The Same but Different Jason Blake, Andrew C. Holman, 2017-08-21 From coast to coast hockey is played watched loved and detested but it means something different in Quebec Although much of English Canada believes that hockey is a fanatically followed social unifier in the French speaking province in reality it has always been politicized divided and troubled by religion class gender and language In The Same but Different writers from inside and outside Quebec assess the game's history and culture in the province from the nineteenth century to the present This volume surveys the past and present uses of hockey and how it has been represented in literature drama television and autobiography While the legendary Montreal Canadiens loom throughout the book's chapters the collection also discusses Quebecers favourite sport beyond the team's shadow Employing a broad range of approaches including study of gender memory and culture the authors examine how hockey has become a lightning rod for discussions about Quebec's identity Hockey reveals much about Quebec and its relationship with the rest of Canada The Same but Different brings new insights into the celebrated game as a site for community engagement social conflict and national expression

Shadows Come At Midnight Ross A. MacInnes, 2021-04-20 At seventeen Ross MacInnes stole a car and was caught At nineteen he was sworn in as a member of the esteemed Royal Canadian Mounted Police And by his thirtieth year of police service he was a commander in the organized crime division of a major urban department Shadows Come at Midnight is a memoir like no other Here is an intimate account by a retired police officer about a life filled with trauma that originated from both within and without Here are stories of tragedy and unimaginable sorrow suffered by a man who folded his anguish into his soul The stories of grief terror humor and compassion will move you in ways you never imagined and will hold you spell bound The roller coaster of the author's journey is mesmerizing On his first posting as an RCMP Officer his partner was murdered As a result he began to take extreme risks in his work and there was no relief for the nightmares except booze He quit the RCMP and for four years searched for an occupation that would give meaning and purpose but was unable to find it Then determined to face down his demons returned as a Police Officer with the Calgary Police Department This is not a self help book but a story of a journey through mental and emotional suffering to a life lived with purpose and joy It took MacInnes years to understand the price he'd paid and to realize that certain injuries heal but that PTSD OSI and moral injury can only be managed never mended He shares the experiences he endured so others can realize they are not alone with their own shadows

The Ultimate Mountain Trivia Quiz Challenge Ralph Storer, 2013-12-16 Are you ready to tackle The Ultimate Mountain Trivia Quiz Challenge This is a quiz book for people who love the mountains and the outdoors It will put your brain through its paces on a wide range of topics including the world's mountains camping weather history films Add cryptic clues anagrams and a whole pot pourri of teasers and twisters and there's something here for everyone The author of 100 Best Routes on Scottish Mountains and The Ultimate Guide to the Munros series brings his quizzing skills and encyclopaedic knowledge of the outdoors to a book that will both inform and delight Whether you re sitting by the campfire or in an armchair the result is a thoroughly interesting and entertaining collection as challenging as any mountain Have fun but be warned that quiz surfing can become addictive Please surf responsibly Hunting & Fishing in Canada ,1956 Challenges Bequeathed ,2009-01-01 In this thoughtful and provocative collection of essays a group of scholars from varied backgrounds and interests have each taken up the educational challenges bequeathed by Dwayne Huebner in his 1996 essay Challenges Bequeathed Huebner encouraged educators to surpass the technical foundations of education affirm the significance of the imagination use the world s intellectual traditions and achievements engage in public discourse about education and speak out for children and youth Each author has extended and in some ways transcended the discussion of these five challenges yet still draw upon the considerable contribution Dwayne Huebner has made to the field of education The writers in this volume grapple with the complexities of teaching and learning as always in process and as always relational of schools as sites of creative and imaginative acts of knowing and being The book begins with Huebner s 1996 essay wherein he delineates the challenges for educators as he perceived them Readers are invited to begin with this chapter However after taking in Professor Huebner s prescience his ability to see years in advance of everyone else what is deeply at work in present times where it is headed and what needs to be done about it Smith this volume we encourage readers to dip into this volume randomly rather than in sequential order While doing so it is important to be mindful that these challenges do not exist in isolation of each other rather they are inextricably linked in myriad ways Each one of these challenges requires consideration of classroom spaces the individuals who occupy these spaces and how these spaces are influenced by external forces Tupper this volume We invite you to take up a challenge Our Neighbors Geographies: Neighbors in the United States and Canada ,1951 Neighbors in the Americas Joseph Russell Smith,1948 Emergency Medical Services ,1986
