Saskatoon Jeff O'Brien, Ruth Millar, William P. Delaine, 2009-06 This coffee table pictorial history in its new paperback edition celebrates the people events and edifices that highlight the city's history To commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the incorporation of the city Saskatoon A History in Photographs documents the growth and the successes of the Hub City and its people in the 20th Century A dozen chapters written in an accessible popular style each contain a written summary of a particular period in the city's development However as the title suggests the book is primarily pictorial numerous photographs illustrate significant buildings and street scenes and people engaged in social political and cultural activities In addition to fostering interest in the history of Saskatoon and providing an attractive memento of the city's centennial Saskatoon A History in Photographs provides a useful update and companion volume to the long out of print Saskatoon A Century in Pictures which was published in 1982 The new book showcases the city's recent history and the new images that have become available to researchers since the original publication Encyclopedia of Local History Carol Kammen, Amy H. Wilson, 2012-10-12 The Encyclopedia of Local History addresses nearly every aspect of local history including everyday issues theoretical approaches and trends in the field The second edition highlights local history practice in each U S state and Canadian province History of Saskatchewan and the Old North West (Classic Reprint) Norman Fergus Black, 2017-11-23 Excerpt from History of Saskatchewan and the Old North West The author is conscious that in this the first History of Saskatchewan many matters have been given a relative prominence that some readers will think undue and that other topics have been ignored or given but passing notice which perhaps should have been treated of at length The problem of selection is one of the most perplexing that has confronted the writer and in so far as his decision is faulty he can offer but the poor extenuation of mingled good intentions and inexperience The work has grown on the author s hands to a bulk far exceeding that originally projected and it has proved necessary to eliminate whole chapters for which materials had been gathered and seriously to curtail many others This elimination has occasioned the author the greater regret in that scores of obliging helpers have aided in collecting the materials he has at length felt compelled to reject He hopes that these kind friends will accept his apologies and not interpret the omission of their contributions as a failure to appreciate their value About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Agricultural Cooperation in Saskatchewan; Its History and Present Status John Franklin Booth, 1924 Agricultural History Gregory P. Marchildon, 2011 The eighteen essays selected for this volume of the History of the Prairie West Series all focus on the agricultural history of the Canadian Plains They cover a detailed survey of First Nations agricultural practices agriculture during the fur trade era and the history of ranching and the evolution as fenced in farm settlements supplanted the open range from publisher ,
