Satan Belhumeur:

Satan Belhumeur Victor Lévy Beaulieu, 1981      Satan Belhumeur Victor Lévy Beaulieu, 1983      Deaf to the City Marie-Claire Blais, 2007-06 This compelling story explores the motley crew of characters including mother turned stripper Gloria alcoholic Tim frequent jailbird Charlie and the suicidal wife of a rich doctor who call the rundown H tel des Voyageurs home Mesmerizing in its passion and humility the narrative evokes the despair and innocence present in modern urban surroundings      Ontological Necessities Priscila Uppal, 2006 Written with the verve of the uninhibited artist but with a clarity of thought and expression more akin to the scientist or scholar these poems investigate the emotional and philosophical struggles of contemporary life Often sparked by the horrors depicted in today's news the poems combine surrealist images with spare and lyrical language to grapple with an increasingly absurd world The most ambitious piece in the collection is a radical post 9 11 translation of the Anglo Saxon elegy The Wanderer and other poems include Don Quixote You Sure Can Take One Helluva Beating Film Version of My Hatred Never Held a Gun and The Romantic Impulse Hits the Schoolyard      That Summer in Paris Morley Callaghan, 2006 It was the fabulous summer of 1929 when the literary capital of North America moved to La Rive Gauche the Left Bank of the Seine River in Paris Ernest Hemingway was reading proofs of A Farewell to Arms and a few blocks away F Scott Fitzgerald was struggling with Tender Is the Night As his first published book rose to fame in New York Morley Callaghan arrived in Paris to share the felicities of literary life not just with his two friends Hemingway and Fitzgerald but also with fellow writers James Joyce Ford Madox Ford and Robert McAlmon Amidst these tangled relations some friendships flourished while others failed This tragic and unforgettable story comes to vivid life in Callaghan's lucid compassionate prose      Midnight Stroll Janice Kulyk Keefer, Nataalka Husar, Claire Weissman Wilks, Goran Petkovsky, 2006 A unique collaboration that explores themes of love and family this collection features poems that are based on works of art placed alongside the very works that inspired them It includes paintings by Nataalka Husar drawings monotypes and lithographs by Claire Weissman Wilks and photographs by Goran Petkovsky      Fifteen Years in Exile Barry Callaghan, 1992      Human Aude, 2006 Using delicate prose and intense imagery this translation explores the relationship and struggle of the human body and its inner being Completely paralyzed by Lou Gehrig's disease Magali is imprisoned in her own body able to communicate only by blinking her eyes Feeling mentally free but physically trapped she reflects on her past and regards her present physical existence as a prison A relationship formed between Magali and her doctor gives one of them the hope to live and the other the grace to die      The German Prisoner James Hanley, 2006 Brilliant in its stark depiction of trench warfare in World War I this lost classic was privately printed in a limited edition in 1930 British censors initially suppressed the short novel because of its tough antiwar views and sympathetic portrayals of German soldiers and even today's readers may be unprepared for its scenes of horrific battlefield carnage and men driven to madness by relentless psychological stress Providing a new view of an underappreciated Canadian author the book also stands as a fascinating addition to the comparatively small shelf of literature by writers who fought in the Great War

Robert Lepage / Ex Machina James Reynolds, 2019-02-07 Robert Lepage Ex Machina Revolutions in Theatrical Space provides an ideal introduction to one of our most innovative companies and a much needed and timely reappraisal of Lepage's oeuvre International interdisciplinary and intercultural to the core Ex Machina have negotiated some of the most complex creative and cultural challenges of our time This book maps the story of that journey by analysing the full spectrum of their richly varied work Through a comprehensive historiography of productions since 1994 Robert Lepage Ex Machina offers a detailed picture of the relationship between director and company while connecting Ex Machina to culturally specific features of Quebec and its theatre This book reveals for the first time how overlooked aspects of creativity and culture shaped the company's early work while installing a dynamic interplay between director and company that would spark a unique and ongoing evolution of praxis Central to this re-evaluation of practice is the book's identification of an architectural aesthetic at the heart of Ex Machina's work an aesthetic which provides its artistic and political centres of gravity Moreover this architectural aesthetic powers the emergence of concrete narrative as a new and distinctive mode of theatrical storytelling uniting story and space body and technology content and form and demanding that we discover the politics of these performances in the energetic gestures of theatre design and space itself Drawing on extensive interviews with Lepage Ex Machina personnel and collaborative partners Robert Lepage Ex Machina calls upon us to revise both our creative and critical perceptions of this vital and distinctive practice

Technicolor Jason Guriel, 2006 Cinematic and literary this collection of poems reflects on the film icons of the 20th century offering a fresh look at legends such as Alfred Hitchcock Orson Welles Rita Hayworth and Bela Lugosi This work exhibits meticulous tone and language while delving into the opulent world of classic films Of interest to fans of both contemporary poetry and classic Hollywood this collection further explores the intersection between film and literature

Green Marilyn Bowering, 2007 Echos of Federico Garcia Lorca Yiannis Ritsos and Rumi add exoticism to this poet's deceptively simple style Combining confession with analytical rigor most of these poems are variations on classic themes but they are driven by the particulars of politics love and family life As the poems progress repeated symbols such as cars coats cups rooms bees and roses begin to hint that the poet has a secret recipe for contentment home and hearth travel warm weather and a belief in human growth

Asterisks David Wevill, 2007 Poems written with clarity and craftsmanship this collection contemplates what is real and observable versus what is not The verses are like asterisks that refer to somewhere else and they strike with meditative depth and spiritual strength Drawn from experiences in Burma England Spain and the United States these words depict moments in time and step back into silence

100 Love Sonnets Pablo Neruda, 2007 Celebrating the works of a great Chilean poet this collection offers a vibrant translation of Neruda's sensual and erotic poetry Famous for his politically engaged lyrics the Nobel Laureate also wrote bold and sexual sonnets and this compilation captures the spirit and verbal dexterity of the lesser known genre These sonnets from one of the most influential and beloved 20th century poets accompany questions for discussion and lists of recommended readings and related websites

Context North America Camille R. La Bossière, 1994 Context North America is a comparative study of Canadian and American literary relations that emphasizes the cultural and institutional contexts in which Canadian literature is taught and read This volume exemplifies the question of how the literatures of Canada might aptly be studied and contextualized in the days of heightened discontinuity and increasingly ambiguous borderlines both between and within the many narratives that make up North America Published in English Lanzmann and Other Stories Damian Tarnopolsky, 2007-05 Ranging widely in subject matter from a musician's destructive narcissism to the strange effects a persistent Norwegian has on a bachelor's love life the stories in this collection also vary in style Both elegantly insightful and highly adventurous these tales are inventive deeply comic sometimes very unsettling and completely engaging
