that surrounds Hafiz's poetry and penetrate the quasi hagiographical film that obscures the poet himself, this book attempts a contextualisation of Hafiz that is at once socio-political, historical and literary. Here Hafiz's ghazals, short monorhyme, broadly amorous lyric poems, are read comparatively against similar texts composed by his less studied rivals in the hyper-competitive, imitative and profoundly intertextual environment of fourteenth-century Shiraz. By bringing Hafiz's lyric poetry into productive, detailed dialogue with that of the counterhegemonic satirist Ubayd Zakani d 1371 and the marginalised Jahan Malik Khatun d after 1391, the most prolific female poet of premodern Iran, our received understanding of this most iconic of stages in the development of the Persian ghazal is disrupted and new avenues for literary exploration open up. Looking beyond the particular milieu of Shiraz, this study re-assesses Hafiz's place in the Persian poetic canon through reading his poems alongside those produced by professional poets in other major centres of Persian literary activity who enjoyed comparable fame in the fourteenth century. Recognising the aesthetic achievements of his contemporaries does not diminish the splendour of Hafiz's; rather, it forces us to accept that Hafiz was but one member of a band of poets who jostled for the limelight in competing, often intersecting patronage and reception networks that facilitated intense cultural exchange between the cities of post-Mongol Iran and Iraq. Hafiz's ghazals, characterised as they are by conscious and deliberate hybridity, ambiguity and polysemy, are products of a creative mind bent on experimenting with genre. While in no way seeking to deny the mystical stratum of the Persian ghazal in its fourteenth-century manifestation, this study emphasises the courtly and profane dimensions of the form and regards Hafiz through a sober lens, with keen attention to his dynamic role at the heart of a vibrant poetic community that was at once both fiercely local and boldly cosmopolitan.

Introduction to Islamic Archaeology Marcus Milwright, 2014-03-11 This introduction to the archaeology of the Islamic world traces the history of the discipline from its earliest manifestations through to the present, evaluating the contribution made by archaeology to the understanding of key aspects of Islamic culture.

Between Islam and Byzantium Lynn Jones, 2017-03-02 Between Islam and Byzantium provides the first complete analysis of the development of the visual expression of medieval Armenian rulership during the years 884-1045 CE. During this period, the Armenian rulers had loosened the ties that subjected them to the Arab caliphate, but by its end, the Byzantine empire had instead become dominant in the region. The influences exerted by these external opposing powers are a major theme in this book. Lynn Jones re-contextualizes the existing royal art and architecture by integrating analyses of contemporary accounts of ceremonial and royal deeds with fresh examinations of the surviving monuments, of which the church at Aghtamar, with its famous carvings, is the prime example. Setting the art and architecture of the period more clearly in its original context, the author reveals the messages these buildings, sculptures and manuscripts were intended to convey by those who created and viewed them. This study provides a new perspective on the complex interactions between a broad range of nationalities, ethnicities and religions, shedding fresh light on the nature of medieval identity It adds to a growing literature on the eastern neighbours of Byzantium and opens up new issues on the relationship between the Byzantine empire and the Islamic caliphate in the medieval period The Two Eyes of the Earth Matthew P. Canepa, 2017-03-10 This pioneering study examines a pivotal period in the history of Europe and the Near East Spanning the ancient and medieval worlds it investigates the shared ideal of sacred kingship that emerged in the late Roman and Persian empires Bridging the traditional divide between classical and Iranian history this book brings to life the dazzling courts of two global powers that deeply affected the cultures of medieval Europe Byzantium Islam South Asia and China
